

Def. since 1st of month, inches.	27
Def. since January 1, inches...	4.83
Total rainfall since Jan. 1, ins.	34.53

	7 a.m.	N 7 p.m.
Dry temperature	56	69
Wet bulb	56	62
Relative humidity	99	67

HIGH COURT TO SPEED MISSISSIPPI DECISION

Hearing on Disputed Redistricting Law Is Advanced to October 12.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—(AP)—At the urgent plea of Mississippi's attorney general, the supreme court today advanced to October 12 its hearing of that state's appeal upholding the validity of its new redistricting law.

The hearing date was set to give the court a chance to decide on or before October 22 whether the act of the state legislature, under which Mississippi's former eight districts were reformed into seven, is constitutional. If it is not, congressional candidates probably will be elected from the state at large.

The attorney general, Greek L. Rice, told Chief Justice Hughes that unless the decision was rendered by that time there would undoubtedly be election contests in the state.

NEW CABINET PICKED FOR TURBULENT CHILE

SANTIAGO, Chile, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Chile's fifth change in government in four months was near completion tonight after Premier Javier Angel Figueroa and six members of his cabinet took oaths of office.

Who the other five members of the cabinet will be was undetermined. Besides the premier, those sworn in and their portfolios were: Jorge Matte, foreign affairs; Admiral Arturo Swett, navy; General Carlos Saenz, army; Francisco Landa, labor; Abelón Valencia, justice; and Manuel Merino, agriculture.

Mr. Executive En Route To New York

Dear Sir:

Reduce travelling costs at the Taft. Only $2.50 for a splendid room with bath. Every modern service. Close to all activities. Live well... and economically!

Stay in an "George Hall" Taft

T A F T

7th Avenue at 50th St., Adj. to Grand Central

BING & BING MANAGEMENT

School Children Revel in Rides, Sights at Southeastern Fair

THROUGHS AT FAIR FOR OPENING DAY

Continued from First Page.

Children had vanished from the grounds, with their places taken by their elders who enjoyed the typical sounds and odors no whit less than the youngsters.

Today Debutante Day. Fair officials are today prepared to care for another huge throng on Debutante Day, an annual affair when members of Atlanta's young social contingent ride through town in elaborately appointed automobiles to the fair grounds where the most attractive combination of debutante and car will be chosen by judges. The parade will wind through town, preceded by the Georgia Military Academy band at 2 o'clock and arrive at Lakewood at 2:30, at which time winners will be selected.

From 10 o'clock this morning until 1 o'clock this afternoon agricultural exhibits will be given by 4-H Boys' Clubs, and from 3 to 4:30 the vaudeville acts, Perry Bechtel's orchestra and Boe Hucksman, the daredevil rider who plunged through a 1-inch board fence while traveling 70 miles an hour Monday, will entertain in front of the grandstand.

Tonight's program will present additional vaudeville acts, the orchestra and fireworks from 7 to 9:30 o'clock, while from 9:30 to 11:30 o'clock dancing will hold forth at the casino.

Monday brought an ideal day for the 1932 opening of the fair, and thousands of school children, released from classes for the day, at an early hour scampered through the gates and onto the midway, where the most attractive assortment of rides, shows and thrills ever presented by the fair held their attention.

Thousands of Atlanta and Fulton county school children visited Lakewood park Monday to take in the midway attractions, compete in miniature airplane contests and see Boe Hucksman, famous stunt motorcycle rider, perform a hair-raising feat. At top, left, Frances Houston, Warren Douglas and Thelma Gunn are crowded into a seat on the "Ride-o," one of the most popular rides; at right, Bowen Hofsford, Bill Paxton and Frampton Ellis, first, second and third prize winners, respectively, with their model airplanes which won the event. At bottom, Boe Hucksman snapped just at the instant he crashed through a solid wooden wall on a motorcycle traveling 70 miles an hour. Staff photos by George Cornell.

By order of the county commission all offices under that body's supervision suspended activities at noon Monday to attend the fair. Only a small working staff was maintained on duty in the building and all judges but one suspended court for the afternoon.

At 2 o'clock Mayor James L. Key, city and county officials and representatives of suburban cities paraded in the wake of a escort of motorcycles through town to the fair grounds. There the mayor and other dignitaries made speeches in front of the grandstand and the annual fair was officially opened.

Midway Is Thronged.

By noon-time the midway and exhibit buildings were thronged. Old and young proceeded to "take in" the rides and shows of the Rubin-Cherry carnival. The pungent odors of wieners, mustard, lemonade, hamburgers and other holiday food filled the air. A bedlam of shouts and laughter mixed with the whirr of rides and the panting music of merry-go-round.

In many instances the older folk dismissed the youngsters in the midway with handfuls of coins and themselves proceeded to the exhibits of poultry, rabbits, pigeons, farm products and liberal arts. Fair officials agreed that the exhibits this year were of a high standard.

Shortly after noon some 7,000 persons gathered in the grandstand to witness motor boat races, model airplane races, vaudeville and the sensational Boe Hucksman drive his motor bike through a solid wooden fence, one of the most unusual thrills ever offered in Atlanta. At night several thousand others gathered in the grandstand to witness an amateur boxing program, vaudeville and a pyrotechnic display. Later a dance at the casino drew many revelers.

In addition to the exhibits in the three buildings a novel Ponce de Leon play attracted unusual interest. A track arranged to include all the hazards of road travel provided a setting for the new V-8 body types of the cars.

While the crowd Monday was huge, fair officials said it was one of the most orderly and best behaved throngs ever to visit the fair. Policemen stationed here and there over the grounds were called upon for no more strenuous activity than wiping mustard from the hands of children and assisting them in finding tired parents.

The many shows—28 shows and rides—of the Rubin-Cherry Company, drew heavy patronage during the day. The opinion was general that midway attractions this year are superior to those of any past year. Among the most popular attractions Monday were the "Ride-o," a novel thriller; the well-known whip; the rollercoaster, ferris wheel, the airplane wheel and many others.

Shows include comedians, dancing girls, midgets, wild men, motorcycle riders who speed around a vertical track, freaks and other oddities. An armored automobile, said once to have been the property of Al Capone, the Chicago gang chief, drew hundreds of the curious.

The exhibits and midway attractions will continue on display through Saturday, which day will officially close the fair. Judging of the exhibits will begin today.

Previous to the opening of the fair, officials had described it as the most unusual in the 17 years' history of the annual event, and those who attended Monday agreed that "it was something different"—and extremely pleasing.

Sleep Fine

Avoid Kidney Acidity

Thousands suffering and losing energy from Getting Up Nights, Backache, Stiffness, Leg Pains, Nervousness, Acidity or Burning, caused by poorly functioning Kidneys or Bladder, should use Cystex (pronounced Siss-tex) specially prepared for these troubles. Works fast, circulating through system in 15 minutes. Only 75¢ at druggists. Guaranteed to fix you up or money back on return of empty package.—(adv.)

3 STAGES OF A COLD

Far Easier Relieved in the First Than in the Second or Third Stage!

It has been discovered that a cold ordinarily passes through three stages. The first is the Dry Stage, the first 24 hours. The second is the Watery Secretion Stage, 1 to 3 days. The third, the Mucous Secretion Stage. A cold is far easier relieved in the first stage than in the later stages.

The wise thing is not to let the cold get into the second stage. Check it quickly. This you can do by taking Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. A few of these tablets taken immediately upon catching cold will usually expel the cold overnight and thus prevent the infection spreading within the system. Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine routs a cold quickly because it does the four things necessary. It opens the bowels—kills the cold germs, infection and fever in the system—relieves the headache and grippy feeling—tones the entire system and fortifies against further attack.

No worry about what you're taking when you take Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. It is utterly safe. Contains no narcotics and produces no bad after-effects. Does not upset the stomach or make the head ring. Every drug store in America sells Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine. It has been the standard cold tablet for years. Handy, pocket-size box, cellophane wrapped. Remember, anything less than the treatment afforded by Grove's Laxative Bromo Quinine is taking chances. Get it today.

Grove's LAXATIVE BROMO QUININE

BONUS PAYMENT PLAN DENOUNCED BY BYRD

Rear Admiral Says It Is the Minorities Who Have Representation.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd delivered a denunciation of the bonus payment proposal today before setting out for Baltimore on the first leg of an airplane tour sponsored by the National Economy League.

"Appropriations for specially privileged minorities saturate our whole governmental system," he said in an address before the Advertising Club of New York.

"The great majority pay without voice, taxes that are imposed by small groups and privileged sections. It is the minorities who have representation."

"These laws for the special few have crept into our system unawares until now it takes $15,000,000,000, the earnings from the labor of our whole 120,000,000 people, for over three months of each year, to pay the tax bill. Should our citizens realize this startling fact there would be no necessity for any economy organization."

"Ours is becoming a government betrayed to a selfish few by the indifference of the great majority. When there is an effort to take away the special privilege from these few they unite and know that it will be possible to break their grip from the throat of our country."

"For the first time since 1776 there is need for a second declaration of independence to break the servitude to organized minorities of the great majority of our people. The only way to accomplish this is for the great majority also to organize, for masses of people cannot act in union without organizing."

break their grip from the throat of our country.

"For the first time since 1776 there is need for a second declaration of independence to break the servitude to organized minorities of the great majority of our people. The only way to accomplish this is for the great majority also to organize, for masses of people cannot act in union without organizing."

SOVIET WILL STRESS QUALITY PRODUCTION

MOSCOW, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Quality rather than quantity is to be the watchword of soviet production during 1933.

So the central committee of the communist party decided at the four-day meeting which ended last night and which is the annual occasion for formulating the policies of the coming year.

The committee adopted a series of resolutions admitting serious shortcomings in the development of the country's public economy, especially in foods, and exhorting the party members and the proletariat to put their shoulders to the wheel from now on.

GARDNER AGAIN TRIES TO END TEXTILE STRIKE

RALEIGH, N. C., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Governor Gardner went to Rockingham, N. C., today to try to settle a strike of more than 1,200 textile workers, idle for more than six weeks.

It is the governor's third attempt at strike settling in six weeks. First he went to High Point and ended a strike of several thousand furniture and silk mill workers. Later he brought about an end to a lengthy strike of chair factory and cotton mill operatives at Thomasville, N. C.

BIG SAVING Set of Teeth $7.50

10-Day Special $30—TrueByte Teeth—$15

Recallite Plates Big Reduction 20 Years Knowing How

DR. C. A. CONSTANTINE

191 Peachtree St., Cor. Decatur

250 PARAGUAYANS DIE IN GRAN CHACO FIGHTS

ASUNCION, Paraguay, Oct. 3.—(AP) Paraguayan casualties in the fighting of the past several months with Bolivian forces in the Gran Chaco were officially listed today as 250 dead and 830 wounded.

CLEANING PRICES YOU CAN'T BEAT

FOR THIS WEEK ONLY

Primo

CASH AND CARRY

Call Jackson 2406

At All 20 Primo Stores

SUIT OR Felt HAT CLEANED

25¢ 3 Any 75¢

Any Garment Dyed Black or Blue $1.50

STEAM HEAT FOR RENT

You can afford heating comfort this winter—modernize your home, office or store—be comfortable and save from 10 to 50% of your heating bill.

Crow offers steam heat with gas for rent. A very small down payment covers installation cost. For new or old buildings—large or small. Small monthly charges DURING HEATING SEASON ONLY covers rental and can be applied against purchase if you decide to buy later.

Send for Folder

CLOW GASTEAM HEATING COMPANY

140 Walker St., S. W. Phone MA. 3271

CLOW GASTEAM RADIATORS

STEAM HEAT WITH GAS

Rhodes-Wood Furniture Company

"COME TO THE CORNER" TODAY.. For YOUR new PHILCO Jr.

BALANCED SUPERHETERODYNE

WITH GENUINE ELECTRO DYNAMIC SPEAKER AND ILLUMINATED STATION DIAL

ONLY $18.75

COMPLETE ---- with latest type PHILCO High Efficiency Tubes!

A GENUINE

PHILCO

AT AN ASTOUNDING LOW PRICE!

Think of it! A genuine PHILCO—a musical instrument of quality—for only $18.75!

It's a real PHILCO superheterodyne of superb tone that will "bring in" broadcasts from a surprising distance—and the price sounds almost too good to be true!

Come in and see this great NEW PHILCO Jr. with genuine ELECTRO-DYNAMIC SPEAKER—Illuminated Station Dial—latest type PHILCO High Efficiency Tubes.

NOTICE: To Out-of-Town Buyers

Mail orders for this New PHILCO JUNIOR will be promptly filled when accompanied by your check or money order.

HEAR IT TODAY! AT RHODES-WOOD! OF COURSE...

$18.75 is the Cash Price! However, if you do not care to pay cash, you may purchase your new PHILCO JUNIOR at a slight increase in price and on terms of $1.00 Cash—$1.00 weekly.

WHITEHALL AT MITCHELL

Rhodes-Wood FURNITURE CO.

COMPLETE HOUSE FURNISHERS

BRANCH STORE 338 PETERS STREET, S. W.

Spring Hill

"So Reasonable . . . I Had No Idea"

TO THOSE who cannot realize that the beauty of Spring Hill is for all residents of Atlanta, the words of a visitor here may be more convincing than any statement of our own. Not long ago a woman visiting the mortuary was heard to remark:

"The prices are so reasonable. I had no idea that Patterson's could serve for so little. I don't see how you do it."

The answer, of course, is that a larger number of services are held at Spring Hill, which means a lower overhead expense per family. . . . Visitors are always welcome. A letter or postcard will bring you a complimentary copy of the booklet, "A Memory Picture."

H. M. Patterson & Son

Funeral Directors

1020 Spring Street Telephone Hemlock 1020

MEMBER BY INVITATION NATIONAL SELECTED MORTICIANS

Rail Business Is Recovering, Official of A. C. L. Says Here

Vice President C. McD. Davis Asserts That Indications Point to Early End of Depression.

Unmistakable signs of business recovery are being noted in numerous lines of trade, but they are perhaps more apparent in the railroad industry than in any other, C. McD. Davis, of Wilmington, N. C., vice president of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad, said Monday in an address before the Traffic Club of Atlanta.

He spoke at a luncheon of the club at the Atlanta Athletic Club. "All along the line there are more indications that the darkened winter of the depression is passing and that the buds we see are the buds of a business springtime," Mr. Davis asserted. "Unless these signs prove false I believe that a general improvement will be made in the railroad business and it will be reflected in other lines of business."

Mr. Davis cited the following reasons for his belief that improvement in business generally is at hand: The return of gold to the United States; increased commodity prices in the south; upturn in the securities markets; the easing of credits and sons for his belief that improvement in business generally is at hand: The return of gold to the United States; increased commodity prices in the south; upturn in the securities markets; the easing of credits and the stabilization of the banking situation and the prospects for a reduction in the costs of federal, state, county and city governments.

C. McD. DAVIS.

Mr. Davis said that in the final analysis he believed that the world would reap some benefits from the depression.

"One result of the depression and at the same time an aid in ridding the world of the hard times is that people generally are readjusting themselves to a deflated form of living," he said. "Perhaps the most encouraging indication of today of a return to more normal conditions is that we are becoming reconciled to readjustment to a less expensive mode of living." Mr. Davis pointed out. "While we are much poorer in material things than we were during the inflation period which collapsed in November, 1929, we are infinitely richer in those intangible possessions which go to make character."

C. & S. TO RELEASE MILLION DOLLARS IN NEW CURRENCY

A million dollars in brand new money soon will be circulating about Atlanta, for within a few days the Citizens and Southern National bank will release that sum in crisp five, ten and twenty-dollar bills.

The money arrived Monday from the treasury and the bills bear the signatures of William Murphy, the bank's president, and A. C. Kline Jr., cashier. It will be placed in circulation as soon as the sheets of six bills each have been cut by a staff of employees, directed by Assistant Cashier Pat H. Winter, and the serial number of each bill is checked.

The money is the first ever issued by the bank in its 44-year history. H. Lane Young, executive vice president, said Monday that the bills were issued because the large volume of deposits warranted putting the money to work, the government securities posted for the money were obtained at what was considered an excellent investment and because the circulation will add to the working capital of business in this section.

FLORIDA HOTEL BLAST ROUTS SLEEPING GUESTS

PALATKA, Fla., Oct. 3.—Ten guests, asleep in their rooms, escaped serious injury today when a series of explosions rocked the three-story brick Hotel James here.

The blasts, believed by firemen to have been caused by escaping gas, left the lobby a mass of twisted wreckage.

CHEST REHABILITATION LAUDED BY GOLDSMITH

Agencies Provide More Than Temporary Relief, Automobile Dealer Stresses.

Rehabilitation, not temporary relief for needy persons, is a feature of the Community Chest's work, which cannot be stressed too emphatically, J.

W. Goldsmith Jr., of Goldsmith-Baker, said Monday in commending the forthcoming appeal of the Chest for funds.

"The Community Chest, whose annual appeal for public support in 1932 is soon to be presented, merits the support of every intelligent man and woman," Mr. Goldsmith said. "The Chest, it is to be remembered, is devoted to helping the destitute and unfortunate out of their misfortunes, instead of blind doles and handouts trying to help them, and thus continue them in their poverty and misfortune. Each group operating within the Chest, covering a broad program of human service, tries to rehabilitate the unfortunate family or individual, and not merely to afford temporary relief."

"This requires expert and thoughtful treatment—a particular treatment for each problem of need, based upon its circumstances. Only through an experienced organization like the Chest and its agencies can this be achieved."

TALMADGE NAMES MORE DELEGATES FROM 10 COUNTIES

An additional list of delegates from ten counties not included in those announced Sunday were made public by the Talmadge convention committee Monday. The new delegates will run the total close to 1,100, it was announced, with only Bryan county missing.

Delegates appointed are: DOUGLAS COUNTY—Delegates: Glenn Florence, W. J. Butler, N. P. King, Jr., H. Willoughby, Newt Graham, Cecil Williams, V. B. Smith, Oscar Roanlight.

COOKE COUNTY—Delegates: J. H. Green, J. P. Tomlinson, Alternates: E. M. Lindsey, R. H. Mican.

DEKALB COUNTY—Delegates: Leon O'Neal, T. E. Drake, Mrs. W. S. Ekin Jr., Augustus Rame, Sam Nimmo, Julius McCurdy, John S. Chandler, H. E. P. White, R. H. Mobley, Mrs. William Schley Rowland, John I. Ryals, Benson, Alternates: A. Perry Griffin.

MORGAN COUNTY—Delegates: Albert G. Foster, James A. Nolan Jr., Floyd C. Newton, L. B. Ponder, Alternates: Marvin E. Anderson, A. F. Jenkins, G. H. Stewart, Turner Bell.

WILKES COUNTY—Delegates: N. R. Barnett, C. H. Carr, J. E. Carr, J. A. Callaway.

WHEELER COUNTY—Delegates: A. C. Burkhart, R. F. Jordan, J. A. McRae, R. E. Rivers, Max L. Segall, N. A. Wynn, A. J. Lowry, Joe E. Williams, Alternates: W. A. Bravell, George A. Clark, Frank Irwin, H. L. Sears, J. A. Pope, E. N. Sears, J. R. Sumner, J. Hobson Walker, G. L. Hattaway.

BROOKS COUNTY—Delegates: Beth Williams, C. T. Tillman, Jacob Milner, Alternates: T. Johnson, W. W. Guess.

CLAY COUNTY—Delegates: Leo T. Barber, M. L. Lee, J. C. Brinson, W. A. Sutton, Alternates: R. S. Roderburg Jr., G. F. Clark, L. O. Rogers, R. E. White.

JACKSON COUNTY—Delegates: Herman Delaportiere, A. L. Delaportiere, Jack Murphy, A. D. Harris, Alternates: J. C. Verner, Mrs. J. W. Johnson, Ella White.

TAYLOR COUNTY—Delegates: Rev. M. T. Gaultney, E. M. Crawford, Alternates: Sims Garrett Jr., J. H. Harris.

FEDERAL JURY TOLD NOT TO WASTE TIME ON MINOR MATTERS

Judge E. Marvin Underwood, of United States district court, Monday charged the October term federal grand jury to use its energy in considering cases of major importance and devote less time to minor matters, particularly with reference to lesser prohibition violations, which can be handled in state courts.

Charles P. King was named foreman of the new grand jury. The jury returned 16 true bills and two no bills, 15 of the true bills being for liquor law violations.

As Judge Underwood opened the October term, the federal fifth circuit court of appeals convened for two weeks of court. The appellate court on Thursday will hear appeals of W. Clyde Smith and Ed O. Ellis, who were convicted of using the mails to defraud Roy E. Martin, of Columbus, of $90,000 with a bogus race-horse system. The court's calendar includes 42 cases.

Sitting in the appellate court are Judge Nathan P. Bryan, of Jacksonville; Judge Rufus E. Foster, of New Orleans; Richard W. Walker, of Huntsville, Ala.; Judge Samuel H. Cicer, of Marietta; and Judge Joseph C. Hutcheson, of Houston, Texas.

Organization of a city-wide committee of business and industrial leaders seeking to share all work as equally as possible among their employees will be completed at a meeting of about 20 leaders at 11 o'clock this morning in the board room at the Federal Reserve bank.

Share-work plan WILL BE DISCUSSED BY LEADERS TODAY

Organization of a city-wide committee of business and industrial leaders seeking to share all work as equally as possible among their employees will be completed at a meeting of about 20 leaders at 11 o'clock this morning in the board room at the Federal Reserve bank.

Share-work plan WILL BE DISCUSSED BY LEADERS TODAY

Organization of a city-wide committee of business and industrial leaders seeking to share all work as equally as possible among their employees will be completed at a meeting of about 20 leaders at 11 o'clock this morning in the board room at the Federal Reserve bank.

Share-work plan WILL BE DISCUSSED BY LEADERS TODAY

Organization of a city-wide committee of business and industrial leaders seeking to share all work as equally as possible among their employees will be completed at a meeting of about 20 leaders at 11 o'clock this morning in the board room at the Federal Reserve bank.

Share-work plan WILL BE DISCUSSED BY LEADERS TODAY

Organization of a city-wide committee of business and industrial leaders seeking to share all work as equally as possible among their employees will be completed at a meeting of about 20 leaders at 11 o'clock this morning in the board room at the Federal Reserve bank.

Share-work plan WILL BE DISCUSSED BY LEADERS TODAY

Organization of a city-wide committee of business and industrial leaders seeking to share all work as equally as possible among their employees will be completed at a meeting of about 20 leaders at 11 o'clock this morning in the board room at the Federal Reserve bank.

Share-work plan WILL BE DISCUSSED BY LEADERS TODAY

Organization of a city-wide committee of business and industrial leaders seeking to share all work as equally as possible among their employees will be completed at a meeting of about 20 leaders at 11 o'clock this morning in the board room at the Federal Reserve bank.

Share-work plan WILL BE DISCUSSED BY LEADERS TODAY

Organization of a city-wide committee of business and industrial leaders seeking to share all work as equally as possible among their employees will be completed at a meeting of about 20 leaders at 11 o'clock this morning in the board room at the Federal Reserve bank.

Share-work plan WILL BE DISCUSSED BY LEADERS TODAY

At the present time we are enjoying the largest restaurant business in the South and we are in the strongest financial condition of our career. Since our patrons are entirely responsible for this enviable position, it is with pleasure that we make this announcement to them in thirteen Southern newspapers.

IN 7 SOUTHERN CITIES

CAFETERIAS

AGAIN LOWER PRICES ON QUALITY FOOD

70 OUT OF 77 DISHES FEATURED DAILY ONLY 5c AND 10c

NO ITEM ON OUR COUNTERS OVER 25c

"IT'S WISE TO ECONOMIZE"

Our prices now more clearly displayed—study them. Determine what you care to spend—buy accordingly. Do not select more than you can eat—we want you to board with us.

ALL SALADS	SPECIAL DAILY LUNCHEON PLATE	ALL DESSERTS
5c & 10c	Consisting of a Meat, Three Vegetables, Bread and Butter	5c & 10c
No Charge for Second Cup of Coffee or Tea	25c	No Charge for Second Glass of Iced Tea

ECONOMIZE!

All Soups, with Crackers	5	Eggs, any style, each	5	French Toast	5
All Cereals hot or dry, with	5	Cream Omelette	15	Fried Bananas	10
Whole Milk	5	All Other Omelettes	20	Escalloped Corn	10
Escalloped Cabbage	5	Cheese Croquette	15	Macaroni au gratin	5
Egg and Potato Pie	10	Fritters	10	Liver Mush and Bacon	15
Spaghetti Italiane	5	Spaghetti au gratin	10	Boiled Cabbage	5
Buttered or Creamed Carrots	5	Dried Beans	5	Dried Peas	5
Creamed Potatoes	5	Mashed Turnips	5	Grits with Butter	5
Beef Loaf with Spanish sauce	20	Boiled Onions	5	Other Vegetables	10
American Pot Roast	20	Chipped Beef in Cream	20	Weiners and Kraut	15
Hamburger Steak with Onions	20	Frankfurters and Potato Salad	20	Maryland Hash	20
Roast Beef Hash	20	Broiled Pounded Steak	20	Beef Stew with Vegetables	15
Lamb Stew and Vegetables	15	Salisbury Steak	20	French Pot Stew	15
Bacon, each (3 for 10)	15	Chicken Croquette	15	Chicken Wings and Giblets	20
Sausage Cake	10	Broiled Lamb Chop	20	with Rice	20
Breakfast Ham	15	Canadian Bacon, each	5	Broiled or Breaded Veal Chop	20
Fish, Fried, Broiled or Baked	20	Link Sausage, each (3 for 10)	15	Devilled Fresh Crab	20
Veal Stew and Vegetables	15	Salmon Croquette	15	Fish Cake	10
Shredded Carrots	5	Turkey Croquette	15	Broiled or Breaded Veal Chop	15
Dill Pickles	5	Sliced Beet Salad	5	Cole Slaw	5
Tapoca Pudding	5	Sliced or Spring Onions	5	Chocolate Pudding	5
Doughnuts, two	5	Relishes	5	Coffee Cake	5
Ice Cream	5	Ginger Bread	5	Cottage Pudding	5
Apricots, Prunes or Peaches	5	Fruited or Plain Gelatine	5	Jelly or Preserves	5
Dried	5	Rice Pudding	5	Apple Sauce	5
Coffee, with Pure Cream	5	Iced or Hot Tea	5	Milk (½ pint)	5
Toast, Dry or Buttered	5

Demand Forces Us to Carry the Following 25c Items, But Not Over Five at Any One Meal Are Displayed:

Braised Short Ribs & Potatoes	Calf Liver with Bacon or Onions	Roast Prime Rib of Beef
Corned Beef & Cabbage	Minced Tenderloin & Mushrooms	Country Fried Steak
Small Tenderloin Steak	Roast Prime Round of Beef	All Chicken Dishes
All Turkey Dishes	Small Sirloin Steak	Broiled Lamb Steak
Braised Lamb & Peas	Roast Pork Ham	Spare Ribs & Kraut
Barbecued Pork Hash	Smothered Pork Tenderloins	Baked Sugar Cured Ham
Broiled Ham Steak	All Rabbit Dishes	Soft Shell Crab
Oysters	Shrimp	Scallops
	Roast Leg of Lamb & Dressing	Veal Cutlets

Prices Subject to Change.

SPECIAL STEAKS

Broiled After Your Arrival and Not Displayed on Our Counters

Tenderloin	.35
T-Bone, 10 ounces	.40

Thousands of These Have Been Sold by Us and Are Popular Values

CONTINUING OUR POLICY OF HIGHEST QUALITY COURTEOUS SERVICE AND REAL CLEANLINESS

CHARLOTTE
ASHEVILLE RALEIGH

ATLANTA

KNOXVILLE
ROANOKE
CHATTANOOGA

ON SALE NOW

PHILCO JR.

LATEST 1933 MODELS

NOW ONLY

$18.75

TAX PAID CASH—COMPLETE

With Philco High Efficiency Tubes. Slight Additional Cost for Terms and Installation.

FIRST COME—FIRST SERVED!

We have only a limited number of these sets. A genuine Philco! It's a Superheterodyne, too, with illuminated dial and Electro-Dynamic Speaker.

NEW LOW-PRICED JUNIOR MODELS

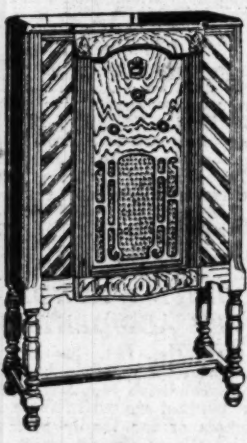

PHILCO JR. RADIO-PHONOGRAPH. Plays both long and short playing records. Powerful Superheterodyne radio with new type tubes and large electro-dynamic speaker. Beautiful cabinet—hand-rubbed—48" high. Specially priced at

$87.50

Complete—Delivered—Installed—

Powerful new Philco with improved modern features. Large electro-dynamic speaker. Powerful tubes. Hand-rubbed cabinet. A special value.

$47.50

Complete—Delivered—Installed—

Small Down Payment! L-O-N-G Easy Terms!

PHILCO

Ashby Street Pharmacy
215 Bankers Avenue
Bame's, Inc.
107 Peachtree Street
Carroll Furniture Co.
149-153 Whitehall St., S. W.
Cobb-Heard Furniture Co.
277 Marietta St.
Duffie-Freeman Furniture Co.
Corner Broad and Hunter Sts.
The J. J. Haverly Co.
208 Edgewood Avenue, N. E.

J. M. High Co.
Cor. Whitehall and Hunter Sts.
Myers-Dickson Furniture Co.
154 Whitehall St., S. W.
Mutual Furniture & Novelty Co.
410 Edgewood Avenue, N. E.
Parks-Chambers
C. W. Jordan, Mgr. 37 Peachtree St.
Peoples Furniture Co.
75 Forsyth Street, S. W.

Peerless Furniture Co.
411 Marietta Street, N. W.
Perdue Furniture Co.
383 Decatur Street
Rhodes-Wood Furniture Co.
117 Whitehall Street, S. W.
Rich's, Inc.
Broad and Alabama Streets
Sears-Roebuck Furniture Co.
116 Whitehall Street, S. W.
East Point Furniture Co.
Henry Motor Co.
East Point, Ga.

STATE P-T. A. BOARD MEETS IN AUGUSTA

Relief Movement for Needy Children in Richmond County Outlined.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 3.—(P)—The story of how a worker for the Parent-Teacher Association led a movement which has provided a great number of Richmond county children with clothing to wear to school was related Monday at the state board of P-T. A. officers met here.

The worker is Mrs. J. W. Sibert, of Augusta, second vice president in charge of organization work, and local president of the Monte Sano school P-T. A.

When numerous P-T. A. chapters work out plans for clothing needy children in their local schools, Mrs. Sibert worked out a plan whereby every child in the county should be clothed for school.

The idea met a responsive chord and a sewing room was opened, material obtained and more than 500 garments turned out by P-T. A. workers for children of the county.

Workers in the organization said teachers are reporting great improvement not only in the work of pupils who formerly were shabbily attired, but in the work of those students whose parents are able to clothe them properly. The more fortunate students began working harder to keep up with the enthusiastic youngsters who were sporting the new clothes made by the P-T. A. workers, the teachers reported.

Reports of various groups were read at the opening session of the board meeting Monday. Mayor W. D. Jennings was host to the visitors at a barbecue this afternoon. The convention came to a close tonight at a public meeting at the First Baptist church, at which Dr. Lawton B. Evans, who is celebrating his fiftieth year as Richmond county school superintendent, was the principal speaker.

Dies in Atlanta

MRS. J. L. BRASWELL, OF LOGANVILLE, DIES

LOGANVILLE, Ga., Oct. 3.—Mrs. J. L. Braswell, 77 years of age, died Sunday night in an Atlanta hospital.

Mrs. Braswell, a native of Walton county, was one of this section's most prominent residents. She was the daughter of James T. Robertson, at one time a member of the state legislature. Mrs. Braswell was a life member of

1 KILLED, 3 INJURED IN DALTON ACCIDENT

Auto Crash Fatal to Tim Borders, 23, of Calhoun.

CALHOUN, Ga., Oct. 3.—(P)—One man was fatally injured and three others hurt, two seriously, in an automobile accident near Dalton.

Tim Borders, 23, died in a Dalton hospital Sunday night of injuries received when the car in which he was riding crashed into a bridge railing.

Three of the occupants of the car were rushed to Dalton, while J. A. Wright, the fourth member of the party, received only slight cuts and bruises.

W. H. Stevens was critically injured but was expected to recover. A youth named Hall was also in the hospital suffering less serious hurts.

Borders was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Borders, of Calhoun.

WAYCROSS OFFICERS
INJURED IN CRASH

WAYCROSS, Ga., Oct. 3.—(P)—J. G. DeLoach was seriously injured and P. W. Farr bruised when a police car overturned Sunday.

Farr, who was driving, swerved to avoid hitting a calf in the highway. Both men are Waycross policemen.

Savannah Girl Is 'Miss Brenau'

Miss Annabelle Armstrong, of Savannah, Ga., won the title of "Miss Brenau" in the annual bathing beauty contest at Brenau College conservatory, Gainesville, Ga. She is a member of Phi Mu Sorority.

Mrs. Mattie Harris Lyon Honored For Religious, Social Leadership

MARIETTA, Ga., Oct. 3.—Mrs. Mattie Harris Lyon, oldest living member of the First Methodist church and one of the most prominent residents of Marietta, was paid high tribute at special services in her honor at the church here.

MRS. MATTIE HARRIS LYON.

Mrs. Lyon has been a member of the church for 65 years, during which she has served as an officer in every department of the church work.

Besides her activities in the church Mrs. Lyon has been the outstanding leader in relief work, social service and inter-racial work in Marietta for many years.

She organized the Community Chest here and is still the honorary president of that agency. She also organized the Cobb county chapter of the American Red Cross. She has been a leader in the local chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy and has personally directed the work of marking the graves of the Confederate soldiers in this county.

Her work among the negroes has been praised by religious and social service leaders throughout the country. She instituted the practice of holding services in the jail for the benefit of the prisoners and organized a Bible class for negroes. She visits the negro churches and schools of Marietta regularly and encourages them in their work.

Mrs. D. R. Little made the principal tribute to Mrs. Lyon at the special church services.

Economic Meet Called By League of Nations

GENEVA, Oct. 3.—(UP)—A decision to call the widely-heralded world economic conference to meet in London, possibly in February, was announced today by the League of Nations' council organizing committee.

While reports were circulated that an international meeting might be summoned to consider the vital question of Franco-German armaments.

A British spokesman said Prime Minister J. Ramsay MacDonald was "thinking about" calling a conference in London to discuss the controversy between France and Germany, which is demanding equal rights in armaments.

SALARY CUT REFUSED BY MAYOR OF MACON

MACON, Ga., Oct. 3.—(P)—Mayor G. Glen Toole has written a letter to Scott Russell, chairman of the Bibb county "Taxpayers' League," that he has not accepted a 10 per cent reduction in salary and that he "does not intend to accept any."

The mayor wrote that Russell was "attempting to dominate the league without consulting its members."

An amendment to the city's appropriations ordinance calls for 10 per cent reduction in the salaries of city employees, and the mayor's letter was in answer to one purported to have been sent by Russell asking if the mayor would accept the reduction.

FETZER NOMINATED IN FIRST DISTRICT

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 3.—(P)—George W. Fetzer, of Effingham county, was nominated for the state senate from the first district Monday at a convention held here. The candidate is ill at his home near Guyton and was not present. Edwin A. Cohen was re-elected chairman of the committee and Harbridge Shearouse, of Savannah, was elected secretary.

REV. H. K. HOLLAND CALLED TO CHARLOTTE

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 3.—(P)—The Rev. Harry K. Holland, of Conyers, Ga., Monday was called to the pastorate of the Plaza Presbyterian church here. He has not announced his decision. He is now pastor of the Conyers and Smyrna Presbyterian churches. Mr. Holland is a native of Atlanta.

VETERANS' REUNION MAY BE CALLED OFF

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 3.—(P)—General William Harden, commanding the Georgia division, United Confederate veterans, said Monday it is too late now to consider going to Atlanta for a reunion. If there is no invitation from some south Georgia point there will be no 1932 reunion, he said.

JAMES H. WALKER, 71, PASSES AT SCREVEN

JESSUP, Ga., Oct. 3.—(P)—James H. Walker, 71, formerly of Blackshear, Ga., and prominent Wayne county businessman, died at his home at Screven, Ga., Sunday.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday. He is survived by one brother, one sister, seven children, 20 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

State Deaths And Funerals

I. V. JOHNSON.
SPARTA, Ga., Oct. 3.—I. V. Johnson, 70, died at his home in this county early Monday. Mr. Johnson was one of the largest land owners and farmers in Hancock county and had lived here practically all his life. He is survived by his widow, a grandson, U. E. Johnson, of this city, and two great-grandchildren. A brother and a sister. Funeral services will be held from the Knowles Chapel church near here Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock.

MRS. BETTY CLARK.
HOGANVILLE, Ga., Oct. 3.—Funeral rites for Mrs. Betty Clark, who died at her home here, will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

ROOSEVELT COMMENDS RED CROSS CONFERENCE

New York Governor Wires Best Wishes to Delegates at Athens.

ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 3.—(P)—Stone J. Crane, field representative of the American Red Cross, Monday night announced he had received a telegram from Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt extending best wishes for the regional conference of the Red Cross now being held.

The telegram: "My best wishes attend your regional conference now in session. This is a time of great opportunity for usefulness for the Red Cross and I am confident your regional conference will respond as it has before."

The conference Monday was well attended. Tomorrow's conference will be held in Statesboro, one in Albany Thursday, Griffin Friday and Cartersville Monday.

William Carl Hunt, assistant manager of the national Red Cross explained to representatives from 41 counties the essentials of the winter's relief work.

"Never do for a man or family what that man or family can do for himself or themselves," Mr. Hunt declared to be one of the first rules to be observed by the relief worker.

He pointed out the necessity for a clearing house to list all cases handled by relief organizations so that any single organization could make sure it was not duplicating the work of another.

The community, Mr. Hunt declared, is first, foremost and primarily responsible in any emergency. No community should look for outside help in leadership or funds until it has first exhausted its own resources.

One of the greatest dangers of the widespread relief work now in progress, Mr. Hunt said, is that a large number of persons in the country may become pauperized. He urged workers to handle relief work in such a way that recipients would be fully aware the donations were purely a temporary and emergency aid.

THREE CUBAN FLIERS HOP FROM SAVANNAH

SAVANNAH, Ga., Oct. 3.—(P)—A party of Cuban good-will fliers hopped off Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock for Miami. A flight at 8:30 o'clock was a failure because of bad weather, necessitating a return to the municipal airport.

Those in the party were Captain M. Torres, Lieutenant Rudolph Herrera, Lieutenant Paul Alonso and Sergeant D'Lorescia Cebeles, A. Martinez and T. Alvarez. They are traveling in three planes with a special escort plane piloted by army flier Lieutenant Jack Hodgson. The party reached the Savannah airport late yesterday.

Savannah chapter of the National Aeronautical Association was host at a banquet given Sunday night.

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 3.—(P)—Three Cuban good-will fliers coming on a flight that took them through Mexico and the United States, took off here at 3:50 p. m. for Havana.

Purveyor Defense Claim Of Housebreaking Hit

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 3.—(P)—Captain Frank Glisson, of the police department, testified today that he had found no evidence indicating that Will Jamison, negro, had broken into the home of Stanley A. Puryear the morning of May 2 when Puryear's wife and daughter were slain with an ax.

The state is asking Puryear's electrocution for the fatal wounding of the negro upon whom he has placed blame for the ax murders of Mrs. Puryear and their daughter. The state charged that Puryear killed the negro to "cover up" his own connection with the other crime. Puryear contends the negro broke into his home and murdered the sleeping woman and child. Puryear says he shot the negro after discovering evidence of the slayings.

Glisson testified today that a door leading into the basement of the Puryear home was found locked upon his arrival there, and that his investigation revealed no evidence of housebreaking.

3 Rome Officers Held For Murder of Negro

ROME, Ga., Oct. 3.—(P)—The Floyd county grand jury Monday returned indictments charging W. N. Cochran, C. E. Warren and John Adams, suspended policemen of Rome, with murder in connection with the fatal shooting of Cothran Warren, negro, during a raid on a gambling game.

Bench warrants were issued by Judge James Maddox and the trial of the defendants scheduled for the week of October 17-22.

The negro was killed when the officers allegedly found Warren and four other negroes participating in a game of dice.

It was in evidence at the coroner's inquest that the negro was shot while running from the scene of the raid. Another negro, Robert Dean, was wounded. The coroner's jury ordered the officers held for the grand jury under bond of $500 each. Neither of the defendants testified at the inquest.

MACONITE WOUNDED BY ACCIDENT SHOT

MACON, Ga., Oct. 3.—Mrs. Lee Smith was in the Macon hospital in a serious condition Monday, suffering from a gunshot wound in the head.

Members of the family told investigating officers several persons, including Mrs. Smith, were shooting at targets in the yard of the home Monday morning with a .22-caliber rifle.

While one of them was loading the rifle the gun was discharged, the bullet striking Mrs. Smith in the back of the head, it was stated. The relatives said it was an accident.

Sheriff's deputies, who investigated, said that no further action would be taken pending the outcome of the inquiry. While physicians consider the woman's condition serious, she may recover, they said.

Horse Trading Is Brisk In Whitfield County

DALTON, Ga., Oct. 3.—(P)—Brisk trading of horses, mules, cows, hogs, dogs and farming equipment was reported Monday at the Dalton horse traders' convention, the first held in this county in many years.

Hundreds of farmers and other citizens attended the convention and officials of the convention said "it is just another blow to the depression."

DR. G. CATE PASSES AT BRUNSWICK HOME

BRUNSWICK, Ga., Oct. 3.—(P)—Dr. G. Cate, 70, prominent Brunswick physician, died at his home Sunday night after an illness of several months.

A native of North Carolina, Dr. Cate came to Brunswick in 1893 and for 34 years had served as Glynn county physician.

He is survived by his widow, Margaret Davis Cate, and two children by a former marriage, Mrs. Charles E. Hight, of Meridian, Miss., and Miss Vassa Cate, of Brunswick.

Super-Macy SALE in Davison-Paxon's BASEMENT

New Fall HANDBAGS

Underselling Atlanta at
39¢ each

Selling Up to Super-Macy at 59¢ each
During the past month we have sold more than a thousand at 59¢ each. Made of washable Dupont fabrikoid. Copies of more expensive styles.

Women's Silk Hosiery

Underselling Atlanta
39¢ Pair

Selling Up to Super-Macy at 49¢ Pair
First quality, full-fashioned, in smart new fall colors with French heels. Sizes from 8½ to 10. A great buy.

Women's Rayon UNDERWEAR

Underselling Atlanta at
29¢ 4 for $1

Selling Up to Super-Macy at 39¢
Non-run rayon undies in bloomers, panties, step-ins, vests and chemise. All regular sizes.

Now--at Super-Macy Savings! 'American Girl'

(Arch Support)
Silhou-welt Shoes

Underselling Atlanta
in Davison-Paxon's Basement at $3.88

Selling Up to Now at $4.94!
All the comfort and fine quality of well-constructed shoes, plus a lightness and flexibility, make these American Girl shoes "unbeatable." You've been paying $4.94 for them. During Super-Macy you can get them at the low price of $3.88!

Now--at Super-Macy Savings! 'American Girl'

(Arch Support)
Silhou-welt Shoes

Underselling Atlanta
in Davison-Paxon's Basement at $3.88

Selling Up to Now at $4.94!
All the comfort and fine quality of well-constructed shoes, plus a lightness and flexibility, make these American Girl shoes "unbeatable." You've been paying $4.94 for them. During Super-Macy you can get them at the low price of $3.88!

Now--at Super-Macy Savings! 'American Girl'

(Arch Support)
Silhou-welt Shoes

Underselling Atlanta
in Davison-Paxon's Basement at $3.88

Selling Up to Now at $4.94!
All the comfort and fine quality of well-constructed shoes, plus a lightness and flexibility, make these American Girl shoes "unbeatable." You've been paying $4.94 for them. During Super-Macy you can get them at the low price of $3.88!

Now--at Super-Macy Savings! 'American Girl'

(Arch Support)
Silhou-welt Shoes

The Gem Doubledge Blade has everything on the ball except a curve.

It's too strong to break and too thick to bend. Made of tough, surgical steel—the keenest, cleanest shaving blade on earth—except the single-edge GEM—its only quality equal.

Built for the one-piece GEM Micromatic Razor, which presents $660,000 worth of exclusive features, including dual-alignment, which sets the blade so precisely that it can't dodge a hair or scuff the most sensitive skin.

Gem Doubledge Blades fit Gem Micromatic Razors only. Gem Singleedge Blades fit all Gem Razors—new or old.

GEM BLADES

Product of American Safety Razor Corp., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"I wanted a clear skin— I got it . . . and a happy home, too"

If you long for a better skin . . . or strength to overcome that so-called tired-feeling, why not pause a moment and reason in a common-sense way what may be the cause of your trouble and its relation to the blood

THERE is no secret as to how to have a clear skin—in most cases it comes from within. That is just why you may need S.S.S.

This time-tested tonic has brought happiness and joy to thousands. To some it has meant freedom from pimples and boils . . . to others it has meant a restored appetite and improved digestion—to all it has meant greater vitality.

The reason for this is that S.S.S., in addition to being a valuable general tonic, has the special property of increasing the red-cells and restoring the hemoglobin content of the blood, when deficient.

Hemoglobin, in the red-cells of the blood, plays an important role in body vitality and in combating skin troubles—it acts as a carrying agent to take oxygen from the lungs to all parts of the body—even to the skin—and carries off the waste product.

Overwork, worry, colds, sickness and diet neglect frequently reduce the red-cells and the hemoglobin content of the blood—and when these are reduced the body and mind are not normal.

This means much to you. The right amount of hemoglobin in the blood makes a vast difference in the way you feel and look. It means sufficient oxygen . . . better assimilation of food . . . more energy . . . and more resistance.

pimples . . . boils tend to thrive when the system is in a run-down condition due to a deficiency of this vital hemoglobin, causing a lack of oxygen and an excess of poisonous carbon dioxide gas.

even the appetite lags when there is not enough hemoglobin in the blood stream to give the system the oxygen it needs and to free it of poison.

and digestion can function properly only when there is sufficient oxygen in the blood to "burn" the food consumed. A lack of oxygen may result in impaired nutrition . . . gas . . . abdominal discomfort . . . nausea . . . constipation . . . diarrhea . . . headache . . . underweight, etc.

so that tired feeling—as it is commonly called—is related to the red-blood-cells and their hemoglobin, for the reason that oxygen in the blood gives greater vitality to the system and to the devouring and attacking cells . . . which resist disease.

one feels happier when the red-blood-cells and their hemoglobin content are up to their full quota. A deficiency in the oxygen-carrying hemoglobin may result in paleness, poor complexion, poor circulation, numbness, pricking sensations, restlessness, nervousness, irritability or sleeplessness.

then why not try S.S.S.—the proven tonic for increasing the red-cells and hemoglobin—proved effective by scientific research and millions of happy users. It may be the very means of restoring your skin beauty and bringing better health and more happiness to you.

Start taking a course of S.S.S. today. It is sold by all drug stores in two convenient sizes—the larger size is more economical and is sufficient for a two week's treatment. Don't permit anyone to "sidetrack" you in your determination to restore your red-blood-cells and hemoglobin back to normal. © S.S.S. Co.

Constipated? Then take KLOK-LAX the sure laxative—"acts on time" (18 tablets in gold and black box—35¢).

S.S.S. builds sturdy health

Underselling All Other Atlanta Stores!

DAVISON - PAXON'S

Elaborately Lace-Trimmed, Pure SILK JERSEY

An Unusual Super-Macy Sale Value at $1.09

Underselling Atlanta at

97¢

Plain or Brassiere-Top Teddies!
Vests! Bloomers! 3 styles of Panties!

Fine quality Silk Milanese, lavishly lace-trimmed at an outstanding Super-Macy price.

Davison-Paxon's Street Floor

Mme. De Beaulieu, Gossard Stylist, will be in our corset department
Tuesday and Wednesday
Let her fit you into a new Fall foundation!

Gossard's
Mis-Simplicity

Underselling Atlanta

$2.98

Copy of
Our $5 Best Seller!

As a grand Super-Macy gesture, we had this Mis-Simplicity specially made up to sell at this astounding price! With the same diaphragm control, the same tricky back-straps, the same sleek, supple lines that have made this Mis-Simplicity a knock-out—Lace or tricot top.

Third Floor

Knit with GERMANTOWN YARN

Underselling Atlanta at

21¢ a ball

5 balls for $1

The Same Soft Quality We
Sold Up to Super-Macy at 35¢

Knit or crochet Afghans, Rugs, Sweaters.
Miss Phillips is here to give free instructions.

Davison-Paxon's Fourth Floor

Davison-Paxon's Cold Cream Soap

Underselling Atlanta at

12 Cakes for

58¢ 24 Cakes $1

Sells Regularly for 69¢ Box!

Full 20% Cold Cream—made according to Davison's strict specifications. Lathers richly and freely. Assorted odors and pastel shades. Attractively boxed. Stock up now!

Davison-Paxon's Street Floor

Box Contains
4 Bath-size Cakes
8 Hand-size Cakes

Super-Macy Savings on Our Famous Heavy Cast Aluminum

These Pieces Have Been Selling at $2.39 and $2.98

During Super-Macy Sale They Will Be Underselling Atlanta at

$1.98

10-in. Covered
Frying Pan

12-Cup
Coffee Pot

4-qt. Covered
Boiler

5½-qt. Tea
Kettle

2-qt. Double
Boiler

French Roaster

5-qt. Dutch Oven

Omelette Pan

Davison-Paxon's
Fourth Floor

S U P E R - M A C Y

Sale!

SUPER-MACY means UNDERSELLING

Our staff of experienced shoppers has been instructed to see to it that our Sale merchandise is priced lower than in any other store, quality for quality. We are not infallible. If you find in any other store an item of merchandise that, quality for quality, is priced as low as our advertised sale merchandise, report it to any section manager in our store, and if the merchandise is found comparable, we will instantly reduce our price so it will be lower than the lowest price elsewhere!

It's Smart to Buy Now!

Clearance!

33 Jr. Deb

Winter Coats

Underselling Atlanta at

$28.50

Selling Up to Now at $38.50

Hardly as new as this season's coats, but plenty new and plenty smart to see you through the Winter! Excellent fabrics, fine tailoring in sizes from 11 to 17 that small women (as well as Jr. Debs) can wear.

Lavishly

Fur - Trimmed!

Come in Black,

Brown, Green.

Jr. Deb Department, Third Floor

Sweater---Skirt

and Jacket Included!

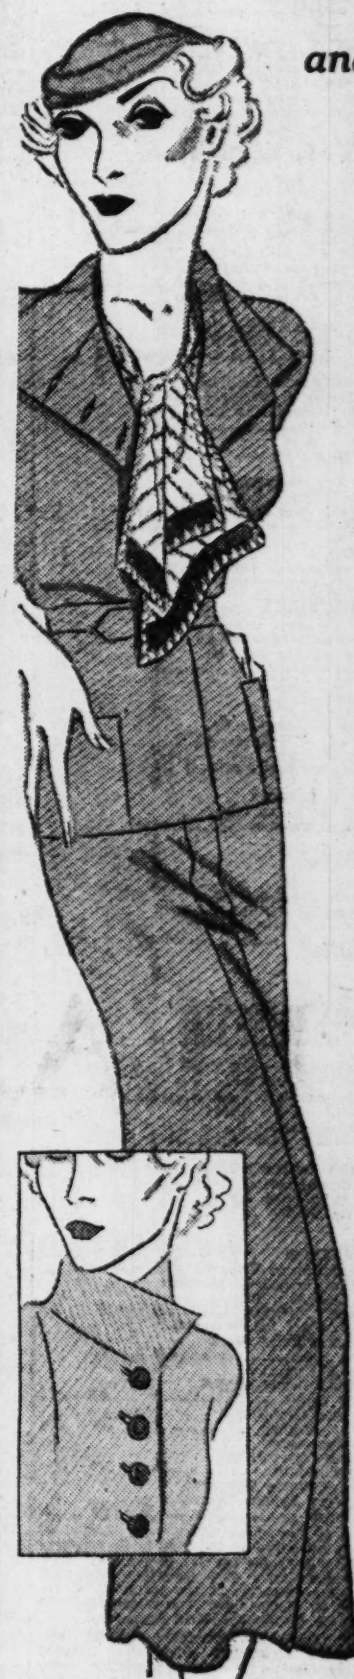

Knit Suits

Underselling
Atlanta at $7.95

Regularly Would Be
$10 and $12.95!

If you have a nose for value and a yen for knit things, you're going wild over these suits! Better than that, you're going to buy them—and even better than that, you're going to pat yourself on the back for getting the super-value of the entire great Super-Macy sale!

Black Brown
Wine Pine Green
Navy Beet-Root

Misses' Sizes 16 to 20
Women's Sizes 36 to 44

Sports Shop, Third Floor

Let Super-Macy Sale Outfit Your Boy!

Wool Sweaters

Regularly Would Be $1.50

2 of these all-wool sweaters will see the 8 to 18-yr. schoolboy through the winter! Solid color, border or medallion trimmed. Navy, tan, maroon, green, brown.

99¢

Leatherette Coats

Selling Up to Now at $2.95

Soft black or brown leatherette, lined with sheepskin. Big sheepskin rolled collar. Sizes 4 to 18.

$2.48

Wool Knickers

Selling Up to Now at $1.59

Full-cut plus fours. Buckle bottoms or knit cuffs. Sizes 8 to 16. Dark colors.

99¢

All-Wool, Striped Flannel Robes

$1.99

6 to 14 Usually $2.98!

Davison-Paxon's Second Floor

TALMADGE LISTS $12,500 EXPENSE

Governor - Designate Reports Contributions, Costs of Campaign.

Eugene Talmadge's successful campaign for governor cost $12,500, according to the statement filed Monday with Comptroller General William B. Harrison. Today is the final day under the law for filing statements of expenditures.

Talmadge, with $3,000, was the chief contributor to his campaign. Troup county friends gave $2,500, unknown friends $1,400, J. J. Mangum and Hugh Howell $1,000 each. Advertising and printing comprised the bulk of his expenses.

The detailed statement of receipts and expenditures follows:

Receipts.

Troup county friends	$2,500
Eugene Talmadge	3,000
J. J. Mangum	1,000
Hugh Howell	1,000
Unknown friends	1,400
Total	$12,500

Disbursements.

Entrance fee	$250.00
Pay roll	2,083.00
Printing circulars	338.25
Distributing circulars	419.80
Newspapers and cuts	783.71
Signs	78.50
Telephone, telegram and postage	1,841.00
Medicine	46.00
G. F. Hunsicker	4.00
Hotel and meals	804.45
Stationery	181.75
Marquette Journal, printing	22.50
Rent	50.00
Printing	200.00
Ruralist Press, printing	1,989.77
T. M. Linder, gas and oil	25.00
Gilbreath Press Agency	200.00
Atlanta Constitution	209.00
Miscellaneous	1,248.75
Polders	250.00
Macon expense	200.00
Radio	279.40
Gas and oil	250.00
Additional advertising	705.00
Total	$12,538.00

M. D. Collins, successful candidate for superintendent of schools, reported expenditures of $1,755; James R. Reid, defeated for the public service commission, $975; John R. Wilson, renominated secretary of state, $1,456.93, and Hunter A. Manning, defeated candidate for the public service commission, $774.14.

ARKANSAS SCHOOL GIRL ENDS LIFE WITH GUN

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Oct. 3.—(AP) Leaving a note saying she was tired of living because nobody cared for or loved her, Miss June Slayten, 18, was found dead of a shotgun wound at her farm home near here yesterday. Her parents found her when they returned from a drive. They had left her studying her school lessons.

'Stomach Ulcers Caused by Hyperacidity

3-Day Relief—No Operation

Men suffering from stomach ulcers caused by gastric hyperacidity or less serious troubles from the same cause are always irritable, despondent, and hard to please. No matter how tempting the food, the sick man with no appetite, or who suffers after eating, is grouchy and even against his own will is unappreciative. His condition can surely and simply be corrected in a remarkably short time through the use of Von's Pink Tablets especially prepared for the purpose. The above, of course, also applies to women. If you or any member of your family are so afflicted don't suffer longer. Get Von's Tablets from any Jacobs' drug store, or write today (use postal card) to Atlanta Von Company, 742-D Walton Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for free symptom booklet and other valuable information.—(adv.)

STORAGE

The most modern warehouse in the South for household goods. Long Distance Removals. Cathcart Van & Storage Co. 134 Houston St. N. E. WA. 7221

CLEAR AWAY STUBBORN ACNE

"For nearly two years I was troubled with a very stubborn form of acne which marked my face with a scaly rash. It was a very unusual case and various lotions and ointments were prescribed but with only temporary relief. After a year and a half of experimenting with these treatments, I tried Resinol Ointment. In two weeks the blotches on my face were hardly noticeable. After three months' use of Resinol Ointment and Soap, the disorder was completely cleared away and my complexion is now something to be proud of. You can count me a faithful user of Resinol Ointment, as I find it a gentle, soothing and very effective remedy for skin troubles." (Signed)—Fred Hesse, 29 Eldred St., Brooklyn, N.Y.

FOR FREE TRIAL send package of Ointment and Soap with your copy of our new booklet on Skin Treatment, write to Resinol, Department 28, Baltimore, Md.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS

For Constipation, Biliousness, Headache, Indigestion, and all ailments of the bowels. Sold by Druggists Everywhere.

Painful Piles

Go Quick—No Cutting—No Salves. Itching, bleeding or protruding piles go quickly and don't come back, if you really remove the cause. Bad blood circulation in the lower bowel and hemorrhoidal veins causes piles by making the affected parts weak, flabby, almost dead. Salves and suppositories fail because only an internal medicine that stimulates the circulation and drives out the impure blood can actually correct the cause of piles. Dr. J. S. Lechard discovered a real internal Pile remedy. After prescribing it to over 900 cases, he named it HEM-ROID, Jacobs' Drug Stores and druggists everywhere sell HEM-ROID. Tablets with guarantee they will end your Pile misery or money back.—(adv.)

5-YEAR CONTRACTS FOR SCHOOL BOOKS IN STATE AWARDED

Continued from First Page.

(Require Ga. Civics and Citizenship Supplement).....7 plate bid .10

HISTORY:

World Book Company	1.00
McGraw-Hill	.85
World Book Company	.85
McGraw-Hill	.85
World Book Company	.85
McGraw-Hill	.85
World Book Company	.85
McGraw-Hill	.85
World Book Company	.85
McGraw-Hill	.85

GEOGRAPHY:

World Book Company	1.00
McGraw-Hill	.85
World Book Company	.85
McGraw-Hill	.85
World Book Company	.85
McGraw-Hill	.85
World Book Company	.85
McGraw-Hill	.85
World Book Company	.85
McGraw-Hill	.85

RECEIPTS:

Troup county friends	$2,500
Eugene Talmadge	3,000
J. J. Mangum	1,000
Hugh Howell	1,000
Unknown friends	1,400
Total	$12,500

BOARD WILL STUDY NEW DAM PROJECT

Continued from First Page.

of other matters confronting the meeting:

1. Authorized establishment of a committee of nine to seek a revision of municipal pension laws to "prevent bankruptcy of the city." The committee, under the resolution offered by Alderman G. Everett Millican, will be composed of three members of council to be named by Murphy, two each from the police, fire and general pension funds. Millican asserted that if the 150 persons entitled to take pensions from the general funds applied at once, it would cost the municipality $180,000 a year. He warned that pensions bid fair to cost $1,000,000 a year within the near future.
2. Referred to the hospitals and charities committee for a public hearing a proposal to change operation of the contagious disease hospital from the city health department to the Grady board of trustees. Councilman J. Frank Beck, chairman of the hospitals and charities committee, recommended the change. At one time it was tabled, but later reconsidered and sent to the committee.
3. R. F. C. Loan Shared.
4. Indemnified Fulton county for half of the $315,093.22 borrowed from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for relief of Atlanta and Fulton county's destitute. The measure, offered by Councilman Almond and Alderman Ed A. Gilliam, failed to procure insertion of a specific clause to protect the city from repayment in the event Fulton county is not called upon to repay the sum.
5. Approved a new contract with the Georgia Power Company for current use for highways, etc., whereby by the city will save $16,546 for the remainder of the year. The city had set up $266,000 in the June finance sheet to cover charges from July 1 to December 31. Under the new arrangement the cost will be $21,400 a month. Council also voted to discontinue paying the $21 a year charge for upkeep and depreciation on white-way poles not in use.
6. City to Charge Rent.
7. Voted to force all employees of the city living in city-owned and furnished homes, except city prison farm attaches, to pay monthly rentals not to exceed $15. This means that Fire Chief John Terrell; doctors at Grady and Battle Hill, George I. Simons, general manager of parks; John B. Franklin, superintendent of Grady; and others, including waterworks employees, will pay about $7,500 a year into municipal coffers.

6. Placed fiscal operation of the city for the remainder of the year under a committee composed of Mayor James L. Key, B. Graham West, city controller, and Councilman James L. Wells, chairman of the finance committee.

7. Refused, through failure of the aldermanic board to approve, to recharter the Walker Electrical Company $6.40 charged for a permit for installation of electrical fixtures at the fourth corps officers' air reserve hangar at Candler field, and to exempt the hangar, being erected by the federal government, from inspections. Council passed it without comment, but the aldermanic board decided such an exemption in accordance with provisions of the resolution might endanger the city's right to lease properties and collect rents from concession operators. All other matters referred to the board by council were approved.

Merger Proposal Referred.

8. Referred the proposal to merge the street improvement collector's department with tax assessors to joint consideration of the tax and ordinance committees.

9. Approved a decision of the police committee that policemen need not procure new regulation uniforms until April 1, 1933.

10. Accepted concurrence of the water committee in the ouster of E. Vogt, J. E. Robertson and William C. Miller for insubordination.

11. Granted the Atlanta Goodwill Industries the right to use a portion of the old Atlanta Southern Dental College building for relief purposes free of rent.

12. Empowered Mayor Key to permit city employees to engage in working at the polls November 8 to fight a proposed constitutional amendment exempting intangibles from taxation by cities, counties and school districts.

Saturday Clerks Authorized.

13. Voted to force city tax collector, city clerk and city waterworks departments to provide clerks for the benefit of the public in paying municipal bills on Saturday afternoons during the winter months. Heretofore all offices have closed at noon, but Millican pointed out that hundreds of citizens who can not afford to get off to pay their bills during the week should be accorded every consideration possible.

14. Voted to award legal advertising to The Constitution for the month of November, but despite the approval of the aldermanic board, it was held over for two weeks through service of intention by Alderman Scott to move to reconsider.

15. Passed a resolution offered by Beck regretting the death of Miss Louise Breitenbucher, sister of Councilman Philip Breitenbucher, of the first ward.

16. Voted to award legal advertising to The Constitution for the month of November, but despite the approval of the aldermanic board, it was held over for two weeks through service of intention by Alderman Scott to move to reconsider.

17. Passed a resolution offered by Beck regretting the death of Miss Louise Breitenbucher, sister of Councilman Philip Breitenbucher, of the first ward.

18. Voted to award legal advertising to The Constitution for the month of November, but despite the approval of the aldermanic board, it was held over for two weeks through service of intention by Alderman Scott to move to reconsider.

19. Passed a resolution offered by Beck regretting the death of Miss Louise Breitenbucher, sister of Councilman Philip Breitenbucher, of the first ward.

20. Voted to award legal advertising to The Constitution for the month of November, but despite the approval of the aldermanic board, it was held over for two weeks through service of intention by Alderman Scott to move to reconsider.

21. Passed a resolution offered by Beck regretting the death of Miss Louise Breitenbucher, sister of Councilman Philip Breitenbucher, of the first ward.

HOTELS of DISTINCTION OF NEW YORK and BOSTON

FRID STERRY President JOHN D. OWEN Manager

THE PLAZA NEW YORK

HENRY A. ROST President

THE SAVOY PLAZA NEW YORK

ARTHUR L. RACE Managing Director

Reservations for the National Hotel of Cuba may be made at THE PLAZA • THE SAVOY PLAZA • THE COPLEY PLAZA

THE COPLEY PLAZA BOSTON

• The Plaza and The Savoy-Plaza are on upper Fifth Ave. at the entrance to Central Park. Single rooms; bath; $5.00 up. Double rooms; bath; $8.00 up. The Copley-Plaza is in the fashionable Back Bay section, convenient to everything, Boston's finest hostelry; rates $4.00 up.

Premises Made Sanitary!

RATS--ROACHES AND VERMIN EXTERMINATED

Get rid of these dangerous pests about home. Our methods of extermination and fumigation are safe and sure and the cost is most moderate. Estimates free.

CREATORS OF SANITATION-
ORKIN
EXTERMINATING COMPANY INC.

WA-Inut 1050

ALABAMA ST.
Cor. Whitehall
Set of Teeth
$5.00
Dr. E. G. Griffin
Hocelite Plate
$20.00
Crown and Bridge Work
$4.00 per Tooth.
Other special prices in properties. WA. 8576. 10-Day Special

"Nature in the Raw is seldom MILD"

BRING 'EM BACK ALIVE

"Nature in the Raw"—as portrayed by the vicious battle between the python and the tiger... in Frank Buck's thrilling motion picture, "Bring 'Em Back Alive," filmed from nature in the Malay jungle.

—and raw tobaccos have no place in cigarettes

They are not present in Luckies... the mildest cigarette you ever smoked

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

"It's toasted"
That package of mild Luckies

"If a man write a better book, preach a better sermon, or make a better mouse-trap than his neighbor, the bo build his house in the woods; the world will make a beaten path to his door."—RALPH WALDO EMERSON.
Does not this explain the world-wide acceptance and approval of Lucky Strike?

LUCKY STRIKE
"IT'S TOASTED"
CIGARETTES

Cor. 1923, The American Tobacco Co.

Ministers and Lay Leaders Indorse Activities of Chest

Resolutions Commending 'Methods, Purpose and Effectiveness' Passed by Two Organizations.

Atlanta ministers and lay church leaders placed themselves squarely behind the campaign for support of the Atlanta Community Chest at meetings of two representative religious groups Monday.

Resolutions expressing confidence in methods, purposes and effectiveness of the Community Chest and its welfare societies, and pledging without reservation the active support of their members, were adopted by the Evangelical Ministers' Association and the Christian Council, meeting in Rich's room.

The ministers' association is representative of a majority of the churches in Atlanta. The Christian Council is an organization of ministers and laymen designed to establish programs of religious leadership in the community.

Frank H. Neely, president of the Chest, and Arthur S. Bird, general chairman of the campaign, outlined the campaign plans and the Chest needs and objectives before the two meetings.

Bird Describes Functions.

Speaking first before the ministers' association, Mr. Bird described the even for social groups into which the society is maintained by the Chest are classified, and which are designed to cover every human need of child care, family relief, character building, care for the lone man and woman and special consideration of problems of the handicapped, the friendless and the aged.

Mr. Neely addressed the Christian Council meeting, pointing out that the appeal of the Chest and its objectives are essentially matters in which churches should take a lead. Morally and spiritually, he explained, the functions of Chest and church are alike.

The Rev. C. R. Stauffer, pastor of the First Christian church and vice president of the Community Chest, and the Rev. Herman L. Turner, pastor of the Covenant Presbyterian church and co-chairman of the Chest's general campaign, added their appeals to those of the two Chest officials.

Association Resolution.

The resolution adopted by the Evangelical Ministers' Association was as follows:

"Resolved, that this body of ministers express our confidence in the Community Chest and assure it of our co-operation and support."

The Christian Council resolution was as follows:

"The Christian Council of Atlanta goes on record expressing appreciation and commendation of the splendid spirit of the leadership of the Community Chest this year, and pledges our whole-hearted co-operation as far as it is in our power in the coming campaign."

Church Commends Work.

Another word of commendation for the Chest and its leaders from a church group was announced Monday in a resolution adopted by the board of officers of the Peachtree Christian church, which was as follows:

"Whereas the Atlanta Community Chest has undertaken its campaign in the interest of the unfortunate of our city, and has called Mr. Arthur S. Bird to serve as chairman,

"Be it resolved, that we, as the board of officers of the Peachtree Christian church, express to the Atlanta Community Chest our appreciation of its services and pledge to Mr. Bird our every effort to assist him in carrying to success the worthy undertaking which he has assumed with added assurances of our confidence in his personal ability and leadership of the entire community."

BUSINESS RECOVERY IS HERE, KING SAYS

July and August marked the bottom of the business depression, and times that time a steady recovery began to set in, George E. King, president of the King Hardware Company, said on Monday.

"The condition, I believe, is general over the United States," Mr. King said. "I think all lines of business have experienced improvement."

A good increase in business was reported by the King Hardware Company for the past few weeks, this applying to all lines of hardware carried by the company.

The results of the golden jubilee sale now in progress have been fine, the company said. Some of the country's leading manufacturers co-operated by offering low prices on merchandise, and this reduction is being passed on by the King Hardware Company to its customers.

The sale began last Thursday and will be continued on through next Saturday. The store has been specially stocked and decorated for the occasion. A feature is the opening of the company's furniture department on the second floor.

The following manufacturers are co-operating with the company during the sale:

Grissold Manufacturing Company, Works, Pa.; Kell Works, Cleveland, Ohio; H. Boker & Co., Maplewood, N. J.; Southern Plow Company, Columbus; Chicago Curtain Slitter Company, Chicago; United States Cartridge Company, American National Company, Toledo, Ohio; South Bend Bait Co., South Bend, Ind.; Chicago Flexible Shaft Company, Chicago; Certainfold Products Corporation and the Wickwire-Spencer Steel Company.

Total of 50 Years Given Two Bandits

A jury and a superior court judge Monday dealt severely with two white bandits, one getting a term of from 30 to 90 years in the penitentiary and the other a term of from 20 to 60 years.

The two men, Lindsey Hodges and J. T. Wilson, went on trial Monday morning on a four-count indictment charging robbery. The jury fixed Wilson's punishment at from five to 15 years on each count, the terms to be served consecutively.

Hodges, Wilson's alleged partner in crime, then elected to plead guilty to a six-count indictment and Judge John D. Humphries meted out the same punishment as did the jury to Wilson, giving Hodges 5 to 15 years on each count or from 30 to 90 years in all.

"Only by severe sentences can we halt banditry," Judge Humphries said as he secured the prisoners and thanked the jury.

East Point Names Mayor Wednesday

A hotly contested race for mayor will be decided Wednesday by the voters of East Point. At the same time three councilmen will be elected.

The East Point registration list is the largest in the history of the town, including 2,500 voters. The race for mayor is between S. W. Wamsey, former mayor, businessman and East Point planter, and Howard Carmichael, undertaker and councilman.

The council races include a three-cornered contest in the second ward between Henry Coleman, E. J. Bass and R. M. Milano, and a race in the third ward between Councilman C. S. Wynne and J. R. Griffin. Colonel George Hall, of the first ward, who fills the unexpired term of the late Dr. R. B. Callahan, is unopposed.

'CONFESSION' TEXT OF PRAYER WEEK OBSERVANCE TODAY

The third day's devotionals in Atlanta churches taking part in the nation-wide observance of the "Week of Prayer and Penitence" recommended in the recent general assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States, will be based on the suggested text, "Confession," today. The following scripture reference, meditation and prayer is suggested for today's devotionals:

Confession.
Daily text: "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just, righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar and his word is not in us." I John 1:9-10.

Scripture references: Ps. 32:5-11; James 5:16-20; Prov. 28:13; Luke 15:11-12; Extra 9:6-7-10-13-15.

Meditation: "The scriptures are specific when they talk about sin. Jesus was specific. Let us be specific. Let us set down our sins one by one. Sins, personal, social and national. Sins of weakness and of wilfulness. Acknowledge the sin of worshipping the false gods of our age. 'Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God and Him only.' These are days for seeking. After personal examination, let each one confess his sins to God and pray—Create within me a clean heart, O God; and renew a right spirit within me." It is God's will that all sin should be cast out of our lives and that we should be fitted even in this life to be sons of God and companions of our Lord Jesus Christ. Our God is a forgiving God; our Christ is a redemptive Christ. 'Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.'

Prayer: "Almighty God, Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Maker of all things, Judge of all men, we acknowledge and bewail our manifold sins and wickedness, which we from time to time most grievously have committed, by thought, word and deed, against Thy Divine Majesty, provoking most justly Thy wrath and indignation against us. We do earnestly repent, and are heartily sorry for these our misdoings; the remembrance of them is grievous unto us. Have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us, most merciful Father; for Thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us all that is past; and grant that we may ever hereafter serve and please Thee in newness of life, to the honor and glory of Thy name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen."

Eager Eyes Will Scan This Page!
Scores of People Will Await Doors Opening!

HIGH'S BASEMENT STORE

Powerful Values! Tuesday Only

Men's Sox, 4 Pair for

Silk and rayon. Choose from a wide assortment of colors and patterns. No need to darn with prices so low. All sizes.

50c

Men's Reg. 98c Shirts

Crowds will buy and buy these fine tailored, full-cut shirts. Splendid quality broadcloth. White, blue, tan, green. Sizes 14 to 17.

50c

15c Prints, 5 Yds. for

GUARANTEED TUB-FAST! Percales in fall's newest small and large patterns. Make the children's clothes—your dresses. KNOW they will not fade.

50c

Domestic, 10 Yds. for

Wait till you see it! The most bargain-wise women will recognize an exciting value. 36-in. wide! Usually sells for twice this.

50c

Sheeting, 4 Yds. for

Sells regularly for 19c a yard! Brown sheeting that will bleach out easily. 86-inch. Thrifty women will buy and save.

50c

Marquisette, 5 Yds. for

Reg. 15c a yard! 40-inch widths. Fine mesh and smooth finish. You'll be proud of the lovely curtains it will make. Ecru and ivory.

50c

Pillow Cases, 4 for

You gladly pay 19c each usually. By buying four you save 26c! Can you afford not to see every item 50c DAY! Size 42x35. Deep hems.

50c

Reg. 69c 81x90 Sheets

What greater proof of the compelling values that we give you 50c DAY! Smooth finish. Deep hems. Stock the linen closet.

50c

Cretonne, 5 Yds. for

Any other time—any other place it would cost you 12c a yard at least. Complete selection of bright color patterns.

50c

Porto Rican Gowns, 3 for

Yes, madam! No doubt the lowest prices in your memory. Favorite of countless women. Daintily embroidered and appliqued. White! Pastels!

50c

Girls' Reg. 79c Dresses

How enthusiastic you'll be to see the many wearable, lovable styles! For school and play. Sizes 7 to 14. Fast-color prints.

50c

Child's Unions, 2 for

Reg. 39c garments! KNIT! Drop-seat style. Buttons at the waist. Choose long or short sleeves. Knee-length or trunks.

50c

HIGH'S BARGAIN BASEMENT
The Economy Center of Atlanta

Men's 79c
Pajamas
Solid colors and fancy broadcloths.
All sizes.
50c

Sensational BEDROOM VALUE for One Day Only

Regularly Sells for $49.50

$29.95

This 3-piece bedroom suite finished in Maple. EXACTLY AS SHOWN. You may have your choice of the Poster or Jenny Lind bed. Come early and get yours. This price good for today only.

Terms, $1.00 Per Week

KING HARDWARE CO.

Furniture Dept., 2nd Floor—Convenient Elevator Service

THAT FRAGRANT FLAVOR OF FRESH SPEARMINT

WRIGLEY'S
SPEARMINT
THE PERFECT GUM

THE FLAVOR LASTS

KEPT RIGHT IN CELLOPHANE

SONGNAME PRIZE
WINNERS NAMED

Continued from Page 8.

was published. We always have enjoyed the paper and would not be without it in our home."

Dr. W. F. Melton spoke for Mrs. Melton.

Mrs. Melton had a great deal of pleasure working on the Songname, she said. "She did not expect to win and I know that she will be more than pleased to know that she got a good prize. I'll have to get into the next contest to hold up my side of the family honors. Let me know when you start another contest and I'll be right in there."

Mr. Davis, the fifth prize winner, was pleased the contest and thanked the Songname editor.

"It was a great contest and I am thankful and happy to have won a prize," Mr. Davis said.

The amazing popularity achieved by the Songname was foretold early by the tremendous demand for a final list of titles, which was offered free to its followers. Altogether, more than 100,000 copies of this list were distributed.

The contest officially got under way on Sunday, June 26, with the publication of picture No. 1 of a series of 80. The last picture appeared on September 4, and the deadline for entries was set for midnight of September 10, but extended to midnight of September 22, at the request of vacation-returning participants.

Each picture of the Songname series was used to represent a specific song title. Immediately after the final deadline a staff of checkers compared the solutions submitted with the master list of correct answers, and rated the sets accordingly. Every solution turned in was checked twice in order to insure accuracy. The 40 readers who won prizes were those who had found the greatest number of correct answers. In several instances, where two or more sets contained an equal number of correct answers, the tie was broken by the number of correct answers as provided by the rules. Many artistically decorated sets were entered, but they did not have preference over sets that were simply neat.

After the checkers had completed their exacting work the committee of judges, consisting of John B. Wilson, secretary of state, Ellis Barrett, member of city council, and Bird Alter, the artist who created the Songname pictures, assembled. They painstakingly inspected and verified the ratings and decided upon the winners. All three judges enthusiastically praised the educational value of the Songname, and the manner in which their task was handled. "Contestants whose sets were returned by the postoffice in because of insufficient postage, will be glad to learn that, when resubmitted with the original wrappers, they were accepted and counted, even though the deadline has been reached."

Sets Retained.

A great many Songname followers who wished to preserve their pictures and answers requested that their sets be returned after the judging. The

Stops Skin Itching
In Two Minutes

This formula for skin diseases is astounding the most skeptical in the marvelous way it heals severe cases of Ringworm, Athlete's Foot, Eczema, Tetter, Itch, and other parasitic skin troubles. The minute it touches the sore spot, you feel a soothing, cooling sensation; in a few days you marvel at how the itching has been healed. If you suffer with skin diseases of any kind, get from any druggist a 60c box of Tetterine, and get relief or get your money back. (Adv.)

Boils and Sores
Respond Quickly

New treatment, known as No-Lance for boils, sores, feline, carbuncles and ulcers, banishes pain, soothes irritation, ripens the sore spot, discharges the pus, kills germs, and heals quickly. Good for all skin abrasions. 50c at druggists or by mail from No-Lance Chemical Company, New Brookland, S. C. (Adv.)

WET FEET
DRAFTS
RAW WINDS
STUFFY TRAINS

This winter be able to say....
"I'm prepared for them!"

Don't let unavoidable conditions of winter down you! Don't let them lead to a long siege of ills.

It's at times when your resistance is low that things you can't control, like sloppy weather, drafts, and overheated rooms, bother you most.

Meet them this year with good resistance! You'll be surprised how much better you'll stand exposure if your general condition is good.

Two factors, obtainable in cod-liver oil, have long been known to help build good general resistance.

Now you can get them in the form of a new vitamin concentrate, Scuab Cod-Liver Oil.

They are a rich source of Vitamin A, the important factor which increases physical stamina and resisting power.

They are also exceedingly rich in the sunshine vitamin, needed for its toning effect on dreary, winter days—Vitamin D!

Each tablet supplies as much Vitamins A and D as one-half teaspoonful of Scuib Cod-Liver Oil with Viosterol-10D.

Begin now to take Adex regularly. Keep it up every day. You'll have a healthier, a far more comfortable winter. Ask for it at any reliable drug store.

ADDEX
The vitamins of cod-liver oil in a pleasant new form.

Five Famous Opera Stars
Commend Tuneful Feature

The Constitution's Songname had the distinction of being the only newspaper feature ever publicly recommended by five stars of the Metropolitan opera. Here are excerpts from their enthusiastic comments:

"I am delighted over this unusual feature. It presents a splendid way to increase appreciation of good music. It is well for us to keep our minds on harmonious things, and the Songname will help us to do just that. God speed it!"—John McCormack.

"The Songname is the rarest, most interesting newspaper feature I've seen. Matching pictures with the titles of familiar songs is such fun. There is too, there is much to be learned and an opportunity to win a prize."

CHANGES ARE SOUGHT
IN FOREIGN MISSIONS

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Conduct of foreign missions by Protestant denominations should go on only after material and serious changes have been effected, the report of the appraisal commission of the churches says in a first installment released here today.

The commission known as the Laymen's Foreign Missions Inquiry, headed by Dr. William B. Eerdmans of Harvard, the report is being made public by Albert L. Scott.

After summarizing the work done by the commission, the report contains recommendations made in the first installment.

"That these missions should go on, with whatever changes are suggested, therefore, as beyond serious question. There is in this fact, however, no ground for a renewed appeal for the support of the churches in the present form and on their present basis. This commission makes no such appeal."

"In our judgment, there is not alone room for change, there is necessity for change, in respects which our report will indicate, and the effecting of such change should be the condition for every further enlargement of the enterprise."

Constitution would gladly return sets if this was possible. Under the rules of the contest, published at the beginning, it was stated that sets would not be returned. They were not filed alphabetically or geographically when received, and therefore could not be conveniently returned.

Liberal Conditions.

The simple rules and liberal conditions that surrounded the Songname account in a large measure for its popularity. Contestants were not asked to solicit subscriptions or votes, make points, solve puzzles, or answer questions. It was necessary for them to be subscribers for The Constitution. A few weeks after the contest began The Constitution gave out free lists of correct answers. Later, upon request, made available the book, "Songs We All Love," which was used by the artist in getting up the series of pictures. The book, of course, under no obligation to buy this interesting and instructive publication, inasmuch as copies were sent gratis to the Carnegie public library and other libraries throughout Georgia and adjacent states.

Appropriate Answers.

That few correct answers to the proverbial "It was evident through out the checking. Both the checkers and the judges discovered that not a single picture had remained unsolved, although no individual contestant, including the 40 prize-winners, succeeded in supplying all of the solutions. Everett Randall Henderson, author of "Songs We All Love," and a national, known authority on the subject of songs, pronounced all of the answers appropriate.

Difficult Pictures

A number of the Songname pictures proved to be real obstacles. These are the ones most frequently missed:

No. 27—"Home, Sweet Home." An interior of a store was shown. On top of a display case was a home built of candy and a sign which read, "Candy Novelties."

No. 46—"When We Get Together in the Moonlight." This depicted a young couple in an affectionate embrace. They were seated on a bench in a park, with a dark sky, stars and moon in the background. A great many titles, other than the correct answer, were submitted as solutions; but, all of the elements considered, the judges felt that they were not appropriate.

No. 55—"Out on the Deep." In this picture the count of ten had been tolled over one of two sailors who had engaged in a boxing bout. They were, obviously, on the briny deep, and the victim was "out" as that word is used in ring parlance.

No. 64—"Cooper's Song." Probably no picture of the series proved a greater stumbling block than this one. Webster's New International Dictionary includes this definition of Cooper: "...A vessel equipped to supply spirits, liquors, tobacco, etc., to deep-sea fishers in the North sea."

Two boats were shown. The picture on the left bore the inscription "N. S. Fisherman," and, standing amidship, was a sailor who said, "Aho! I want to buy a plug of tobacco." The second boat carried a banner which read, "Spirits and Tobacco for Sale," and a singer, in seaman's raiment, stood on the front deck.

No. 72—"Annie Laurie." This correct answer is a play on words. An automobile of the Lorry type was shown, with the letter "L" on its cab. Hence it was "An 'E' Lorry," and the correct answer aptly applied.

No. 74—"The Letter Edged in Black." An outlined "S" identified this answer. The letter, of course, was edged in black.

No. 75—"The Long Day." In this scene a calendar on the wall indicated that it was June 21, which is the longest day of the year.

No. 76—"Past and Future." A memorandum, written at 9:30 a.m., "Mr. Jones, Mr. Smith called early this morning. He will return at 10 a. m." Mr. Smith called in the past and was scheduled to return in the future.

CHEROKEE INDIANS
MEET IN CAROLINA
FOR ANNUAL FAIR

CHEROKEE, N. C., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Redskins of the Cherokee nation will array themselves in Indian finery tomorrow to engage in athletic and marksmanship contests, not for food or tribal prestige, but in the days gone by but for personal honors and white man's wampum.

It will be the beginning of the annual Cherokee Indian fair and prizes were posted for those showing their prowess over others in using the blow gun, the bow and arrow, in singing, dancing and playing baseball.

There will be a baby contest and native women will vie with each other in presenting canned stuff and home-made goods, while the men offer garden and farm produce to be judged as a sideline while they fight for high honors in contests where a strong arm, a keen eye or a nimble foot is the prime requisites.

For four days the fair will be in full swing and thousands of visitors are expected to attend the games, various contests and see the exhibits of the nineteenth annual fair.

Roosevelt Reveals Plan
For Journey to Georgia

DETROIT, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt last night revealed tentative plans for a 10-day trip to the south and his "second home"—Georgia—at a dinner here last night for newspapermen and cameramen who have accompanied him on his tour of the west.

The democratic nominee said he plans to leave on the trip October 17, Atlanta Warm Springs, Ga., Raleigh, N. C., Nashville, Louisville, St. Louis, and perhaps Indianapolis and Pittsburgh, are on the tentative list of stops.

The governor has frequently referred to Warm Springs as his second home, as it is there he visits frequently between tour periods at the New York state capital.

MEXICAN CHAMBER ASK
EXILING OF ARCHBISHOP

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The chamber of deputies tonight approved a resolution to send a commission to President Abelardo Rodriguez with a request that Archbishop Leopoldo Ruiz y Flores, papal delegate, be expelled from Mexico as a "pernicious foreigner."

The archbishop is a native citizen of Mexico, but deputies alleged he had lost his citizenship by serving a foreign government, and the reference was to the Vatican.

The resolution was adopted after an animated discussion of last week's papal encyclical reiterating the intention of the Holy See to excommunicate priests who refused to accept the new laws dealing with the Catholic church.

The archbishop said the encyclical directed the clergy and the people not to rise up in arms and demand that the document be accepted. He added that the pope had every right to instruct Catholics in their duties and that the laws of Mexico did not recognize his jurisdictional personality.

Foreign Minister Manuel C. Teles tonight said the president's statement was based on a knowledge of the complete text of the papal encyclical.

General Travis Finds
War Talk Growing

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Brigadier General Robert J. Travis, of the Georgia national guard, returning today from France, reported "talk of another world war is so prevalent in Paris that an American is startled."

The general attended the dedication of the permanent memorial to the Pershing hall, at Paris, which commemorates the members of the various national guard units who served in the World War.

"Due to Germany's attitude on armaments and for other reasons unnecessary to state," General Travis said, "the French people are very much concerned and the amount of war talk alarms an American. So general was such discussion that in my remarks at the dedication exercises I laid stress upon the desire of the United States for peace and expressed a fear that should another world war occur our present civilization might not stand the strain."

Bonus Vets Gather
For National Meet

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Hitch-hiking and by automobile and truck, members of the bonus-seeking veterans gathered here today from various parts of the country for their national convention.

Session will be opened tomorrow in a boxing arena on the outskirts of the city.

Tonight some 200 men, about half of them delegates, slept in a warehouse.

Carrying bedding and some provisions, the first delegations arrived from Augusta, Ga., and Savannah, Ga. Delegations also arrived from North Carolina, New Mexico, California, New York and Pennsylvania.

MISSION PROGRAM
IN EASTERN ASIA
WILL BE CURTAILED

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—(AP)—A continuation of foreign missionary work in the far east, but with important changes, was recommended today in the report of a commission of laymen representing seven Protestant churches in the United States, which spent nine months investigating conditions in China, Japan and India.

"That these missions should go on, with whatever changes, we regard, therefore, as beyond serious question," the report said.

"There is in this fact, however, no ground for a renewed appeal for support, much less for enlargement of the missions in their present form and on their present basis."

"In our judgment there is not alone room for change, there is necessity for change, in respects which our report will indicate; and the effecting of such change should be the condition for every further enlargement of the enterprise."

The churches represented on the commission are Presbyterian, Dutch Reformed, United Presbyterian, Methodist Episcopal, Congregational, Protestant Episcopal and Northern Baptist.

order from the Brazilian government for 20 planes, amounting to $250,000, for delivery in 30 days.

ROCKY MOUNT, N. C., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Approximately 750 men were recalled to work today at the Atlantic Coast Line shops after an idleness of several weeks.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Production of bituminous coal in the week ended September 24 was estimated by the bureau of mines at 6,314,000 tons, compared with 6,145,000 the preceding week and 4,432,000 in the same week of 1931. Anthracite output for the same periods were 979,000 tons, 884,000 and 1,082,000.

DETROIT, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Buick Motor Company resumed operations today and expected to have all plants operating by October 17, L. J. Reuter, president, said. Operations will be on a nine-hour day, five-day week basis. The company hopes to employ all active men on the payroll at the time production of 1932 models was discontinued.

IMPROVEMENT SHOWN IN CONTAINER BUSINESS

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Walter P. Fenech, president of the Container Corporation of America, said today that a more than seasonal demand for the company's products during September had resulted in container factories running at a higher rate of capacity than for several months previous. All container prices were advanced 7 1/2 per cent, the first advance in three years.

BUSINESS BRIGHT SPOTS

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

MARTINS FERRY, Ohio, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The Laughlin sheet mill of the Wheeling Steel Corporation, idle for a month, will resume operations tomorrow with 400 men at work.

MARTINS FERRY, Ohio, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The Laughlin tin-plate plant of the United States Steel Corporation will resume operation next Monday with 75 per cent of its normal force of 1,400 men. The plant has been idle for two months.

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Waco Aircraft Company has received an

CONVICTS CALLED TO TORTURE TRIAL

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Fifteen convicts in the striped denim of servitude were held under heavy guard in the courthouse here today while attorneys selected the jury. The prisoners will tell how Arthur Maffielet died in a prison camp sweat-box.

The courtroom crowd gasped as the convicts were marched inside the railing under the watchful eyes of guards to receive instructions from Judge George Cooper Gibbs along with other witnesses in the murder trial of George W. Courson and Solomon Higginbotham, former captain and guard, respectively, at Sunbeam prison camp. Later the prisoners were taken to another part of the building to be held until their testimony is required.

Maffielet was found strangled to death last June 3, his feet in heavy wooden stocks and his neck chained to the rafters of the tiny wooden structure in which Florida law permits prisoners to be placed for punishment or for safekeeping.

The defendants contend Maffielet committed the suicide by strangulation rather than complete the nine-year term for robbery which he was serving, and hold also that he was placed in the sweat-box to keep him quiet following repeated attempts to escape, rather than for punishment. They testified at a hearing for bail some time ago that he had repeatedly said he would rather die than serve his time.

General Travis Finds
War Talk Growing

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Brigadier General Robert J. Travis, of the Georgia national guard, returning today from France, reported "talk of another world war is so prevalent in Paris that an American is startled."

The general attended the dedication of the permanent memorial to the Pershing hall, at Paris, which commemorates the members of the various national guard units who served in the World War.

"Due to Germany's attitude on armaments and for other reasons unnecessary to state," General Travis said, "the French people are very much concerned and the amount of war talk alarms an American. So general was such discussion that in my remarks at the dedication exercises I laid stress upon the desire of the United States for peace and expressed a fear that should another world war occur our present civilization might not stand the strain."

INJURED BRIDE, GROOM
REPORTED IMPROVING

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad R. Loy, honeymooners, who were injured Sunday in a car accident near Marietta, Ga., are reported to be improving.

MRS. CONRAD R. LOY.

Monday were recovering rapidly in different hospital wards.

Loy, who is 23, was preparing to leave the Georgia Baptist hospital, and his bride, who is 18, was at Crawford W. Long Memorial hospital.

STERLING ANSWERED
BY MRS. FERGUSON

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Attorneys for Mrs. Miriam A. (Ma) Ferguson, democratic gubernatorial nominee of Texas, have answered Governor Ross S. Sterling's charge of fraud in the run-off primary by counter-allegations that more than 200,000 illegal votes were cast for Sterling.

Also in the answer filed for Mrs. Ferguson are charges that more than $500,000 were spent in Sterling's campaign for democratic nomination in violation of an act limiting such expenses to $10,000.

The governor seeks to restrain state officials from causing Mrs. Ferguson's name to be placed on the ballot, alleging illegal votes aided her in obtaining a majority of approximately 4,000 votes in the run-off primary, said Ferguson was declared nominated at the state democratic convention September 13.

ID LOVE TO, EDITH... BUT COFFEE KEEPS ME AWAKE.

NOT THIS COFFEE, EDNA. IT'S SANKA COFFEE—97% CAFFEIN-FREE. YOU CAN DRINK IT AND SLEEP.

If you are one of those who are affected by the caffeine in coffee, try Sanka Coffee. It is a delicious blend of choice coffees from which 97% of the caffeine has been removed. No danger of causing sleeplessness, indigestion or nervousness. In vacuum-sealed cans. Satisfaction or your money back. Get a pound of Sanka Coffee to-day.

REAL COFFEE
97% CAFFEIN-FREE

BO-LO CO. ATLANTA, GA.

Roosevelt Proves Tireless On Strenuous Western Trip

BY JAMES L. WRIGHT.
(Copyright, 1932, by the North American Newspaper Alliance, Inc.)

DETROIT, Oct. 3.—To all intents and purposes, Governor Roosevelt is swinging to the west coast and back to an end here Sunday when he boarded his private car, Pioneer, for a straight ride back to Albany, where he attended the democratic state convention today and will be present there again on Tuesday.

What are the net results? What has it revealed as the campaign unfolds? Has the candidate made any real blunders? How did his physical condition impress the thousands who saw him?

The net result, as appraised by his advisers on the trip, nearly all of whom counseled against Governor Roosevelt's undertaking, is that he is strengthened. The net result as appraised by the governor himself, who has repeatedly referred to this as "more of a fact-finding than a campaign trip," is that he has congealed or welded into a unit forces which for a variety of reasons have been opposed to the present republicanism administration, and furthermore he has found that the west is in much worse condition economically than he had pictured, and he would suggest that they get together for the preparation of another speech.

Except for the difficulty Governor Roosevelt has in walking, due to the stroke of infantile paralysis he suffered years ago, he has seemed to meet all the physical requirements of any man. If his trip was primarily to convince the country of his physical capacity, as many suspect it was, he must be well pleased with the showing he made.

Assemblyman Asks
Hofstadter To Resign

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Senator Samuel Hofstadter, chairman of the legislative committee investigating New York city's Tammany administration who has accepted Tammany's endorsement for a supreme court justiceship, was called up today by Assemblyman Abbott Low Moffat, also a member of the investigating body, to resign from the committee.

The assemblyman's letter to Hofstadter said, "You have shattered your own reputation forever," and "you have cast a doubt in the public mind on the sincerity, even the honesty, of the work of the committee which the majority members, at least, have conscientiously tried to perform."

Saying Hofstadter's acceptance of Tammany's support was a "repudiation of all your ideals and standards," Moffat wrote he had waited until last night for the senator to resign, but the Tiger's pledge, and added "I hope that even at this late date you will suddenly awaken to a realization of what you are doing and decline this Tammany nomination."

HIGH VOLTAGE WIRE
KILLS LOUISIANAN

MONROE, La., Oct. 3.—(AP)—W. C. Clark, 45, of West Monroe, was instantly killed today when a long piece of pipe he was lifting from a trench was struck by a high voltage line, sending heavy voltage downward through the pipe. A nephew, W. V. Clark, 26, who was assisting in the work, suffered serious burns.

Birmingham Courthouse
Loses $120 to Burglars

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Burglars who apparently fear not the arm of the law have robbed the courthouse grill of $120 in cash and $800 in merchandise.

Sometimes during last night burglars broke into the grill through a window and looted it.

PHILCO Radio

"Interpreter of the ether"

It Takes More Than "Just a Lot of Tubes" to Provide Greatest Efficiency in Radio Performance

Every Day Comparative Tests Have Proven Philco's Superiority of Tone, Quality and Performance

STYLE and BEAUTY are outstanding in PHILCO

Model 15-X With Philco Inclined Sounding Board

This is a magnificent musical instrument—Two Electro-Dynamic Speakers, Show Tuning, 4-Point Tone Control, Automatic Tuning, Illuminated Volume Control, Illuminated Station Recording Dial, Push-Pull Circuit, Balanced Superheterodyne with 11 new PHILCO High Efficiency Tubes, Pentode, Luxurious cabinet in American Walnut and But Walnut with boxwood inlay, all hand-rubbed. Illuminated Grille, 42 1/2 inches high, 27 inches wide. There is no finer performing radio at any price.

$150 Installed

Duffee-Freeman's Recommends Philco for Continuous Satisfaction to Radio Users whether it be an inexpensive model at $18.75 or one of the various models priced up to $295

Expert Installation—Courteous Service—Convenient Terms

Duffee-Freeman Furniture of Character Corner Broad and Hunter S.W.

TRIAL OF DAVIS
STOPPED BY JUROR

BY WILLIAM R. SPEAR.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—(AP)—A tale of misconduct on the part of a juror brought Senator James J. Davis' trial to an abrupt end today and sent him home to Pennsylvania to campaign for re-election with a charge of lottery law violation still hanging over him.

The retrial probably will not be held until after election day.

Federal Judge Francis J. Coleman declared a mistrial when Charles J. Margiotti of defense counsel disclosed that Henry J. Moore, juror No. 7, had been connected with the 1930 and 1931 charity balls of the Loyal Order of Moose, of which he is director-general and pilgrim governor.

This juror, Abe H. Weintraub, an alternator, was excused by the judge after a brief hearing in the courtroom and Moore was ordered to appear in the judge's chambers tomorrow for further examination. Charles H. Tuttle of defense counsel told Moore he would intercede in his behalf.

The mistrial came on the 11th day of the trial in the dingy federal building as the defense neared the close of its efforts to show Senator Davis had no knowledge of alleged lotteries run in connection with the 1930 and 1931 charity balls of the Loyal Order of Moose, of which he is director-general and pilgrim governor.

Assistant District Attorney Louis Mead Treadwell, in charge of the prosecution, gritted his teeth and twisted a slip of paper around his finger. When the mistrial was announced he made no comment.

Defense counsel indicated they probably would seek postponement of the retrial until after election day and in a statement expressed "deep disappointment."

$40,000 Blaze.

HOXIE, Ark., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Fire which followed two terrific explosions in the Bank of Hoxie building early today destroyed the bank and five other buildings, causing losses estimated at $40,000.

Gray Hair

Best Remedy is Made At Home

To half pint of water add one ounce bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and one-fourth ounce of glycerine. Any druggist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It imparts color to streaked, faded or gray hair and makes it soft and glossy. Barbo will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off. (Adv.)

THE CONSTITUTION

CLARK HOWELL
Editor and General Manager
Clark Howell Jr., Business Manager

Entered at the Postoffice at Atlanta as second-class mail matter.

Telephone WA 6068.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
Daily and 1 Year, $10.00; 6 Mo., $5.00; 3 Mo., $2.50.
Sunday only, $1.00; 12 Mo., $12.00; 6 Mo., $6.00; 3 Mo., $3.00.
By Mail, $1.00; 12 Mo., $12.00; 6 Mo., $6.00; 3 Mo., $3.00.
By Mail, $1.00; 12 Mo., $12.00; 6 Mo., $6.00; 3 Mo., $3.00.

REPLY-SMITH COMPANY, national representative, New York, Chicago, Detroit, Boston, Philadelphia, Atlanta.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York city by 2 p. m. the day after issue. It can be had: Stalling's News Stand, Broadway and Forty-third street (Times building corner); South News Agency, at Bryant Park and Grand Central Depot.

The Constitution is not responsible for advance payments to out-of-town local carriers. The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

Member of The Associated Press. The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

ATLANTA, GA., OCT. 4, 1932.

THE LYTON REPORT.

Despite the lack of severity of the criticism of Japan in the report of the League of Nations' commission, the document, as was expected, tells the Japanese that their military operations were not justified and solemnly advises the Chinese to stop their "pin prick" picking on Japan.

Disappointment is to be found by those hoping that the Lyton commission would present some practical plan which would result in a solution of the Manchukuo situation suitable to both China and Japan and which would lead to the development of amicable relations between the peoples of the two countries.

Instead of such a program, the sketchy outline of a plan which makes a new autonomous state of Manchuria is largely unsatisfactory to China, entirely so to Japan and is clearly impossible of achievement.

Briefly the report recommends a Sino-Japanese conference to recommend a new series of treaties; withdrawal of Japanese troops from the larger part of Manchuria; an autonomous Manchurian state, with China controlling its foreign policy and sharing in its revenues; and eradication of the boycott.

Such a program to be successfully inaugurated would be dependent upon mutual agreements entered into by sound governments in full control of their respective nations. No such government exists in China at this time, nor is there reasonable prospect that there will for many years to come.

The sphere of the Nanking government is limited now to a comparatively small territory, with Chang Hsiao-liang in charge in the north and the Canton chieftains in the south. Outlying provinces are, without exception, under full control of individual war lords.

Japan has had too sad an experience with treaty repudiation on the part of China to enter into new agreements with a government which is gradually disintegrating. A remarkable phase of the Lyton report is that it upholds the treaties, including the so-called "Twenty-one demands," which the present Chinese government has repudiated to the full extent of its power to do so, and yet the recommendation is made that Japan put its faith in new obligations to be entered into with whatever Chinese faction happens to be in power at the time of the negotiations.

The proposed withdrawal of Japanese troops from every section of Manchuria, except the limited territory around the South Manchurian railroad, would, under present conditions, be tantamount to turning the country, lock, stock and barrel, over to the bandits which infest it.

The proposition of an autonomous state, with China in control of foreign policies and revenues, would mean merely that the looting which went on under the regimes of the Changs would be continued.

As was to be expected, Japan has promptly and emphatically announced that any attempt by the League of Nations to enforce these proposals will be met by her immediate resignation from its membership.

There will, no doubt, be long drawn-out hearings and conferences on the Lyton report, but it is probable that in the long run its only accomplishment will be to have furnished an exhaustive and detailed report of the situation now existing in Manchuria and the events which led up to it.

One more week-end—and 15 lives snuffed out in the south alone because speed and not care rode behind the steering wheel.

Photograph of an exploded atom is reported to be puzzling a group of scientists. Why not?

If the Latin Americans insist on their favorite pastime of seriocomic "wars" they at least cannot complain when the rest of the world turns a deaf ear to their pleas for loans to "keep going."

HOOVER'S HOPELESS TASK.

If dependence is to be put in straw ballots as indicating how the political wind is blowing—and there have been recent years remarkably verified by election results—President Hoover faces an impossible task in his effort in his address in Des Moines tonight to keep his native state in line.

The staunchly republican Des Moines Register and Tribune announces that in the state-wide poll it is conducting 45,000 of the 75,000 ballots so far received have been for Roosevelt and only 27,000 for Hoover, a ratio of 60 to 36 per cent which is chiefly significant because it practically reverses the normal republican majority in the state.

Thus in this ballot taken by a republican newspaper Roosevelt is leading Hoover by almost two to one in a state that Al Smith lost by a two-to-one vote. Further emphasis is given to the significance of the ballot result so far by the fact that in the senatorial contest the republican nominee is leading the democratic candidate.

Iowa is counted as one of the real republican strongholds of the country. It is the native state of Herbert Hoover. If under such conditions there has been a reversal of opinion as indicated by the straw ballot of the Register and Tribune, there can be no reasonable ground for doubt as to the overwhelming size of the democratic victory in November.

The report that Il Duce will again warn Europe to disarm will, after all, hardly result in a battle-scrapping race.

ONLY ONE ANSWER.

There is only one answer to the wholesale and retail trade gains reported for August in the monthly review of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta. Had these gains been negligible they might correctly have been attributed to seasonal increases. Since, however, they are large enough to set a five-year record they can be ascribed only to a sound and determined upward trend in business.

The 23.3 per cent increase in wholesale business in August over July is larger than in any similar period since 1927. Furthermore such an increase has been equalled only three times since the war.

Such a gain can only be a reflection of increased buying on the part of the public and of the necessity of retail merchants restocking their shelves to meet the demands of their customers. In keeping with the upward bulge in wholesale trade, department store business showed a definite increase over the normal seasonal increase registered over a period of many years.

The reserve bank review shows that building operations and financial transactions kept pace with trade, and that textile production, the most certain barometer of returning normalcy, expanded by leaps and bounds.

Confirmed economic pessimists are still to be found who are loath to believe that the stock market upward trend, the increase in trade and the improvement of the farm prices are as the result of a sound, basic condition, but for one such doubter there are many trained and experienced observers who sanely and optimistically compare present conditions with those preceding the passing of former depressions.

Unquestionably the worst is over. It is not reasonable that anything like normalcy, especially in unemployment, may be reached until further adjustments are accomplished, but that the upward trend of the past two months is to continue, with only immaterial and incidental setbacks, is not to be doubted.

And if Atlanta's grown-ups would go to the fair and have as good a time as the youngsters did Monday an energizing tonic would have been added to the city's life.

With Tammany Chiefs Curry and McCooey climbing on the Roosevelt band wagon, Lone Chieftain Al is left out in the cold all by himself.

With those 200,000 gallons of gasoline floating around in Boston harbor a dropped match would have caused the famous tea party to fade into insignificance.

The negro who escaped from Grady hospital with a fractured skull might be said to be hard headed in more ways than one.

It is to be hoped that the kiss for which a California man was given a year's sentence was worth it, for he will have plenty of time to reminisce over it.

Al Smith admits that Roosevelt is sure to win—but he does it in about the same manner in which he predicted that he would not be nominated.

The farmer is pledged the full support of the R. F. C.'s resources, but what the farmer wants is dollars and not promises.

THE WINDOW

BY PIERRE VAN PAASEN.

Rome for Honeymoons.

Pope Pius XI, in collaborating with the fascist party in its campaign to encourage newly-married couples to visit Rome on honeymoon trips, the attraction is a 90 per cent reduction in railway fares for all young married couples on condition that they start within a week of their wedding and show their marriage certificate and identity cards at the booking office when buying their tickets. They are good for a fortnight, and available all the year round.

When the reduction was announced it was accompanied by a statement that fascism is so interested in a steady increase in the national birth rate that people who decide to get married would have every encouragement to enjoy a cheap and delightful honeymoon. The pope heard of the new plan, and immediately commanded a room to be set aside, in the suite where he holds his public audiences, for honeymooners. And he never fails to visit them before the other pilgrims.

He always gives them a special blessing, and says a few words about their duty, as Catholics, to found families and that the children are trained according to the teachings of the church.

The otherwise deserted streets of Rome have for several weeks been alive by large numbers of young married couples, the majority of whom could not afford to pay the full railway fares to the capital.

Grim Memories.

Many grim memories will pass into obscurity when the 600-year-old St. Lazare prison for women criminals in Paris is pulled down shortly. "Few spots in the history of the world," writes M. G. le Notre, the French historian, "These stones have for centuries witnessed the crimes of men and to the voices of saints. For six centuries and more they have held the memory of Dante." St. Vincent de Paul, whose church is outside the prison, worked within its walls as a missionary in the sixteenth century when it was a leper house. Throughout the seventeenth century the St. Lazare became a "leper house" for the aristocracy. It had their own rooms and were permitted to receive guests and entertain them. In 1794 it received many aristocratic victims of the French revolution. And then, the man of the Moderate Left, revolted by the excesses of the Terror, was sent there, and wrote "The Young Captive" within its walls.

Many other great documents were composed there. After the French revolution the St. Lazare was a prison for women offenders. As such it held in recent years Madame Caillaux, wife of the one-time premier and minister who was killed by Gaston Calmette, editor of Figaro, who was about to publish an article of attack on her husband, Mata Hari, a dancing spy, was taken from this prison for execution in the field of the firing squad.

(Copyright, 1932, for The Constitution.)

Georgia Heroes

Of the World War

By Sergeant L. E. Jaekel

(All Rights Reserved.)

MACON CALDWELL OVERTON, captain, Sixth regiment, United States marine corps, second division, American Expeditionary Force, awarded the Croix de Guerre with palm for gallantry in action with the enemy October 2 to 10, 1918, near Blanc Mont, France, and for repeated acts of heroic gallantry in action near Blanc Mont. When his battalion was halted by severe fire, Captain Overton personally attacked and reduced one strong enemy position. He then led his men forward captured one field piece which was firing point blank at his company. He was wounded the next day, but he refused to be evacuated and continued to lead his command with courage and skill throughout the engagement.

On October 8, after occupying St. Etienne, his company was ordered to capture a machine gun position. Captain Overton went through heavy artillery and machine gun fire to establish liaison with another company. His company then captured the machine gun position and repelled a strong enemy counter-attack.

Residence at appointment, Union Post Office, Camp Hill, Pa. The Medal presented to mother, Mrs. Margaret Overton.

Finger Prints of Vet

Make Him Deserter

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 3.—(AP)

Fingerprint evidence tonight apparently dimmed a stranded bonus marcher's prospects for establishing himself as a Communist. Campbell J. Evans, III, youth, who, according to war records, was killed in aerial combat with German opponents, was found by a private investigator to profess to be a victim of amnesia, submitted to fingerprinting Saturday. The prints were sent by air mail to the department of justice at Washington.

Today, E. E. Conroy, a special agent for the department, said he had been informed by his chief, J. Edgar Hoover, by telephone, that the fingerprints tallied with those of Clarence Stephen Wendler, of Richmond, Va., listed as a deserter from the United States navy.

Informed of this report, the unidentified man replied it failed to touch any responsive chord in his memory.

Blaine Will Not Run For Place in Senate

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 3.—(AP)

United States Senator John J. Blaine, who was defeated for renomination in the September primary election, announced he would not seek election next month as an independent candidate.

HOME B. AND L. GROUP

ASKS PLACE IN SYSTEM

Formal application for membership in the new federal Home Loan Bank system has been filed by the Home Building and Loan Association of Atlanta, it was announced Monday by W. Lyons, president, and C. V. Minor, secretary.

Few Battles Are Won by Troops That

Have Lost Faith in Their Officers

By Robert Quillen

Crime in England is a hazardous and unprofitable business; burglars interrupted at their work do not "shoot it out" with the police; and the bandit surrenders to an officer whose only weapon is a stick.

The explanation lies in the fact that officers of the law are supported by public opinion. The people are not neutral observers, but ardent partisans of their protectors.

That relationship is essential to law enforcement. The police are helpless if public opinion is against them. And no person who has one explanation of the law's failure in America.

The typical American hates tyranny. He may be indifferent to official corruption and tolerant of inefficiency, but he is filled with rage when uniformed authority makes unnecessary show of its power.

He is a free man and the equal of any other. And though he is too humble in the presence of those he considers great, his heart burns with a fierce and bitter resentment when an equer or an inferior clothed with a little brief authority "tries to boss him."

As a private in the army he was compelled to endure that humiliation; as a citizen of a free land he will not.

Officers of the better class understand the citizen's attitude and avoid giving offense. But there are others who could neither win nor deserve respect as private citizens, and these make all authority seem hateful.

These are the men who are given authority over his superiors can resist the temptation to bully them.

This is so universally true that abuse of authority is almost a confession of a feeling of inferiority. Two classic examples are the vulgar rick and the members of an inferior race exalted by political expediency.

They mend their injured pride by an opportunity for vengeance. They reveal their venom in petty tyrannies. They are officious and offensive. And free men of high and low estate resent their impudence and lose respect for the power they represent.

Americans are natural partisans. They give hearty support to the right kind of officer. But they won't waste any good wishes on one who treats them as enemies.

(Copyright, 1932, for The Constitution.)

HOLLYWOOD IN PERSON

BY MOLLIE MERRICK.

(Copyright, 1932, by the North American Newspaper Alliance, Inc.)

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Oct. 3.—Ann Harding's future is one of the most interesting hazards in motion pictures today. At the present time radio is trying to farm her out to another company at $8,000 a week. That is a steep figure even for motion picture companies these days unless producers are certain of type and box office. Ann Harding is a motion picture star who has been in the business for over ten years.

She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years.

She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years.

She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years.

She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years.

She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years.

She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years.

She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years.

She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years.

She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years.

She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years.

She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years.

She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years.

She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years.

She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years.

She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years.

She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years.

She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years. She has been in the business for over ten years.

STALE DEMOCRATS

HAIL ROOSEVELT

Smith and Nominee United in Support of Lehman for Governor.

Continued from First Page.

ability into a floor fight for his old friend, Lehman.

Roosevelt sat in the executive mansion already has told the New York leaders he will take up the cudgels for his lieutenant if forced.

When the delegates arrived today Tammany Chief John F. Curry and his political allies conferred with Governor Roosevelt at the convention hall.

It was an hour later when the demonstration for Roosevelt started. It followed an assertion during the keynote speech of United States Senator Robert F. Wagner, who said:

"We pledge ourselves and the nominees of this convention to continue fighting the war waged behind a leader to whom government is not a mechanical process, but a system of cooperation to further the advancement of humanity."

Such a quality of leadership, he added, "we shall have when Franklin D. Roosevelt is elected president of the United States."

A banner brass band burst in "Happy Days Are Here Again."

The convention crowd—6,000 persons, police said—jumped to their feet.

Hats were thrown into the air as the vast flag-bedecked armory echoed with cheers and applause.

A battery of spotlights played on Wagner, then on the New York city organization leaders, then on immense likenesses of Governor Roosevelt and Speaker Charles F. Murphy.

The hand switched to "Anchors Aweigh," another democratic campaign song.

There was more cheering, then some routine business and finally adjournment until the evening session, at which the presidential nominee himself will preside over the program.

Only one of the four principals of the convention attended the opening session.

The governor spent the afternoon in the executive mansion, a mile from the convention hall, with his family.

Smith kept to his hotel room. Lehman remained in comparative seclusion.

But John Boyd Thacher, whom Tammany's upstate allies have been urging to organize to support Roosevelt, appeared on the platform in his capacity as mayor of Albany.

Dozens of signs bearing his name and election line in the room as he welcomed the delegates to the capital.

He set loose the first cheering for Roosevelt and Smith when he predicted their leadership and predicted the governor would get the largest vote in American political history.

Thacher then spent the afternoon with Smith came from his room declaring his fight for Lehman, which he waged with booming voice for days in the campaign.

But, he said, if it goes to the convention floor, he will join Roosevelt in publicly battling for his friend.

"I was away from the Warner lot and spent a month or twelve weeks of the week as the regular law officer stipulated in the contract."

Wagner's 45-minute talk was punctuated with frequent applause. He declared that he was not in what he called an indictment of the Hoover administration.

Handclapping came when he declared the president's record shows that he is willing to use the tariff laws of the United States to pay the political debts of the republican party without regard to the havoc he plays on the livelihood of the American family.

The senator in a powerful voice said the democrats were asking the voters to abandon the tariff laws of 1924, the complacency of 1928, the despair of 1930.

"American people," he continued, "never again accept as gold the brass knuckles sold to them in 1928."

The crowd thundered its applause when he came to prohibition and said: "The republican leadership cannot be trusted with prohibition."

At every mention of the democrats' plank for modification of the Volstead act and repeal of the eighteenth amendment, applause broke out.

"For years the people of this state have watched the rapid stride of progress under the inspired leadership of Alfred E. Smith," he said later.

"Dug his last four years it has responded with ever growing admiration to the warm-hearted progressivism of Franklin Roosevelt."

Many asked to cheer the governor, but they reserved their big outburst for Wagner's conclusion—his prediction of Roosevelt's election.

Imprisoned 33 Years,

Toad Is Still Healthy

FRANKLIN, Pa., Oct. 3.—(AP)

A toad, reputedly a prisoner in a cannon ball 33 years, hopped to freedom today as workmen removed the wooden pegs from the 100-pound ball, a relic of the Civil War.

The toad blinked its eyes, stretched its legs, wobbled and hopped off.

The cannon ball was brought here by a half-century ago from New Orleans. Citizens said the toad was placed inside 33 years ago, before the ball was removed to its present place on the courthouse lawn.

GEORGIA DEMOCRATS

HAIL RAIL TONIGHT

Continued from First Page.

Steve Nance, George L. Bell, Cam D. Dorsey, Ronald Ransom, Sam Hewitt, Mrs. William Healey, Miss Allie Mann, George A. Dunagin, a personal friend of Senator Buckley; Charles B. Shelton, Clark Howell Jr. and Dudley Glass.

Various democratic organizations waging campaigns in Georgia in behalf of the Roosevelt-Gagner ticket also are expected to figure prominently in the rally tonight.

Among them, from state headquarters, will be Mrs. Edgar Alexander, national committeewoman, and Miss Stella Alexander, executive secretary, who, after the convention proper, will go to New York Thursday and work with national headquarters until the November election.

Howell to Get Medallion.

Carded as among the events of the convention day will be the presentation by Miss Caroline Noble Jones, vice president of the Roosevelt Motor Club of Georgia, of a bronze medallion likeness of Governor Roosevelt to Hugh Howell, incoming state chairman.

With the opening of the convention proper Wednesday morning Thomas M. Linder, chief aid to the governor-to-be, will be elected temporary chairman, and as such, will have the honor of electing Hugh Howell permanent chairman. Talmadge will be placed in nomination by his lifelong friend and political counsel, Judge Eschsch Gramham, of McKee. Other speakers on the convention program will be by Governor Russell and Senator George.

Members of the state's delegation in the national congress are expected to attend both the rally and the biennial convention.

Six Seeking Speakership.

Six candidates, five of whom served in the 1931 house, are seeking the speakership. An earlier than usual drive in the race is due to the fact that passage of a pending constitutional amendment will bring the legislative session in January, instead of in May.

Former Senator Ed Rivers, of Lakeland, the only one of the candidates who had not served in 1931, is a legislator of more than 20 years' service. He has been in the legislature since 1912.

Others are L. Thomas (Pat) Gillen, of Bibb, who speaks for term; Ernest M. Davis, of Mitchell; Marion Allen, of Baldwin; Paul Lindsay, of DeKalb; and John C. Beasley, of Tattall.

Three younger members of the lower branch of the assembly, two of whom served in 1931, are also campaigning for speakership. They are William Brunson, of Laurens; George Eckford, of Fulton, re-elected in the September primary; and Ellis G. Arnall, of Lowndes.

King's Re-election Seen.

The offices of speaker and speaker pro tem and clerk of the house are the three offices which will be elected in the state house and indications are that Andrew J. Kinney, 1931 clerk, who has been named assistant secretary for the state house, will be re-elected.

Under the regime of Governor-Designate Eugene Talmadge, he will be re-elected to that post.

There also is a contest for president of the state senate. Hamilton McWhorter, of Lexington, a veteran of long service both in the state senate and in the house, is the leading candidate. He is a member of the old district despite the usual rotation system between counties, and S. Morton Turner, a south Georgia legislator, is another prominent name in that race.

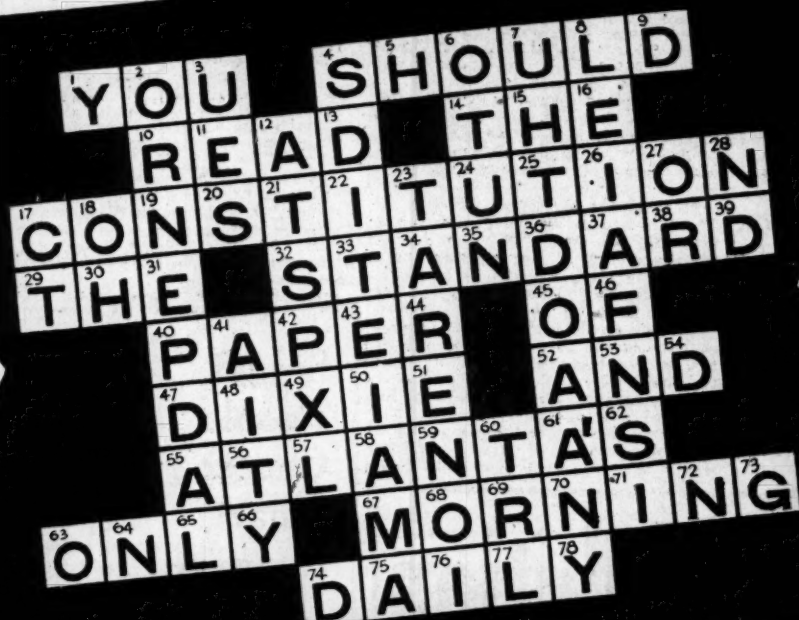

There also are expected to be candidacies for the office of speaker pro tem and clerk of the house. The speaker pro tem and clerk of the house are the three offices which will be elected in the state house and indications are that Andrew J. Kinney, 1931 clerk, who has been named assistant secretary for the state house, will be re-elected.

Under the regime of Governor-Designate Eugene Talmadge, he will be re-elected to that post.

There also is a contest for president of the state senate. Hamilton McWhorter, of Lexington, a veteran of long service both in the state senate and in the house, is the leading candidate. He is a member of the old district despite the usual rotation system between counties, and S. Morton Turner, a south Georgia legislator, is another prominent name in that race.

There also are expected to be candidacies for the office of speaker pro tem and clerk of the house. The speaker pro tem and clerk of the house are the three offices which will be elected in the state house and indications are that

How many English Words can you spell with the letters in this Lucky Star?

Don't skip or jump any spaces, just move one space at a time, from any letter to any adjacent or touching letters in any direction. Simple, isn't it?

You have never played a more fascinating game; it's simple too, you don't even need a dictionary. We will furnish you FREE with one copy of the Official Lucky Star Word List, which contains all the words to be found from the star. Words not found in the list will not count.

This is truly a game for the whole family. The most fun you have ever had. Here is a game that yields big cash rewards for play.

Start Now!

Don't put it off. Mail in the coupon now for your free copy of the word list, get started—think of all the things you could do with $1,500 and if you are prompt you may win the new Chevrolet in addition to the first prize. You have just as good a chance as everybody else, there are no experts to compete against you. This is the first time the Lucky Star game has ever been offered in the South.

Read These Instructions Carefully

Form as many words as possible from the letters in the star. Start with any letter and move one square at a time, as many times as desired, to any adjacent or contiguous letters IN ANY DIRECTION; that is, upward, downward, sideways, and, or diagonally. (A letter is adjacent or contiguous to another when the spaces occupied touch each other either on the sides or at the corners. S-32 is adjacent or contiguous to S-20, T-21, I-22, T-33, E-43, P-42, and A-41. However, it is not adjacent to E-31, because it is separated from the latter by a blank space.) Do not skip or jump any letters or spaces. For example, starting in with S-32, we can form the following simple words and many others:

- | | | |
|----------------------------------|--------|-------|
| (a) S-32, T-21, A-12, T-21, E-11 | spells | STATE |
| (b) S-32, I-22, T-21, E-11 | spells | CITE |
| (c) S-32, T-33, E-43, E-51, R-44 | spells | STEER |
| (d) S-32, E-43, A-34, T-33 | spells | SEAT |
| (e) S-32, P-42, I-50, R-44, E-43 | spells | SPIRE |
| (f) S-32, A-41, P-40 | spells | SAP |

As you will observe in example (a) above, the same letter may be used more than once in a word, but do not double any letter. In example (c) above, we have used two E's, E-43 and E-51, to make the word STEER, because at this place in the star we have two adjacent squares, each containing the letter E. But we cannot start with S-32 and make the word STEEP by doubling up E-43, thereby using the same space twice in succession in the same word. When you have formed all the words you can starting with any given letter in the star, then start with another letter, and so forth, and you will be surprised how easy it is, and what fun.

THE RULES

This contest is open to all residents of Georgia and adjoining states, including Mississippi and the Virginias, with the exception of employees of The Constitution and the Southern Cultivator, immediate members of their families, or persons who have won a prize of $500 or more in any previous contest conducted by The Atlanta Constitution during the past three years.

As explained in the list of prizes there are three classes of prizes. It is not necessary to subscribe or send in a subscription to the daily and Sunday Constitution to compete for one of the Class "C" prizes. Class "A" and "B" prizes are open to those who qualify their word list with subscriptions, as stated in the general rules.

The general and complete rules of the contest and the official word list, together with subscription rates and full qualification instructions, will be supplied to all who register their names in the "Lucky Star" game.

One copy of the official word list will be furnished

FREE without any obligation on the part of the person registering. Additional copies of the official word list, rules and regulations, will cost 25c each. No official word list will be given to anyone who does not register in this contest.

This contest will close at 6 p. m., Saturday, November 12, 1932. All lists of words must be delivered to The Atlanta Constitution, Contest Dept., Constitution Building, Atlanta, Ga., on or before that time, or if mailed must bear postmark showing no later date than midnight of that date. Ten days will be given thereafter for unqualified contestants to qualify their answers or make good any subscriptions previously submitted and not accepted by The Constitution.

Register immediately by sending your name and address for official word list and complete rules, qualification requirements, etc. It will start you on the way to win $1,500 cash and an automobile for promptness.

Play the fascinating LUCKY STAR GAME

and win

$1,500

IN CASH

2nd. Prize $ 750

3rd. Prize $ 300

and many other cash awards

Beautiful New Chevrolet
Sedan given as an extra prize for promptness, so
MAIL THIS COUPON NOW!

REGISTRATION COUPON

Mail This Coupon Now! It Pays to be Prompt!

Lucky Star Editor,
Atlanta Constitution,
Atlanta, Georgia.

500 POINTS WINS $1,500 CASH.
REGISTER PROMPTLY IN THE "LUCKY STAR" GAME MAKES YOU
ELIGIBLE TO WIN $1,500.00 CASH AND
AN AUTOMOBILE FOR PROMPTNESS!

Without obligation on my part, please register my name in your "Lucky Star" game and award me 475 points, which I understand makes me eligible to win a cash prize and also the new Chevrolet De Luxe Sedan for promptness and also entitles me to one official word list to be used in this game.

Name Phone
Address State
City

This new $850 Chevrolet De Luxe Sedan will be given in addition to the $1,500 cash prize just for being prompt, so hurry, mail the coupon now.

LIST of PRIZES

*CLASS "A"

If qualified by two NEW paid-in-advance or acceptable contract 6-months' subscriptions, or one NEW paid-in-advance yearly subscription.*

1st	$1,500.00
2nd	750.00
3rd	300.00
4th	200.00
5th	150.00
6th	100.00
7th	50.00
8th to 16th @ $30 each	270.00
17th to 25th @ $20 each	180.00

Total Class "A" Prizes $3,500.00

CLASS "B"

If qualified by one NEW paid-in-advance or acceptable contract 6-months' subscription.

1st	$ 500.00
2nd	250.00
3rd	150.00
4th	100.00
5th	75.00
6th	50.00
7th	25.00
9 @ $15 each	135.00
9 @ $10 each	90.00

Total Class "B" Prizes $1,375.00

CLASS "C"

When no subscriptions are sent in.

1st	$ 50.00
2nd	25.00
3rd	15.00
4th	10.00
5th	7.50
6th	5.00
7th	5.00
9 @ $1.50 each	13.50
9 @ $1.00 each	9.00

Total Class "C" Prizes $140.00

*In Class "A" participants can secure four renewal paid-in-advance subscriptions at $5.00 each for six months in lieu of two new paid-in-advance subscriptions or two new six-months contract acceptable subscriptions; or two annual renewal paid-in-advance subscriptions at $9.50 each in lieu of one new paid-in-advance yearly subscription at $9.50.

In Class "B" a contestant may send two six-months paid-in-advance renewal subscriptions at $5.00 each in lieu of one new six-months paid-in-advance subscription or one new six-months contract subscription, or one annual renewal paid-in-advance subscription at $9.50 in lieu of one new six-months paid-in-advance subscription or new six-months acceptable contract subscription.

Alabama Solons First To Feel Pinch of New Budget Measure

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 3.—(AP)—The legislators who enacted Alabama's new no-cash, no-pay warrant law have been the first to feel its pinch, their salary vouchers temporarily worthless because the state has no cash and the auditor unable to issue warrants under penalty of the law.

State employees in the past have discounted their salary warrants at banks when the state had no funds but unless there is money on hand they are likely to go payless in the future. Some hoped an amendment to the budget bill could be engineered which would exempt the auditor from punishment for issuing warrants without money in the treasury.

The new bill, which also provides that state funds must be kept in the account for which the money was intended and not shifted from one department to another, also has brought gloom to the highway department but meant only additional worries to the schools.

J. H. Hard Jr., comptroller, said today he did not believe there would be another legislative pay day before the special session adjourns sine die, probably early in November.

"I won't say for sure," Mr. Hard said, "but I do not believe that legislative warrants can be drawn until there is sufficient money in the treasury to cover them, and I see little probability of sufficient funds accumulating before the middle of November."

Reminded that the First National Bank of Montgomery had agreed to advance $100,000 for legislative warrants, Mr. Hard said he did not consider the "arrangement" with the bank as money in the state treasury.

"The Fletcher bill (creating the comptroller's office) prohibits the issuance of a warrant until there are sufficient funds in the treasury to cover it," Mr. Hard said. "The arrangement with the First National bank cannot be construed as money in the treasury."

S. H. Blinn, state treasurer, announced that—even if warrants were drawn—there was less than $11,000 of the First National bank's $100,000 "arrangement" money remaining to be expended, or less than enough to operate the $2,100-a-day legislature until Friday.

"This money from the bank is not, strictly speaking, in the treasury," Mr. Blinn said. "We are merely cashing checks for the bank up to $100,000 and more than $80,000 already has been spent."

INJURED EYE HALTS JAPS GOOD WILL VISIT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The Japanese government advised its Washington embassy today that Admiral Kichisaburo Nomura will not visit the United States on a good-will mission, as had been planned, because of an injured eye which requires constant treatment.

Admiral Nomura commanded the Japanese forces in the fighting at Shanghai early this year and suffered the injury in a bomb explosion there in April.

HIT WITH AUTO CRANK, YOUTH BADLY INJURED

E. E. Shipp, 22 years of age, 407 Luckie street, walked into the Grady hospital Monday night shortly before midnight and asked for examination and treatment. Physicians found that he had been struck on the head, sustaining what may be a fracture of the skull.

Police who questioned Shipp said they were told by him that he had been hit on the head with an auto mobile crank by three unidentified men. He refused to tell where the affair took place.

Theater Programs Pictures and Stage Shows

FOX—"White Zombie," with Bela Lugosi, etc. Newswell and short subjects. Enrico Leide conducting FOX GRAND ORCHESTRA and STAGE BAND.

First-Run Pictures
CAMEO—"The Expert," with "Chic" Sale, Newswell and short subjects.
GEORGIA—"Two Against the World," with Constance Bennett, Newswell and short subjects.
PARAMOUNT—"10,000 Witnesses," with Philine Hutton, Johnnie Mack Brown, etc. Newswell and short subjects.

Second-Run Pictures

ALAMO—"The Devil to Pay," ALPHEA—"House Divided," BIALTO—"Huddle," with Ramon Navarro, Madge Evans, etc. Newswell and short subjects.

Neighborhood Theaters
BANKHEAD—"Ladies of the Big House,"
BUCKHEAD—"Sinners in the Sun," at 2:30, 4:30, 6:15, 7:55, 9:35.
DELEW—"The Miracle Man,"
EMPEROR—"When a Fellow Needs a Friend," at 2:30, 5:00, 7:00, 9:00.
FAIRVIEW—"Sky Bride," MADISON—"Sky Bride,"
PALACE—"Stolen Attorney,"
FONCE DE LEO—"Amateur Daddy," at 2:30 to 11:00.
TENTH STREET—"One Hour With You,"
WEST END—"One Hour With You."

GEORGIA FIRST-RUN PICTURES

All Seats 10c and 25c
CONSTANCE BENNETT
25c
"TWO AGAINST THE WORLD"

Paramount NOW!

10,000 WITNESSES
with Dorothy Jordan, Charles Rogers, Johnnie Mack Brown, New Comedy Studio

POSITIVELY will not be shown in any other theatre in the city of Atlanta

Coming Saturday!

HAROLD LLOYD

IN MOVIE CRAZY
His First Picture in Two Years

ALL OUR PICTURES

NEVER TO BE SHOWN

..IN ANY.. OTHER THEATRE

IN THIS ENTIRE CITY

Gala Inaugural Week Show

MARION DAVIES

ROBERT MONTGOMERY

IN "BLONDIE OF THE FOLLIES"

With Jimmy "Schnozzle" Durante

METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER PICTURE

Important!

You'll say it's a miracle! The old Grand is gone! The new Grand is here! NEW in everything but name and location—and the great pictures of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and United Artists!

Loews GRAND

MRS. WOODRUFF DIES IN COLUMBUS

Funeral Services for Prominent Georgian To Be Held Today

COLUMBUS, Ga., Oct. 3.—Mrs. Johnnie Kyle Woodruff, widow of Henry Lindsay Woodruff and beloved Columbus woman, died Monday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Clifford Swift, in Peachock woods, following an illness of several weeks which became critical only in the last few days.

The funeral will take place Tuesday at 3:30 p. m. from the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Swift. Dr. Robert Boyd will officiate.

Mrs. Woodruff, a member of a pioneer family whose life is intertwined with the growth of Columbus, was the mother of James W. Woodruff, Mrs. Clifford Swift, George C. Woodruff and the late Harry Ernest Woodruff, all of whom have been leaders in business, social and cultural circles in Columbus.

Mrs. Woodruff was born in Columbus December 11, 1855, and with the exception of a few years in her girlhood spent in Dalton, Ga., she lived her entire life here. She was the daughter of John and Elizabeth Phillips Kyle. Her father came to Columbus from Ireland shortly after the city was founded. Mrs. Woodruff was married October 27, 1876, to Henry Woodruff, a prominent business man, financier and prominent business man. Of a retiring nature, she gave her life in loving devotion to her husband and children. Possessed of a keen mind, a vibrant personality and a love and appreciation of the finer things of life, she was a wife and mother, the center of a home whose ideals she kept on the highest plane.

Mrs. Woodruff was a devoted member of the First Presbyterian church, giving liberally of her time and her means to its support.

Surviving Mrs. Woodruff are a daughter, Mrs. Clifford Swift; two sons, James W. Woodruff and George C. Woodruff; a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Frances Woodruff Box. She leaves the following grandchildren: Miss Ethel Woodruff, Miss Emily Woodruff, James W. Woodruff Jr., John Barnett Woodruff, Clifford Swift Jr., Henry W. Swift, John H. Swift, Miss Virginia Woodruff, Miss Frances Woodruff, George C. Woodruff Jr. She is also survived by one brother, James P. Kyle; a number of nieces and nephews; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Joel Hurt Sr., of Atlanta; a brother-in-law, Ernest Woodruff, of Atlanta. Attending the funeral from Atlanta will be Mrs. Joel Hurt Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Bickerstaff and Mrs. A. B. Sims.

PARAGUAYAN CAVALRY TAKES CHACO FOR

ASUNCION, Paraguay, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The war ministry announced Sunday that Paraguayan cavalry, engaged in the campaign against Bolivian forces for possession of the border territory of Gran Chaco, has recaptured Fort Pitiantuta.

This fort is not shown on maps of the Gran Chaco region which show all the principal forts and dozens of minor strongholds. Principal fighting of the past two weeks has been centered in the siege of Fort Boqueron, in the heart of the Chaco forest, which Paraguayans claim to have occupied.

LA PAZ, Bolivia, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Reports that Paraguayan forces had again occupied Fort Boqueron, in the Chaco, were denied on high authority Sunday, but this denial was not confirmed by the government.

It was announced fighting was continuing at the fort where Bolivians were besieged. Crowds here were anxiously awaiting a definite bulletin on the status of the fort.

ILLIONIS LANDOWNER IS SLAIN BY TENANT

CANTON, Ill., Oct. 3.—(UP)—A farmer and his wife were held in county jail tonight after a wealthy Peoria realtor, trying to collect his rent, was killed and his brother seriously injured by blows from an iron bar and a club.

M. C. Salzenstein, 65, the landowner, died in a hospital here shortly after he was brutally beaten. He and his brother, O. Salzenstein, had gone to George Lingenfelter farm, near Sumner, to get the rent. The brother, in a serious condition from his wounds, was removed to Peoria.

LABOR PARTY ATTACKS OTTAWA AGREEMENTS

LEICESTER, Eng., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Attacks on the Ottawa imperial trade agreements and the government fiscal policy and demands for a greater measure of socialism were made by principal speakers at the annual conference of the labor party of Great Britain which opened here today.

Arthur Henderson, leader of the party, declared the need for a definite advance toward socialism. He attacked the fiscal policy of the national government as "torment without disguise."

PUBLIC WORKS GROUP ELECTS LOUISIANAN

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Carl Schneider, New Orleans, La., has been chosen president of the International Association of Public Works Officials. Other officers chosen include: Vice presidents, T. L. Costigan, Washington; Mark B. Owen, Dearborn, Mich.; and Alfred E. Roche, Troy, N. Y.; secretary, A. M. Anderson, Chicago; and treasurer, P. J. Hurling, Kenosha, Wis.

PROMINENT BILOXIAN FACES THEFT ARREST

GULFPORT, Miss., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Embezzlement charges against Leon J. Roy, former president of the Biloxi Chamber of Commerce and well known real estate operator there, have been filed here and warrants issued for his arrest, authorities disclosed today. Officers said, however, that Roy had left his home in Biloxi several days ago and his whereabouts are not known.

AGED MEMPHIS WOMAN FOUND DEAD IN HOME

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 3.—(AP)—The body of Miss Octavia Reagin, 84, was found at her home Sunday by neighbors who investigated because they had not seen the aged woman for several days.

Her clothing apparently had been torn off of her and bruises about her throat led to the theory that she had been choked to death. Nothing in the house seemed to have been disturbed.

CHILL WIND BRINGS SNOWS IN FAR WEST

DENVER, Oct. 3.—(AP)—A chill north wind sweeping across southeastern Wyoming and northern Colorado left a light snow in several sections today.

AGED MAN KILLED IN FRONT OF HOME

Continued from First Page.

DeKalb avenue, according to police reports. The child was treated at Grady hospital and dismissed. No case was made.

Motorcycle Officer R. H. McLean was slightly injured when his motorcycle was struck at Lee and Arden streets by an automobile driven by Mose Bennett, negro, of Currier street, according to police reports. McLean received bruises on the legs. Bennett was arrested on a charge of reckless driving.

Cars driven by J. F. Thompson, of palmetto, and L. J. Stein, of 1237 Holderness street, collided at Lee and Arden streets. Mrs. Thompson and child was slightly injured. No cases were made.

C. J. Turner was slightly injured when his truck turned over on Campbellton road, according to fire department records. The truck caught fire. The accident was caused by a tire blowing out, it was said.

The following persons were treated at Grady hospital emergency clinic for accidental injuries:

Robert Jackson, 35, Carey Park, right shoulder and arm dislocated in fall in shallow water. She was the daughter of John and Elizabeth Phillips Kyle. Her father came to Columbus from Ireland shortly after the city was founded. Mrs. Woodruff was married October 27, 1876, to Henry Woodruff, a prominent business man, financier and prominent business man. Of a retiring nature, she gave her life in loving devotion to her husband and children. Possessed of a keen mind, a vibrant personality and a love and appreciation of the finer things of life, she was a wife and mother, the center of a home whose ideals she kept on the highest plane.

C. STUART BROEMAN HONORED BY BAKERS

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The American Bakers' Association today elected as a governor C. Stuart Broeman, of Atlanta. Among those re-elected to the board of governors was J. B. Everidge, of Columbus, Ga.

Mr. Broeman, widely known in business circles here, is president of the American Bakers' Company.

CHURCH IN TOLEDO OFFERS 'HOT' MUSIC TO DRAW CROWDS

TOLEDO, Ohio, Oct. 3.—(AP)—A night club orchestra which sent its "hot" music resounding through the stately downtown First Westminster Presbyterian church last night probably will perform again next Sunday night, Dr. Edwood Rowsey, pastor of the church, said today.

Some members of the church indicated they were shocked when the orchestra, saxophones and all, ranged in front of the pulpit and did its snappiest. But they were shocked still more when they found out the orchestra has a regular job at a downtown night club.

However, Dr. Rowsey, who during the week is welfare director in Mayor A. G. Thacher's cabinet, declared he had made it plain members of his congregation who do not care for jazz services can stay at home Sunday nights.

He pointed out he drew a packed house last night.

He explained that unlike his formal Sunday morning services, he planned his evening program to catch downtown crowds looking for entertainment.

SMALL GIRL KILLED BY FATHER'S TRUCK

PARAGOULD, Ark., Oct. 3.—(AP)—On the way to the Cache river to a baptismal service, Oella Robinson, 8, was crushed to death yesterday under her father's truck driven by Floyd Harris, an employee.

He said he believed the railroad "could do nothing that would more surely regain the confidence and patronage of the public than do away with the so-called surcharge on Pullman and parlor cars."

Eleven years ago, Perry said, he introduced a resolution eliminating the surcharge in Georgia for one year but the order was set aside by the interstate commerce commission. That or-

PERRY ATTACKS RAIL SURCHARGE

Chairman Will Seek to Have Extra Fare Eliminated by Roads

Elimination of the 50 per cent railroad surcharge on Pullman and parlor car tickets which Chairman James A. Perry, of the Georgia public service commission, calls a cause of public resentment against the carriers, will be sought by Perry, he announced Monday.

The chairman said he would ask the commission at its hearing next week to consider railroad passenger fares and the surcharge at a hearing October 24.

Perry already has recommended to the commission a hearing on reduction of intra-state passenger fares from 3.6 to 2 cents per mile as a means of bringing business back to the railroads and putting men to work.

He said he believed the railroads "could do nothing that would more surely regain the confidence and patronage of the public than do away with the so-called surcharge on Pullman and parlor cars."

He said the surcharge was put on 12 years ago as an emergency measure upon the return of the railroads to private control after the war. He said authorities estimated it had cost the railroads $5 for every $1 it brought them on account of reduced patronage resulting from public belief that the surcharge was "unfair, inequitable and without semblance of justification."

Eleven years ago, Perry said, he introduced a resolution eliminating the surcharge in Georgia for one year but the order was set aside by the interstate commerce commission. That or-

MARINE LIEUTENANT IS SHOT IN NICARAGUA

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The navy was informed today that Lieutenant William A. Lee, Ward Hill, Mass., had been injured recently in a clash between Nicaraguan insurgents and the native guardia commanded by United States marines.

Twenty-seven insurgents were reported killed during the week in fighting growing out of four attempts to ambush the guardia in charge of Captain Lewis B. Fuller, of West Point, Va., and Lieutenant Lee.

The latter received gunshot wounds on the right side of the head and upper arm. He was taken to a hospital at Managua, where his condition was said to be not serious.

Two members of the guardia were killed and two besides Lieutenant Lee were wounded.

der by the I. C. C., he said, would not prevent the commission from taking the measures he now recommends.

Perry said it was "common knowledge that different commercial organizations have by deliberate boycott refrained from honoring expense accounts of any traveling man with such companies, while by deliberate boycott had over railroads, simply because they regarded it (the surcharge) as without justification." He added that reasonable and adequate rates for both Pullman and regular travel had been set up by the I. C. C.

The commission has already set a hearing on railroad freight rates for November 9, and one on the gas and electricity service charge for November 21. It has directed its experts to study telephone rates and make a report by December 1.

German Nazi Youth March Before Hitler

POTSDAM, Germany, Oct. 3.—(AP)—While the nation was celebrating President von Hindenburg's 88th birthday 90,000 boys and girls passed in review Sunday before Adolf Hitler in tribute to his leadership of the national socialist party.

It was announced at Nazi headquarters that the first German youth meeting exceeded in attendance similar events in both Russia and Italy.

The fascist leader, the night before had told them they were not only the hope but the fulfillment of Germany's future.

As though he were addressing the chancellor himself, Herr von Schirach shouted: "Von Papen—you can dissolve our youth. Some day that youth will dissolve your government."

To Escape Many Colds Altogether

At the first sign of "Catching Cold" use Vicks Vapo Drops, the new aid in preventing colds—especially designed by makers of Vicks VapoRub for irritations of the nose and throat—where most colds start.

Part of the New Vicks Plan for better CONTROL OF COLDS

At Jacobs counts today!

Breaded Veal Cutlets with Tomato Sauce Baked Corn Pudding Fresh String Beans Pineapple Salad with Grated American Cheese Buttered Rolls and Corn Muffins Chocolate Meringue Pie Tea, Coffee or Buttermilk

35c

JACOBS Downtown Stores

THE WEIRDEST LOVE STORY IN 2,000 YEARS!

WHITE LOMBIE

BELA "DRACULA" LUGOSI
Madge Bellamy, Robert Frazer
Produced by Jack Bond

ON THE STAGE
"Land of the Living"
With Jack Taylor, Edna E. Louis, Five Lancers, Wm. Webster and 24 Dancing Darlings

ENRICO LEIDE Conducting FOX GRAND ORCHESTRA and STAGE BAND

25c
Till 5:30
FOX
Till 5:30

RIALTO

Atlanta Owned and Operated
130 and 200 Tull 6:00 P. M.
130 and 200, 6:00 Tull 11:00 P. M.

Free Parking After 6:00 P. M. By Purchasing Two Adult Orchestras

LAST DAY "HUDDLE"

STARTS WEDNESDAY THREE DAYS ONLY

REBECCA of SUNNY BROOK FARM

with Marian NIXON Ralph BELLAMY

THURSDAY Night at 8:30 O'Clock. Join the colorful throng—the most distinguished audience Atlanta ever saw! Be among the first to see this glorious NEW theatre! (Continuous Performances Start Friday at 11:15 A. M.)

Gala Inaugural Week Show
MARION DAVIES
ROBERT MONTGOMERY
IN
"BLONDIE OF THE FOLLIES"
With Jimmy "Schnozzle" Durante
METRO-GOLDWYN-MAYER PICTURE

Important!

You'll say it's a miracle! The old Grand is gone! The new Grand is here! NEW in everything but name and location—and the great pictures of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and United Artists!

Loews GRAND

October Fashion Exhibition At STERCHI'S Offers Greater Buying OPPORTUNITIES

Carloads of Beautiful Homefurnishings

Just Arrived!

VISIT STERCHI'S TODAY!

COLONIAL BEDROOM SUITE

81,000 Square Feet of Floor Space Formerly Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBoise Building

Draperies and Curtains MADE TO ORDER

A beautiful selection of new and colorful fabrics for fall decoration offered in our Department of Interior Decoration.

New Damasks, New Linens, New Chintz, New Brocades, New Tapestries, and Other Smart Fabrics.

Complete selection of ready-made Curtains and Draperies.

Visit this department

MAPLE AND MAHOGANY

A beautiful Colonial style 3-piece bedroom suite of splendid construction offered at a low price during our October Fashion Exhibition. Bed, Vanity and Chest of Drawers. Choice of mahogany or maple.

CONVENIENT TERMS.

$49.50

$98.50

SPECIAL—A smartly styled Living Room Suite made by Pullman, which assures long and satisfactory wear. Every comfortable feature built-in. Choice of tapestry and damask in the new fall colors. Make your selections today. Convenient terms will be arranged.

UPHOLSTERY DEPARTMENT

Estimates gladly furnished—Phone MAIN 3100

Equipped to give you efficient service in rebuilding your old furniture.

Just Arrived! New Fall Upholstery Fabrics.

Special care given treasured antiques.

STERCHI'S

The Most Complete Homefurnishings Establishment in the South
116, 118 and 120 WHITEHALL ST., S. W.
(Formerly Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBoise Building)

Customers anywhere in Georgia are invited to open an account.

Freight prepaid or truck delivery anywhere in the State of Georgia.

Smart People Choose Smart Luggage

Week-End Cases, 24-in. From $4.95.

Visit Sterchi's Today!

CARLOADS OF LUGGAGE

Just arrived complete selections. Remarkably low priced. We suggest that you come in today and select what you need.

Gladstone Bags from $9.75.

Special Overnite Case 98c
Size 14-in. — black imitation leather—very durable.

Convenient Terms

Wardrobe Trunks from $19.50.
Packing Trunks from $8.50.

Ladies' Fitted Cases from $12.50.

MAIL ORDERS Filled Promptly

STERCHI'S

The Most Complete Homefurnishings Establishment in the South
116, 118 and 120 WHITEHALL ST., S. W.
(Formerly Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBoise Building)

Shipping Charges Prepaid in Georgia

OCTOBER VALUES "WEAREVER" Aluminum

Many Useful Pieces

PERCOLATOR, 2-qt. size. Was $2.50, now $1.95

SAUCE PAN, 3-qt. size. Was $1.10, now 59c

FRY PAN, Square. Was $1.75, now $1

COOKIE SHEET. Was 85c, now 50c

EVERY "WEAREVER" ARTICLE AT SPECIAL LOW PRICES.

Carload of CEDAR CHESTS Just Arrived—All New Styles

CEDAR CHEST Walnut finish. Size 36x17x19 $9.95

CEDAR CHEST Walnut finish. Size 39x17x20 $11.95

CEDAR CHEST—Walnut, waxed finish. With back-rail. Size 39x17x20. Absolutely moth-proof $19.50

Walnut Finish

STERCHI'S

The Most Complete Homefurnishings Establishment in the South
116, 118 and 120 WHITEHALL ST., S. W.
(Formerly Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBoise Building)

Use Your Charge Account

Use Your Charge Account

Mrs. Woodruff Honors U. D. C. Board Today

Mrs. A. J. Woodruff, president of Agnes Lee chapter, U. D. C., in Decatur, will entertain the members of the executive board of the chapter this morning at a luncheon at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue. Mrs. Woodruff will be assisted by her daughters, Mrs. John Darcey and Mrs. William Woodruff.

The guests will include Mesdames R. S. Sloan, J. O. Norris, Annie Durham, Methvin, W. P. Smith, Guy Webb, Wellington Stevenson, H. S. Higgins, John Montgomery, F. A. Rice, W. A. Ozmer, Henry Rogers, W. H. S. Hamilton, Maggie Webb, Guy Hudson, P. D. Boardman, W. Cole Jones, W. H. Hammond, Morris K. Harrison, J. H. Allison, Charles Weeks, L. M. Griffin, Sam Smith, A. L. Wade, J. B. Riley, E. B. Branch, T. C. Jackson.

Mrs. Robert Ramspeck, Mrs. W. S. Elkin Jr. and Mrs. William Schley Howard are in Macon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Everhart have returned from a trip to south Georgia. Robert Hale Jr. entertained a number of friends Saturday evening at a dance at the home of his parents on West Ponce de Leon avenue. Members of Mrs. R. B. Cunningham's circle, Mrs. Manget Davis and Mrs. Roy Jones meet with Mrs. Nellie Candler Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at 334 South Candler street.

Miss Baylor To Fete Trio of Debutantes

Miss Harriett Ann Baylor has chosen Tuesday, October 11, as the date for her luncheon to be given at Brookhaven Club in honor of a trio of popular debutantes, Misses Fort Scott Meador, vice president of the club, Elinor Smith and Emily Inglis. Covers will be placed for all the members of the Debutante Club.

Miss Meador, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Meador; Miss Inglis, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Inglis; and Miss Smith, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. C. Smith, will be honor guests at numbers of the fall parties.

Miss Ellen Newell Is Honor Guest.

Miss Ellen Newell, lovely bride-elect of October, whose marriage to Wright Bryan will be a brilliant event of Saturday, October 12, was honor guest at a luncheon given yesterday by her cousin, Miss Ellen Wolff, at Brookhaven Country Club. Invited to meet the honor guest were Misses Virginia Campbell, Mary Cox Bryan, Ida Sadler, De Coursey Jones, of Albany; Anne Maybank, of Charleston; Ellen Dofft and Mrs. Robert Whitley.

Mrs. Trenton Tunnell entertained at a bridge-ten Monday at her home on Avery drive honoring Miss Newell, and the guests included members of the wedding party and the members of Mrs. Tunnell's sewing club. Mr. and Mrs. George Kearsley Selden were hosts at a buffet supper Sunday at their home on Walker terrace complimenting Miss Newell and Mr. Bryan. Mrs. Anita Stewart Armstrong assisted in entertaining the guests, including members of the Newell-Bryan wedding party.

German American Club Benefit.

The German-American Club, at 80 Fourteenth street, will give a benefit bridge Wednesday at 8 o'clock. Each table will be awarded two prizes and refreshments will be served. There will be a charge of 50 cents per person. Mrs. C. Christensen, 810 Vedado way, is the chairman in charge. Reservations may be made by phoning Main 8750.

Exquisite Pieces in a Sale of Semi-Precious Stone Jewelry

Set in Solid Gold Reductions of

1/2

Due to a Special Purchase

$4.95 to $110

Necklaces—Rings
Clips—Bracelets
Brooches
Earrings

Jade—Zircon
Coral—Amethyst
Carnelian and Others!

Street Floor
RICH'S
INCORPORATED

WOMEN'S MEETINGS

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4.

Junior League meets at 3 o'clock at the Piedmont Driving Club.

The open meeting of the Atlanta Federation of Women's Clubs will be held at 10:30 o'clock at the Capital City Club will honor Mrs. J. W. Gholston, of Comer, president of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs.

Uncle Remus Memorial Association meets with the president, Mrs. A. McD. Wilson, 209 Fourteenth street, at 10:30 o'clock.

Ladies' Aid Society of the Decatur Christian church meets at 10 o'clock at the church.

Druid Hills Baptist W. M. U. will observe the day of prayer for state missions with an all-day service, beginning at 10 o'clock.

Kirkwood Civic League meets at 2:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the Kirkwood school.

G. A. of Western Heights Baptist church meets at 7:30 o'clock at the church.

Women's Auxiliary, Betty Harrison Jones Chapter of the Disabled American Veterans of the World War, meets this evening at the Ansley hotel at 7:30 o'clock.

Circle No. 1 of the Fortified Hills Baptist W. M. S. meets with Mrs. E. A. Mathis at 3 o'clock. Circle No. 2 meets at 3 o'clock with Mrs. L. D. Vaughn, 29 Chappel road.

Robert E. Lee Chapter, U. D. C., of College Park, meets at 3:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. V. C. Mason, Virginia avenue.

Perennial Garden Club meets at 10:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. David D. Long, 85 East Park lane.

Mary Lin pre-school meets at 2:30 o'clock at the school.

Pre-school circle of Morningside school meets at 10 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Wesley M. Martin, 1030 East Rock Spring road.

Luckie Street School P. T. A. meets at 2:45 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Sylvan Hills Pre-School Association meets at 2 o'clock at the school.

Pryor Street School P. T. A. meets at 2:30 o'clock.

Milton Avenue P. T. A. meets at 2:30 o'clock in the school auditorium. The parental education class meets at 1:45 o'clock.

The executive board of Maddox Junior High P. T. A. meets at 8:45 o'clock in the school library.

Spring Street pre-school group meets from 2:30 to 3:30 o'clock in the kindergarten room of the school.

Whiteford Garden Club meets at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. S. Kelley, 310 Boulevard drive, northeast.

Atlanta Smith College Club meets at 3 o'clock with Mrs. Charles Currie, 731 Morningside drive.

Cascade Chapter No. 274, O. E. S., meets in the Masonic hall, corner Beecher street and Cascade avenue, this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Electa Chapter No. 6, O. E. S., meets this evening at 8 o'clock. Red Men's wigwam, 160 Central avenue, S. W.

Center Hill Chapter, No. 235, O. E. S., meets this evening at 8 o'clock.

Executive board of the Atlanta League of Women Voters meets at league headquarters from 10 to 12 o'clock.

Fidelis class of the adult department of the Westminster Presbyterian church meets at the home of Mrs. W. J. Zahn, Conway road.

Circle No. 2 of Oakland City Baptist W. M. S. meets at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Beavers on Holderness street.

W. M. U. of West End Baptist church will hold an all-day service at 10:30 o'clock for state missions.

A garden tour will be made by the garden division of the Decatur Woman's Club when the members visit Ashford Park nurseries this afternoon.

R. L. Hope P. T. A. meets at 2:30 o'clock in the school auditorium. The executive board of the organization meets at 10:30 o'clock this morning.

Atlanta Chapter, U. D. C., executive board meets at 10 o'clock at the chapter house, corner of Juniper and Sixth streets.

Kappa Delta Alumnae Give Tea Wednesday.

The alumnae of Kappa Delta will be hostesses Wednesday afternoon at a bridge-ten at the Piedmont Driving Club for the Oglethorpe chapter and their rushers.

Mrs. Knowles Davis is chairman of the following committee: Misses Margaret Neuhoff, Dorothy Marvin, Martha Jean Osborne and Kattie Koonce.

Officers of the association are: Mrs. E. K. Higginbottom, president; Mrs. Robert Martin, vice president; Mrs. W. S. Dennis Jr., secretary; Carolyn Bennett, treasurer, and Mrs. Homer Sanford, editor.

Luncheon Served At Sterchi's.

The ladies of St. Mark's Methodist church, Circle No. 10, will sponsor a benefit luncheon, to be served in the Sterchi clubroom today, tomorrow and Thursday. A delicious home-cooked luncheon will be served, the menu changing daily.

Mrs. W. M. Graham will be the official hostess. The public is cordially invited. The price per plate will be 35 cents.

Mrs. Thornwell Will Preside At Junior League Meeting Today

Mrs. Allison Thornwell, president of Atlanta Junior League for 1932-33, who presides at the October meeting of the League, to be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Piedmont Driving Club. She was elected to this important office last spring, and will make an efficient and constructive president. Mrs. Thornwell possesses executive ability, is exceedingly capable, and is one of the most popular members of the organization. Photo by Asano.

JUNIOR LEAGUE JOTTINGS

Members of the Atlanta Junior League will gather this afternoon at the Piedmont Driving Club at 3 o'clock, at which time a variety of promising plans for the coming months will be discussed. As the Junior League year is thus launched, a feeling of confidence will pervade the meeting because of the unusually able and enthusiastic officers presiding today. Seated on the rostrum will be our president, Mrs. Allison Thornwell, who won her spurs last year as chairman of the clothing for the needy campaign, and the new year books will be available to all Junior Leaguers desiring one. Everybody is asked to volunteer for the various committees already organized, which are as follows: Hospital, welfare, marionettes, arts and interests, children's play, placement bureau and Community Chest.

In order to refresh Junior League memories a complete list of all committee chairmen serving on our 1932-33 board of directors is given below: Mrs. Claude McGinnis Jr., hospital; Mrs. William Fulghum, welfare; Mrs. Parks Hunt, placement bureau; Mrs. Clark Howell Jr., Community Chest; Miss Margaret Nelson, arts and interests; Mrs. Murdoch Eques, marionettes; Mrs. Green Warren, children's plays; Miss Anne Wynne Fleming, publicity; Miss Palmer Dallis, historian; Mrs. Joseph Cooper, Junior League magazine, and Mrs. Henry Grady Jr., Junior League jottings; finance committee, Mrs. Turner Jones; Mrs. John Knox, Mrs. R. L. Foreman Jr., Mrs. C. H. Harris Jr. and Mrs. Allison Thornwell.

Junior Leaguers are requested to bring to the meeting this afternoon any discarded clothing, particularly shoes and garments suitable for school children of all ages. The need is already great among the unemployed and we are sure the Junior League will answer to this appeal.

Miss Rebekah Tarrance Weds Mr. Weaver

An impressive ceremony Sunday at 10:30 o'clock at the First Methodist church united in marriage Miss Rebekah Tarrance and James Max Weaver in the presence of a small group of relatives and close friends. Dr. Samuel T. Senter performed the ceremony. The altar was decorated with palms and floral garlands of white chrysanthemums. During the ceremony music was softly played on the organ by Mrs. W. H. L. Nelms.

The bride entered with her father, Mr. W. Tarrance, by whom she was given in marriage, and the bridegroom had his brother, S. J. Weaver, of Chattanooga, Tenn., as best man. The bride wore a suit of brown broadcloth trimmed with white ermine, which was becoming to her brunette beauty. Her accessories were of brown. She wore a shoulder bouquet of sweethearts and valley lilies.

Mrs. M. W. Tarrance, mother of the bride, wore a model of black and white crepe. Her shoulder spray was of pink roses and valley lilies. Mrs. T. B. Johnson, mother of the bridegroom, wore an attractive model of black and white crepe and had a shoulder spray of pink roses and valley lilies. Following the ceremony the couple left for a motor trip along the coast and on their return they will reside at 827 Cumberland road.

Habersham Garden Club Makes Plans.

The Habersham Garden Club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Walter Colquhoun on Habersham road.

Among matters of discussion was the new project for the coming year, the beautifying of a block of the parkway on Peachtree Battle avenue at the entrance to Habersham road. The club had as its guest and speaker Mrs. Malcolm Dewey, who with her husband, Dr. Dewey, of Emory University, spent six months abroad last summer. She told of her visits to gardens in Italy, France and England.

Miss Lowe Feted.

Miss Barbara Lowe, popular member of the Debutante Club, was honor guest Sunday at the tea at which Misses Peggy Poindexter and Irene Curtis were hostesses at the home of the latter at 1050 Ponce de Leon avenue.

Mrs. Hugh Carter Jr. and Mrs. Martin Kilpatrick presided at the tea and coffee tables and others assisting were Misses Elsie Preter, Sara Law, Jane Dillon and Mary Phillips Orme.

SOCIETY EVENTS

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4.

The marriage of Miss Mary Ansley and William Howland will take place at 11 o'clock at the Decatur Presbyterian church.

Mrs. J. N. Harper will be hostess at luncheon at her home on Fifteenth street, honoring Miss Ellen Newell.

Mrs. Kenyon Zahner will entertain the members of the decoration committee of the Young Matrons' Circle of Tallulah Falls and guests at a conference tea at her home on Peachtree Battle avenue.

Atlanta Music Club will entertain at an evening reception at the Atlanta Woman's Club, following the concert in the club auditorium.

Members of the Joseph Habersham Chapter, D. A. R., entertain at a bridge-luncheon at the chapter house on Fifteenth street at 12 o'clock.

Azalea Garden Club sponsors a fall flower show from 3 to 9 o'clock at the home of Mrs. George Coates, 1374 Emory road.

Mr. and Mrs. Kearsley Selden and Miss Caroline Selden will entertain at a buffet supper this evening at their home on Walker terrace.

Pioneer Society.

Women's Pioneer Society meets Wednesday, October 5, at 3 o'clock at the Henry Grady hotel. A program has been arranged and an invitation is extended to all pioneer women and their daughters to this first fall meeting.

terrace, honoring Miss Ellen Newell and Wright Bryan.

Circle No. X of St. Mark's Missionary Society, Mrs. W. M. Graham, chairman, will serve luncheon at Sterchi's tea room, 116 Whitehall street, from 11 to 2 o'clock.

Women's Auxiliary of Wesley Memorial hospital sponsors a lecture on "Care of Infants and Children" at 2:30 o'clock in the hospital auditorium.

Fulton Rebekah Lodge No. 14 will have a cake walk and card party at the Red Men's wigwam this evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. A. J. Woodruff, president of Agnes Lee Chapter U. D. C., entertains at luncheon at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue, honoring the executive board members.

Mrs. Eugene E. Elmore will be hostess at tea from 3 to 5 o'clock at her home on Peachtree road for the benefit of Inman Park Methodist church.

Beta Phi Alpha sorority of Oglethorpe University entertains the ushers at a fashion show tea from 4 to 6 o'clock in Sterchi's club room.

Stewards of First Methodist Church Honored at Pinebloom

Preston S. Arkwright and Dr. Samuel T. Senter pastor of the First Methodist church, entertained the senior board of stewards of the church and Preston S. Arkwright Jr. was host to the associate stewards at a dinner at 8 o'clock last evening at Pinebloom, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arkwright on Ponce de Leon avenue. Mrs. Preston Arkwright, assisted by Mrs. Senter, and a group of eight ladies, received the guests and assisted in entertaining and in serving.

Following the dinner Alfred C. Newell, chairman of the senior board, called a meeting to discuss important business. Two tables were placed in the dining room for members of the senior board, one of which was set with crystal and the other with red Bohemian glass. A striking color scheme was carried out, each table being centered with an artistic arrangement of red dahlias and yellow lilies, flanked by yellow burning tapers.

In the sun room covers were placed for the associate stewards at two tables, which were set with green crystal and covered with damask cloths of butterscup yellow. Bowls of mulberry-toned cosmos and yellow gladioli decorated each table.

The board of stewards, of which Mr. Newell is chairman, and Judge Luther Z. Rosser is vice chairman, includes the following prominent Atlantans: Preston S. Arkwright, V. O. Alston, R. L. Avery, Andrew Calhoun, Frank Carter, J. W. Clayton, Judge Walter T. Colquhoun, Frank E. Davis, W. C. Drake, Walter H. Ellis, W. H. Flowers, Bayne Gibson, C. J. Haden, Jeff Hanna, G. H. Holliday, Dr. B. O. Holtzendorf, W. H. Lawson, Dr. H. M. Lokey, Robert F. Maddox, Addison Maupin, Norman C. Miller, R. Lee Miller, J. R. Mobley, Vaughn Nixon, Gordon Parish, R. K. Rambo, Dr. C. A. Rhodes, G. W. Rowbotham, W. C. Royer, C. B. Shelton, Charles E. Sheppard, John M. Slaton Jr., Palmer J. Smith, Robert Strickland Jr., E. W. Sturdivant, J. B. Swann, F. E. Thomas, Lee Turman, Dr. Witherspoon Wallace, W. A. Ward, Dr. W. A. White, C. R. Ware and Charles T. Winship.

Bridge-Luncheon.

Joseph Habersham, D. A. R., sponsors a bridge-luncheon today at 12:30 o'clock at the chapter house on Fifteenth street, with Mrs. J. N. Brawner, the regent, in charge. Many prizes will be played for, among them being a large ham and home-made cakes. Players are requested to take cards, score cards and pencils.

Tuesday - Fashion Day at Rich's

Be Beautifully Furred in FOX

Blue Fox combined with a Forstmann flat crepe rough woolen $78

Rhum Brown Nuvela crepe with Blue Fox collar and trimmed sleeves $78

A distinctive combination of Nuvela in Rhum Brown and Beige Fox $78 and feel the elegance and charm of a luxurious pelt that has been draped and moulded by master furriers. Combined with the inimitable Forstmann's Woolens and designed by famous couturiers, Fox Furs become the elite of all-coat fashions. Versatility is also a point to be considered as Fox trimmed coats may be worn with equal assurance both to the football game and semi-formal evening affairs.

Coats—Third Floor

Models in the Tea Room from 12 M. to 2 P. M.

RICH'S
INCORPORATED

Taking Chances With Accidents Is a Bad, Unnecessary Hazard

Because fame and wealth were his, if he won, Charles Lindbergh took a big chance—and won.

Are you taking chances with the ever-mounting accident wave? If so, you're knowing everything without a chance at winning anything.

You know how men and women are "struck down every day in Atlanta and throughout Georgia and the south-east, and left maimed or killed. You know that your time may come today or tomorrow or next week.

How will you fare if you are not insured and your income abruptly halts? What will be the future of your wife and children or those dependent on you if you are killed?

Be wise! Stop being negligent and indifferent! Insure yourself and do that today. The cheapest and most efficient insurance is offered you by The Atlantic Constitution.

The Constitution offers you the famous travel accident policy issued by the North American Accident Insurance Company of Chicago. This insurance is offered to subscribers and immediate dependent members of a subscriber's family between the ages of 15 and 60 on the one subscription going into that home at the small registration fee of $1 each per policy per year.

The policy The Constitution offers you provides for payment of sums ranging downward from $10,000 for travel, $1,000 for auto and pedestrian deaths resulting from certain specified accidents, heavy sums for permanent injuries, and $10 weekly indemnity for total disability resulting from the accidents set forth in the policy. All this for only $1 registration fee—just about 2 cents a week.

The policy is issued by the North American Accident Insurance Company of Chicago, Ill. The reliability of this concern is proved by the fact that already more than $150,000 in cash has been paid on claims to Constitution policy holders.

This insurance is offered to old and new subscribers alike. One who is now taking the daily and Sunday Constitution, or will subscribe for it through carrier in Atlanta or suburbs, through an out-of-town carrier or dealer, paying for the paper weekly, monthly, or otherwise, is a subscriber and is eligible.

Aid-in-advance mail subscribers can also have this insurance by paying the small registration fee of $1 in addition to the subscription price. Those living in Atlanta and suburbs finding it inconvenient to pay the $1 registration fee in advance can pay 20 cents registration fee with the application and 20 cents for 3 consecutive weeks thereafter in addition to the subscription price.

In sending application for insurance the applicant must state name in full, give age and occupation, and if beneficiary is desired, the full Christian name of the beneficiary must be given and relationship to the insured.

Policeman Climbs High on Bridge To Talk Aged Man Out of Suicide

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Clinging to a precarious perch on a steel cable of the Manhattan bridge, 200 feet above the East river, a policeman today talked an aged and discouraged man out of the idea of committing suicide.

George Kennedy, 65, who described himself as "homeless, jobless, sick and worn out and tired of life," had climbed almost to the top of the 200-foot cable when he was spotted by Traffic Policemen George Perkins and Joseph Lopresti.

The two policemen started in pursuit, Perkins overtaking the would-be suicide about six feet from the top, with Lopresti not far behind.

Fearful that the man would jump, Perkins engaged him in casual conversation.

"Have you a cigarette?" he asked. "No," the man replied, "I don't smoke."

Other casual conversation followed, and then Perkins asked, "are you hungry?"

When the man replied he hadn't had any food in two days, the patrolman holding onto the cable with one hand reached into his pocket and extracted all the money he had—80 cents—where he handed it towards Kennedy.

At the same time he got a firm grip on the man and induced him to climb down, that he would be fed and cared for.

After making their hazardous descent the two policemen took Kennedy to the precinct station where he was fed and later had him removed to Kings County hospital.

HATHAWAY PLANS ATLANTA ADDRESS

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Clarence Hathaway, campaign manager for the communist party, left Sunday for a tour of the southern states to fulfill engagements for William Z. Foster, the party's candidate for president.

Foster is still confined to bed by illness.

Hathaway's route includes: Tuesday, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Wednesday, Memphis, Saturday, New Orleans; October 9, Birmingham; October 11, Atlanta; October 13, Tampa.

FORMER OUTLAW SLAIN IN FIGHT OVER HOUSE

LAUREL, Miss., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Tom Boutwell, former convict, described by authorities here as a one-time notorious outlaw who for many years terrorized Jones county and whose name was linked with more than a dozen killings, was shot and killed today in a dispute over a piece of real estate.

The shooting occurred at the home of Dave W. Bradley on Elveth avenue, where Bradley was occupying a house recently purchased by Boutwell. Bradley surrendered to deputies shortly after the killing, but declined to make a formal statement pending preliminary hearing.

SHOT FROM GUNS

no other way makes cereals so crisp . . . so nourishing

Puffed Wheat and Rice are crisply dainty, yet amazingly nutritious because every food cell is steam exploded.

Of all ready-to-serve cereals, Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice alone have been made completely digestible by being "shot from guns." This unique process causes 125 million explosions in every grain. Breaks open every tiny food cell.

Puffed Grains are so nourishing that a single dish with milk and sugar gives you as much energy as a baked potato or lamb chop. Try Puffed Wheat and Puffed Rice for breakfast, for a cooling lunch or supper.

Now "Twice-Crisped" Puffed Wheat-Puffed Rice

DORIS: Another lovely new slip, Rita! You must spend a small fortune on lingerie!

RITA: New!—why, I've washed it dozens of times. Don't you know how?

"EVERY single time you've worn your silk things—pop them into a bowl of Lux suds. Lux whisks out the perspiration acids that fade the color and rot the silk. All the odor vanishes, too. Your things look just like new and they last so much longer. It certainly pays to do all your nice things with Lux. As everybody knows, anything safe in water alone is safe in Lux."

LUX for underthings keeps them like new in spite of frequent washings

LONG ILLNESS FATAL

TO J. H. GLENN, 63

J. H. Glenn, 63, assistant to the chairman of the Southern Freight Tariff Bureau, died Monday morning at a private hospital. Mr. Glenn, who lived at 138 Adams street, Decatur, had been in failing health for three years.

Born in Huntsville, Ala., January 8, 1869, Mr. Glenn came to Atlanta in 1895. He was chairman of the Atlanta Freight Tariff Bureau until the merger with the larger organization. Mr. Glenn is survived by his wife; two daughters, Misses Georgianna and Catherine Glenn; two sons, John R. Glenn of West Point, Ga., and Walter H. Glenn of Spartanburg, S. C.; and a sister, Mrs. Walter C. Miller, of Huntsville, Ala.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon from Spring Hill. The Rev. D. P. McGeachy and the Rev. A. J. Moncrief Jr., will officiate. Interment will be in Decatur cemetery.

Poultrymen To Hold First Session Today

Poultry leaders from all over the United States and some parts of Canada are gathered in Atlanta for the opening day of the annual convention of the American Poultry Association, which will be held at the Piedmont hotel.

A pre-convention meeting of the board of directors of the association was held Monday at the Piedmont.

The sessions today are scheduled to hear addresses of welcome by Governor Richard B. Russell Jr. and Mayor James L. Key, and the response by the association. The report of committees and the president's address also are on today's program.

Many entertainment features are on the program and will be climaxed by a visit Wednesday to the Southeastern Fair, now in progress at Lakewood park, where a special program has been arranged.

Hoover Drive Mapped By G. O. P. Committee

Plans for a vigorous state campaign in behalf of President Hoover and Jam W. Arnold, of Athens, who is opposing Senator Charles F. McNary, were laid here Monday by the republican state central committee at a meeting at headquarters in the Piedmont hotel. Eight of the ten committee members were present.

Mr. Hoover, who is the national collector of internal revenue, presided in the absence of Mr. Arnold, who is national committeeman for the state.

"We are going to use every bit of power we possess in an effort to carry Georgia for Mr. Hoover and Mr. Arnold," Collector Rose said. "We may bring some noted national leaders of our party into the state before the conclusion of the campaign."

Marietta Motorists Get Gas for 16 Cents

Marietta motorists Monday were enjoying 16-cent gasoline as the result of an effort of the big oil companies to frustrate an attempt of private independent operators to grab a majority of the gas and oil business.

The major companies announced their new schedule of 16 cents for regular and 19 cents for high test gas after an independent operator on the Atlanta highway started his price at 15 cents. As a result the independent operator Monday cut prices to 15 1/2 cents for regular, and three cents more for high test.

Whether larger companies intended to meet this price could not be learned through the Standard Oil office in Atlanta, issued a terse statement saying that "would meet the prices of all competitors."

Inasmuch as the price-cutting was started by a company which operates in Marietta exclusively, it was not expected that the "war" would spread to Atlanta.

4 SHOT ACCIDENTALLY WHILE CAPTURING THUG

FLINT, Mich., Oct. 3.—(AP)—A hand was shot and killed today in a posse were wounded by the accidental discharge of a shotgun today during the long-running gun fight on the outskirts of this city.

The bandit, unidentified, was shot as he sped in his automobile along the highway after returning the fire of state police who had been advised by radio of his approach. His car crashed into a telephone pole and was dented.

The four persons were wounded when the shotgun of James Smith, state police officer, accidentally discharged when he picked it up from the pavement near the wrecked car.

The bandit was sought for a series of lunch-steal and garage hold-ups in the highway between Pontiac and Flint.

CAROLINA OFFICIAL SHOOTSELF TO DEATH

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 3.—(AP)—S. E. Cornwell, treasurer of Mecklenburg county, shot himself to death in the courthouse here today.

Cornwell, 45, said the shooting was a clear case of suicide.

No motive was immediately advanced either by Hovis or by friends of Cornwell.

DR. HARRY HILLSTROM DIES IN NASHVILLE

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Dr. Harry Hillstrom, assistant professor of radiology at the Vanderbilt University School of Medicine, died today at Vanderbilt hospital as the result of complications following injuries received August 15 in an automobile accident near Springfield, Ill.

The body will be taken to his former home in Minneapolis for burial.

JOHN C. FLEMING

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—(AP)—John C. Fleming, original designer of the Carnegie building, is dead at 89.

As a two-year-old infant he was brought here by his mother, Mrs. Fleming, who was from Alabama. After entering the steel business with Carnegie he remained an officer of the company until it became a part of the United States Steel Company. At that time he retired and had lived here with a granddaughter, Mrs. A. F. Gartz.

FRED M. LAXTON

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Fred M. Laxton, widely known as an engineer and several times an amateur golf champion of the Carolinas, died here today.

He was the only man to win the Carolina's title three times.

DR. W. A. PUCKNER

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Dr. W. A. Puckner, 66, for 20 years secretary of the council on character and chemistry of the American Medical Association, is dead. He died Saturday in a hospital after an illness of three months.

Dr. Puckner became blind in 1909, but carried on the council's work in the examination of new drugs. He was born in New Holstein, Wis., and was a member of the American Academy at the University of Illinois.

PROF. MAX WOLF

HEIDELBERG, Germany, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Professor Max Wolf, director of the Konigsstuhl observatory and noted specialist in spectrum analysis and celestial photography, died today, aged 69.

He discovered the "America nebula" in the constellation of Cygnus in 1891.

Personal Intelligence

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fromson announce the birth of a daughter September 29, who has been given the name Dorothy Gloria.

Hugh Mac Rae, of Wilmington, N. C., and Mrs. E. W. Long, of Jasper, Ala., are at the Georgian Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wathen are at the Hotel Harrington in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Claude B. Huley is convalescing at her home, 275 Norwood avenue, Kirkwood, after a recent operation at Wesley hospital.

Mrs. James Harrison is the guest of Mrs. Callaway Brock in Florence, Alabama.

Mrs. Harry I. Davis and Mrs. James D. Robinson are at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York.

Mrs. Nancy H. McCalland, Miss Betty Healy, Miss Annette Healy, A. W. Newman, M. S. Newman, Miss Pearl Newman, of New York; J. D. Keller, St. Louis, Mo.; H. H. Swift, Theodore McGee, of Columbus, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Kays, Baton Rouge, La.; Miss Mary R. Kennedy, Flushing, Long Island; G. R. Cushing, Jacksonville, Fla.; Miss Ruth Murray, Montclair, N. J.; George W. Dolan, Washington, D. C.; R. H. Watson, Pelham Manor, N. Y.; George Nichols, Hartford, Conn.; M. J. Taylor, Kansas City, Mo., are at the Biltmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Heidenreich left yesterday for a week's stay in Washington, D. C., after which Mrs. Heidenreich will visit her sister, Miss Rosalie Howell, and her niece, Miss Adelaide Howell, in New York.

Mrs. T. T. Stevens and her sister, Mrs. N. A. Gillis, of Charlotte, N. C., are at the Henry Grady hotel, having returned from a two-week visit to relatives at their former home near Mobile, Ala. Mrs. Gillis leaves tomorrow for her home in North Carolina and Mrs. Stevens will remain in Atlanta during the forthcoming week. She expects to return to Miami, Fla., to spend the winter, having lived in Florida for several winters.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrard Haines have returned to Savannah after spending the week-end at the Biltmore.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Hartridge, of Savannah, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Mallory at their home on Brighton road in Brookwood Hills. They motored to Atlanta from Savannah last Saturday.

Mrs. R. B. Godley Jr. returns the latter part of the week from New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Raine have returned to Nashville, Tenn., after spending several days in Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Newton have taken possession of their apartment at Peachtree and Sixteenth streets.

Mrs. Geddings Tupper has returned to her home in New Orleans, La., after spending several days in Atlanta.

Mrs. John H. Raine is spending this month at the Atlanta Biltmore.

Miss Carolyn Crumley left Saturday for Savannah, where she will attend the social affairs given in connection with the Miss Natchez contest. Dr. Paul Witt, who is in Savannah, will be a brilliant social event of Saturday, October 15. Miss Crumley, who has often visited Miss Crumley, has last season in Savannah society last season is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Julian Chisholm. The wedding takes place at the Independent church and will be followed by a reception to be held at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. Chisholm on East Gaston street.

Dr. and Mrs. Lee Bivings and Miss Nettie Lou Witt have returned from Belle Meade, Ala.

Dr. and Mrs. Cary B. Wilmer are occupying the home of Bishop and Mrs. John Durham Wing on Lookout Mountain, Tenn., for several weeks. They had the week-end guests of their son, Cary B. Wilmer Jr., and Mike May.

Misses Beth Durham and Nancy Allen, of Chattanooga, spent the week-end in Atlanta.

Garnett Austin, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Austin, of Atlanta, Tenn., has entered the Southern Dental College as a freshman. Montgomery Montague accompanied him to Atlanta to attend a football game.

Bernard K. Finkel, of New York city, who has been visiting in Chattanooga, Tenn., Savannah and Cedar town, making his home in Atlanta with his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. Beerman, of 10 Delta place.

Miss Ida Nisslen leaves Wednesday for San Rafael, Cal., to reside with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Roth.

Mrs. George W. Connors, of Birmingham, Ala., arrived Saturday to visit her daughter, Mrs. John W. Grant Jr., at her home on Chatham road.

Fred Eve, of Montgomery, Ala., formerly of Atlanta, was a guest of his uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. Robert G. Stephens, at their home on Linwood avenue.

Mesdames Edgar Alexander and David Mitchell and Miss Stella Aiken leave Tuesday for Macon, where they will attend the state democratic meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Henry Bewick and daughter, Miss Eloise Robinson Dickey, have taken possession of the former home of Dr. and Mrs. Michael Hoke on Peachtree circle.

Noel Hurt Jr., of New York, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Willie Martin Hurt, at her home on Piedmont avenue.

Mrs. Carl Ramspeck has returned from Denver, Colo., where she visited relatives.

Mrs. Samuel H. Orr and Mr. and Mrs. John Orr, of Nashville, Tenn., arrived yesterday to attend the wedding of Miss Mary A. Orr and William S. Howland, in which Mr. Orr will serve as best man. During their stay Mrs. Orr and Mr. and Mrs. John Orr will be at the Biltmore hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Atkinson return to Atlanta this week after the absence of several months at their summer home in North Hatley, Quebec, Canada. Their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Jackson Dick, and sons, Jackson Dick Jr. and Harry Atkinson Dick, who visited them in North Hatley during the summer, have returned to Atlanta.

Judge Rufus E. Foster, judge of the United States court of appeals in New Orleans, La., and Mrs. Foster are at the Piedmont hotel for two weeks.

Miss Marjorie McLeod, of Galveston, Texas, formerly of Atlanta, is spending several days here as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Claiborne Glover. She motored to Atlanta from Texas and will remain here during her visit in Atlanta is concluded.

BUSINESS REVIVAL IN SOUTH IS SOUGHT

Every business executive in the sixth federal reserve district is to be reached by the plans which Atlanta's George Swann is working out for the industrial rehabilitation committee.

A. W. Robertson is chairman of the great industrial zone within the sixth federal district are being named; these zone chairmen, in turn, will "divide" their territory into improved districts, picking as their district leaders those men who see the "enlightened self-interest" in preparing now to meet the future with modernized plants.

The zone chairmen who have accepted Mr. Swann's invitation to date are: L. V. Roberts Jr., president of Robert & Co., Atlanta, Ga., vice chairman for the sixth federal reserve district; Paul J. Krueci, president of the Georgia Electric & Manufacturing Co., Atlanta, Ga.; George H. Baldwin, the Bixbee-Baldwin Corporation, Jacksonville, Fla.; A. M. Lockett, president of the Lockett & Co. Co., New Orleans, La.; Robert Gregg, vice president in charge of sales, the Tennessee Coal, Iron & Railroad Company, Birmingham, Ala.; J. Meyer, manager of Southern Products Company, Savannah, Ga., and Wallace B. Rogers, Eastman, Gardiner & Co., Laurel, Md. Other zone chairmen will be announced as soon as their acceptances are received by Mr. Swann.

The committee on industrial rehabilitation was organized by the banking and industrial committee which President Hoover called into being in Washington last August to aid in developing agencies calculated to stimulate a revival in business over the nation. A. W. Robertson, of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company, was appointed national chairman at that time.

The primary object of this committee is to set in motion a succession of orders for improved equipment and machinery, which, in turn, is calculated to start a wave of employment, both in production of raw materials, in processing them in transportation, in installation—a wave which undoubtedly will be felt throughout all branches of business and by farm, forest and mine.

Showers Forecast For Atlanta Today

Cloudy skies and probable showers are on the weather menu for today, despite the fact that a fair is in prospect for the first time in several weeks today. At 4:30 p. m. Margie Ballard and Dolly Jernigan have been singing as a team over WGST for just about a year and they bid fair to sing many more months if the enthusiasm of their audiences is the barometer of their popularity. On their program today is the new syncopated melody, "Me, Minnie You."

Graham Jackson, known to Atlanta as a pianist extraordinary, surprises some of his most enthusiastic fans by his ability as an organist. Every morning from 7 to 7:30 o'clock Graham plays the organ from the Fox theater, the broadcast coming to you through the remote control facilities of WGST.

Willis and Allen, WGST's two-piano team, who have been making personal appearances and taking a vacation from the microphone, return tonight at 9:45 for their air engagements. This pop team will broadcast every Tuesday at this time.

The overture to the Massenet opera "Thaïs" will be the outstanding contribution to the concert by the Columbia Symphony orchestra to be broadcast under the direction of Howard Barlow tonight from 10 to 10:30 over the Columbia network and through WGST. This work reveals the deep sympathy of the composer for the spirit of the Greek drama and clearly expresses the emotions which animate the tragic figure of the play. Like Massenet, Massenet sought to humanize and interpret the Sophoclean Phaedra, interpreting her problems and sufferings into the nineteenth century perspective. Including the second movement from Mendelssohn's "Italian" Symphony, the program will be completed with Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance" march, Liszt's "Liebestraum," "Gavotte" by Lully, and the Polka from "Smetana's" "Bartered Bride."

The entire ensemble of the Charles Musical Review, including Ben Alley and Helen Nugent, "Sweethearts of the Air" on Last at the organ and Mark Warnow's string trio, will join in offering the latest Irving Berlin hit, "Say It Isn't So," and a medley of tunes from the musical comedy, "Springtime Here," during their Columbia broadcast through WGST today at 1:15 p. m. Solo offerings will include an organ version of "Mood Indigo," played by Ann Leaf, and Ben Alley's tenor solo, "I'll Never Have to Dream Again." The instrumental specialty will feature Miss Leaf and the trio playing Gosses' "Gavotte." Dorothy Chase's short fashion talk will complete the program.

Arthur Tracy, the Street Singer, the exquisite music by Nat Shilkret's Salon orchestra and Norman Brokenbush's individual introductions, are features of the "Music That Satisfies" program tonight at 8 o'clock. Tracy has included in tonight's program "Oh, Promise Me."

DUEL OF AMERICAN, 2 FRENCHMEN MYSTERY

PARIS, Oct. 3.—(AP)—Attempts were made today to uncover the identity of a former American soldier who was reported to have shot and wounded two Frenchmen in duels last month.

Paris newspaper reporters have been hunting day and night to uncover the identities of the principals in the romantic events, which were said to have occurred over the honor of a woman.

Dr. James Sparks, commander of the American Legion department of France, said the story was true and he would clear up the mystery with even the slightest hint.

Dr. Sparks, however, said the more seriously wounded of the two Frenchmen now had a chance to recover and it would be unlikely the American would be charged with murder under the anti-duelling law.

ly to be the worst of this depression. The state relief administration supported the call with a significant figure, noting an increase in those aided in the late summer.

'Franklin Roosevelt Highway' Will Greet Nominee in Georgia

Plans for marking the "Franklin Roosevelt highway," from Atlanta to Columbus with a branch to Warm Springs, before the arrival here of Presidential Candidate Roosevelt, on October 17, were announced Monday by Mrs. J. R. Terrell, of Greenville, wife of Judge J. R. Terrell, former state senator.

Mrs. Terrell, who suggested the new name for the highway before the Chicago convention of the democrats, said that plans now are being made to name the highway from Warm Springs to Washington, via Atlanta, the "Franklin Roosevelt highway."

At a conference last Saturday at Marketa, Meriwether, Harris and Muscogee counties probably will be put in their places by the maintenance department of the state highway department. Mrs. Terrell said, Meriwether county is planning to replace the temporary markers later with enduring shafts of Meriwether county granite.

At a conference last Saturday at Warm Springs, the state forestry department promised co-operation in beautifying the highway. Mrs. Terrell said, Civic bodies and women's clubs this winter will begin planting spots around the markers, Mrs. Terrell said.

On the Radio Waves Today

Ansley Hotel WGST 890 Kc.

7:00 A. M.—Graham Jackson organ.

7:30—Morning Melodies.

7:45—Rogers, Inc.

8:00—Buddy Harrod's orchestra, CBS.

8:15—Melody Parade, CBS.

8:30—Tony Wons, "Are You Listening?" CBS.

8:45—Christian Council of Atlanta.

9:00—Clara Lutz and his orchestra, CBS.

9:15—Helen Board, soprano, CBS.

9:45—United States Navy band concert, CBS.

10:00—News.

10:15—Woman's Information Bureau.

10:30—Burlingame McCannell, CBS.

10:45—Vincent Soria's orchestra, CBS.

11:00—Buddy Harrod's orchestra, CBS.

11:30—Columbia revue, CBS.

12:00—George Hall and his Hotel Taft orchestra, CBS.

12:30 P. M.—Atlantic City Musical, CBS.

1:00—Columbia salon orchestra, CBS.

1:15—Charles Melodies: Ann Leaf, Dorothy Chase and co-stars, CBS.

1:30—Boston popular revue, CBS.

1:45—George Hall's orchestra, CBS.

2:00—Meet the artist, CBS.

2:15—Gloria Arnold, pianist, CBS.

2:30—Tuneful Townsies.

2:45—Boston popular revue, CBS.

3:00—Concert Events, H. V. Kallstrom, CBS.

3:15—Jack and Duan, CBS.

3:30—Jack Miller's orchestra, CBS.

3:45—Howard Barlow and the Columbia symphony, CBS.

4:00—The Madison Singers, CBS.

4:15—News.

4:30—John Keirish, Irish tenor, CBS.

4:45—Graham Jackson, pianist.

5:00—Village Nutcracker.

5:15—Rudy Brown orchestra.

5:30—Gypsy Music Makers, CBS.

5:45—The Village Nutcracker.

6:00—Jay C. Filippucci, CBS.

6:15—Charles Carille, CBS.

6:30—Howard Barlow and the Columbia symphony, CBS.

6:45—The Madison Singers, CBS.

7:00—News.

7:15—John Keirish, Irish tenor, CBS.

7:30—Graham Jackson, pianist.

7:45—Village Nutcracker.

8:00—Rudy Brown orchestra.

8:15—Gypsy Music Makers, CBS.

8:30—The Village Nutcracker.

8:45—Jay C. Filippucci, CBS.

9:00—Charles Carille, CBS.

9:15—Howard Barlow and the Columbia symphony, CBS.

9:30—The Madison Singers, CBS.

9:45—News.

10:00—John Keirish, Irish tenor, CBS.

10:15—Graham Jackson, pianist.

10:30—Village Nutcracker.

10:45—Rudy Brown orchestra.

11:00—Gypsy Music Makers, CBS.

11:15—The Village Nutcracker.

11:30—Jay C. Filippucci, CBS.

11:45—Charles Carille, CBS.

12:00—Howard Barlow and the Columbia symphony, CBS.

12:15—The Madison Singers, CBS.

12:30—News.

Biltmore Hotel WSB 740 Kc.

6:35 A. M.—"Another Day."

7:00—News.

7:15—Piano interlude.

7:30—Charles Melodies, CBS.

8:00—Morning program, NBC.

8:15—Top of the Morning, NBC.

8:30—Vic and Sade, comedy sketch, NBC.

8:45—Nothing But the Truth, NBC.

9:00—Coca-Cola Hospitality.

9:15—Clara Lutz and his orchestra, NBC.

9:30—Hur Du Food, NBC.

9:45—News.

10:00—Fridgidaire, NBC.

10:15—Household Tattler, NBC.

10:30—Through the Looking Glass, NBC.

10:45—Sixteen Hamlets, NBC.

11:00—Johnny Martin, NBC.

11:15—Fargo program.

11:30—Charles Melodies, CBS.

11:45—Vic and Sade, comedy sketch, NBC.

12:00 P. M.—College of Agriculture.

1:00—Charles Melodies, CBS.

1:15—Vocal art quartet, NBC.

1:30—Carrolla Tarbell, CBS.

1:45—News.

2:00—Brown Palace orchestra, NBC.

2:15—Charles Melodies, CBS.

2:30—Wilson's orchestra, NBC.

2:45—The Lady Next Door, NBC.

3:00—Fridgidaire, NBC.

3:15—Garden Melodies, NBC.

3:30—State Avarter Kent audition.

3:45—News.

4:00—Midweek hymn sing, NBC.

4:15—The Regimentalists, NBC.

4:30—Edgar Hoover, NBC.

4:45—Charles Melodies, CBS.

5:00—Baltica time.

5:15—You and Your Government, NBC.

5:30—Concert hour.

5:45—The Singers Three.

6:00—Howard Barlow and the Columbia symphony, NBC.

6:15—Lucky Strike hour, NBC.

6:30—Concert hour, NBC.

6:45—Baltica time, NBC.

7:00—News.

7:15—NBC concert orchestra, NBC.

7:30—Charles Melodies, CBS.

7:45—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

8:00—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

8:15—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

8:30—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

8:45—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

9:00—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

9:15—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

9:30—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

9:45—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

10:00—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

10:15—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

10:30—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

10:45—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

11:00—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

11:15—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

11:30—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

11:45—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

12:00—Hotel New Yorker orchestra, NBC.

On the Air

The Tuneful Twosome, personality harmonizers, return to the WGST airwaves for the first time in several weeks today at 4:30 p. m. Margie Ballard and Dolly Jernigan have been singing as a team over WGST for just about a year and they bid fair to sing many more months if the enthusiasm of their audiences is the barometer of their popularity. On their program today is the new syncopated melody, "Me, Minnie You."

PRINCESS HELEN CHARGES CAROL WITH PERSECUTION

LONDON, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The Daily Mail tonight published a story under the name of G. Ward Price, noted war correspondent and author, quoting Princess Helen, of Rumania, as charging her former husband, King Carol, with "persecution and bad faith."

The princess was quoted as saying the king's ill treatment was culminated by his decision to recall himself from exile in London. The king had been visiting his mother for two weeks.

Princess Helen was quoted as saying the king was resentful of his position and that she had been told her son could remain with her six weeks, an order was issued to return to Rumania within the last few days.

The Daily Mail said Princess Helen had been threatened with the prospect of never seeing her son again. She was represented as saying she had reluctantly abandoned her intention never to talk of her troubles for quotation.

She hoped public opinion may help preserve for her the right to claim as a mother who has been treated with cruel heartlessness, and whose palace has come to an end." Princess Helen was quoted as saying.

DR. HARRY HILLSTROM DIES IN NASHVILLE

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 3.—(AP)—Dr. Harry Hillstrom, assistant professor of radiology at the Vanderbilt University School of Medicine, died today at Vanderbilt hospital as the result of complications following injuries received August 15 in an automobile accident near Springfield, Ill.

The body will be taken to his former home in Minneapolis for burial.

JOHN C. FLEMING

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—(AP)—John C. Fleming, original designer of the Carnegie building, is dead at 89.

As a two-year-old infant he was brought here by his mother, Mrs. Fleming, who was from Alabama. After entering the steel business with Carnegie he remained an officer of the company until it became a part of the United States Steel Company. At that time he retired and had lived here with a granddaughter, Mrs. A. F. Gartz.

Miss Walker and Miss Hanger Join 1932-33 Debutante Club

Miss Emily Walker, beautiful young daughter of Mrs. Pressley Walker, and Miss Theresa Hanger, attractive daughter of Mrs. Herbert Hanger, are new members of the 1932-33 Debutante Club. It was announced at the meeting of the club held yesterday at the Piedmont Driving Club. Miss Walker, who is of the extreme brunette type, is slender with a graceful bearing, and has been an acknowledged belle at dances for the younger contingent. Following her graduation from Girls' High school, this ambitious deb took a business course and this winter will combine her social activities with a business position at which she is an efficient worker. She is the second daughter of her mother, and a sister of Mrs. Preston Stevens.

Miss Hanger resided in Washington, D. C., for a number of years and attended St. Genevieve's school at Asheville, N. C., before coming to Atlanta, where she graduated in June. This debutante only returned to Atlanta last week after spending the summer at Wrightsville Beach, N. C., and later visiting in Washington. Parties for these belles will be announced later.

Plans were discussed for the Halloween ball, which will mark the formal opening of the fall season at the Piedmont Driving Club and the initial bow of the debutantes. This brilliant affair is scheduled for Monday evening, October 31, with dinner to be served at 8 o'clock. Striking decorations suggestive of the holiday will be used and the large table at which all the debutantes, with two escorts each, will be seated will be the cynosure of all eyes.

FRIENDLY COUNSEL

BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD,

Perhaps you haven't heard many letters from women of 80 years. But I want to tell you of an incident that happened to me on the train not long ago. Traveling on the train my companion was a man of 45 who sat down by me and poured out his heart to me. He turned out to be the son of one of my childhood friends and consequently my interest in him was intensified. He had devoted his life to business and has amassed a fortune. But he is terribly unhappy because he is lonely and hungry for love. He said he had never met a girl that appealed to him as having the qualifications he desired for his wife. He wanted an old-fashioned girl, mature in her mind, yet young in years. A girl that would be a companion to him, one who didn't drink or smoke or indulge in any of the pastimes of the so-called modern girl. Here is a man alone in the world and, though rich in money, he is poor in heart. He has given his life to business and now he finds that it is not possible to fill his life with business. Can't you write an article on the subject of how many people are starved for love while it is the one thing that everybody ought to have and the one thing everybody can get. Yet there are thousands hungry. Even at this ripe old age I would like to be instrumental in helping some to find love.

J. S.

ANSWER:

What a charming letter and how strange it will sound to the world-weary disillusioned men and women who have lost faith in romance before

EXPERT HAIR CUTTER RETURNS TO CLAYTON'S

MR. JOHN WATSON

Expert hair cutter, formerly with the beauty shop at Rich's, Inc., invites his hundreds of customers to call on him at

CLAYTON'S BEAUTY SHOPPE
115 Hunter Street
WA. 1161 Near Whitehall

Most of us get what we go after in this world: be it affection, fame or fortune. The man that spends the best years of his life pursuing his fortune and then when youth has passed decided that he has made a mistake in ignoring the things of the spirit, is in the same position as the traveler that mistakes his way and pursues the wrong road for a good distance before he discovers his mistake. He has to double back to the point where the road forked. He may arrive at his destination but he won't get there in the same time that the other traveler gets there, nor will he be in such good condition when he arrives. He must also have second choice in accommodations, for "first come, first served" is the rule of life.

Most of the heart-hungry men in the world are those that have neglected the women. The heart-hungry women are similarly those that have been neglected by the men. In matters of love the men are the aggressors, naturally, historically, actually. Never waste sympathy on the heart-hungry rich bachelor, because the chances are that he has deliberately chosen the course that has led him to this state.

CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

Mrs. J. W. Gholston To Be Honor Guest At Meeting Today

Mrs. J. W. Gholston, of Comer, president of Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, will be the distinguished honor guest at the meeting of Atlanta Federation of Women's Clubs, at the meeting of the organization to be held today at the Capital City Club at 10:30 o'clock. Mrs. Gholston will speak on "Club Work of the Immediate Future," her speech incorporating the subjects that will relate to the movements to be undertaken looking toward club betterment. A notable visitor attending the meeting will be Mrs. T. T. Stevens, past president of Atlanta Federation of Women's Clubs, who is residing temporarily in Miami, Fla. More than 100 presidents of clubs composing the federation will outline the yearly program, and Mrs. R. Murdoch Walker, president of the organization, will preside at the meeting, and will call for a two-minute report from these presidents. Preceding luncheon Miss Nana Tucker, music chairman, will present Miss Minna Hecker, one of Atlanta's outstanding lyric sopranos, in vocal selections, with Miss Eda Bartholomew at the piano.

During luncheon Mrs. Norman Sharp, the program chairman, will introduce R. C. Mizell, whose talk on the tax problem, a vital question of today, will be a highlight of the meeting. Members of federated clubs are invited to attend the meeting and luncheon. For reservations call Mrs. A. L. Myers, Vernon 1505.

RAILROAD EMPLOYEES BACK REMEDIAL BODY

The Coolidge railroad remedial commission will have the full and complete support and co-operation of the railroad employees, W. H. Burnside, of Atlanta, a member of the organization committee of the National Association of Railroad Employees and Taxpayers, Monday informed Clark Howell, editor of The Constitution. Mr. Howell is a member of the recently appointed remedial commission, headed by former President Calvin Coolidge.

"There is no individual or group of individuals more vitally interested in the success of the commission than the railroad employees' association," Mr. Burnside told Mr. Howell. "The commission can count on us for any facts and figures we may be able to present."

Mr. Burnside, with O. W. Grealish, of Augusta, president of the Georgia Association of Railway Employees and Taxpayers, returned Sunday night from Chicago, where they assisted Friday and Saturday in organization of the national association which already comprises 31 states.

The organization committee which represented 21 widely scattered states, adopted a resolution praising the selection of Mr. Howell as a member of the Coolidge commission.

The commission appointed last week is composed of Mr. Coolidge, Bernard M. Baruch, vice chairman, former Governor Alfred E. Smith of New York, and Alexander H. Leake, president of the International Harvester Company and former chairman of the federal farm board, and Mr. Howell. It is expected to have its first meeting soon.

Floridan Kills Self.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Oct. 3.—(AP)—L. D. Robinson, 43, a plumber, died at a hospital here yesterday afternoon of what authorities said was a self-inflicted bullet wound. He left a note telling of ill health and failure to get a job.

President of Debutante Club To Make Formal Debut Nov. 8

Miss Frances Boykin, charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Boykin, will be formally presented to Atlanta society at the reception at which her mother will entertain Tuesday afternoon, November 8, at her home on West Andrews drive, to be followed in the evening by a supper to be given by her parents for the younger set. The afternoon affair will assemble a group of matrons, sub-debs and other young ladies, while the supper will be for the debutante set and younger contingent.

As president of the Debutante Club, Miss Boykin has been shown the sincere regard of her contemporaries and she is admirably fitted for this position. She will lead the parade of sport cars to Lakewood today at 2:30 o'clock, which is being sponsored by the Southeastern Fair Association, with the co-operation of local automobile dealers. Miss Boykin will drive a sport-model Lincoln, and many other makes of cars will be exhibited by the other club members.

CULBERTSON ON CONTRACT

BY ELY CULBERTSON, World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst.

The Problem of Defense. Happy is that Bridge player who can see during the play of the hand, the proper attacking or defensive measures to undertake, in order either to realize his contract or secure the defeat of the adversary. Thereby he avoids the recrimination which comes in the inevitable post-mortem on hands which could have been made by a different line of attacking play or possibly defeated by a brilliant defensive maneuver.

Recently, in a national tournament, the hand below was dealt, which gave to the East and West players an opportunity for the correct selection of the final contract, and to South, if the correct choice was not made, a chance for brilliant defense.

West—Dealer. Both sides vulnerable.

♠ 7 2
♥ 2
♦ K Q J 10 8 6 5
♣ J 9 7

♠ A K Q 10
♥ A Q 9 5
♦ W S
♣ 4 2

♠ J 9 8 4
♥ A 7 4 2
♦ K Q 10 5

♠ Q J 9 5
♥ A J 6
♦ A 10 9 5 4
♣ A 8 7 6 5

♠ K 10 4
♥ K Q J 10
♦ W S
♣ K 7 3

♠ A 8 7 6 2
♥ 9 3
♦ 9 7 4
♣ J 2

Of course, the correct final contract on this hand is six hearts, which can be made against any defense that North and South can put up. The hand was played at 12 tables, and three of the West players had self-denial enough to permit the East hand to play the contract in a Slam at hearts, which was easily realized.

At the other tables, however, West could not forego the count for his honors and played the hand at six spades, which was made at every table but one. The brilliant defensive play which brought about the defeat of the incorrect contract was made by Mr. John H. Law, of Cleveland, who held the South hand.

The opening lead was the diamond King, and when the Dummy showed up with a singleton, Mr. Law immediately made the plan which resulted

STYLES BY ANNETTE

No. 372—Smart simplicity. This style is designed in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 4 3/8 yards of 39-inch material with 1 1/2 yard of 39-inch contrasting.

No. 809—Smart junior wear. This style is designed in sizes 6, 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. Size 6 requires 1 5/8 yards of 39-inch material with 7/8 yard of 35-inch contrasting.

No. 792—Practical slip. This style is designed in sizes 16, 18, 20 years. Size 16 requires 2 3/8 yards of 35-inch material with 3/4 yard of 35-inch contrasting.

No. 715—Sports type. This style is designed in sizes 11, 13, 15 and 17 years. Size 15 requires 3 1/8 yards of 39-inch material with 7/8 yard of 35-inch contrasting.

It would pay you to send for a copy of our fall and winter fashion book for it will help you plan your fall wardrobe. And you will save money in using our low-price patterns. Book shows large variety of styles for ladies, misses and children, special styles for stouts, embroidery, dressmaking articles, etc. Price of pattern 15 cents in stamps or coin. Wrap coin carefully.

Address orders to Annette Fashion Department, care The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

USE OF CONFESSION IN TRIAL ATTACKED

Validity of the use of a joint confession in the separate trials of persons charged with felonies was challenged Monday by attorneys for Richard Morris, negro, one of the three slayers of Detective Frank C. (Red) Foster, in arguing Morris' appeal from a death sentence before the supreme court.

The attorneys are Oley Mitchell and Lester C. Dickson. They contend that the joint confession of Morris and two other negroes was not admissible at Morris' trial because it was not made by Morris individually. Foster was slain while frustrating an attempted holdup of a delicatessen on North Boulevard.

Lillian Mae Patterns.

KIDDIE FROCKS

Patterns 2356 and 2326

Tiny frocks for tiny tots always find a welcome place in their wardrobes. In real "grown-up" fashion, contrast is applied as youthful yoke and sleeve details. What young one wouldn't love to have them, while mothers will use the practical, tubular cotton prints to make them? Bloomers included.

Pattern 2356 may be ordered only in sizes 4 to 10. Size 4 requires 2 1/8 yards 36-inch fabric and 3/4 yard contrasting.

Pattern 2326 may be ordered only in sizes 2 to 8. Size 4 requires 2 1/4 yards 36-inch fabric and 1 1/2 yard contrasting. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included with each pattern.

Each of these models is 15c. (30c for both.) Send coins or stamps (coins preferred.) Please write very plainly your name, address, style number and size of each pattern ordered.

The fall and winter edition of the Lillian Mae pattern catalog is ready! Charming, flattering models—32 pages of the newest and best house, street and formal frocks—cleverly designed styles for large figures—and beautiful, practical models for juniors and kiddies. Lovely lingerie patterns, and suggestions for gifts that can be easily and inexpensively made, are also included. Send for the new catalog. Price of catalog, 15 cents.

Address orders to Lillian Mae Pattern Department, care The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

R. F. C. DATA DECISION

EXPECTED THURSDAY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—(AP)—South Trimble, the house clerk, today said he expected to make an announcement Thursday of his decision on whether the Reconstruction Corporation's report on its August activities should be made public.

Trimble said he was still studying the arguments advanced by Atlee Pomerene, chairman of the board, and the opinion by the corporation's counsel against making the report public.

Music Club Will Hold Reception Following Concert This Evening

The Atlanta Music Club will entertain its members at a reception in the ballroom of the Atlanta Woman's Club this evening immediately following the concert in the club auditorium. Members of the club are invited to stay for the reception, when there will be an opportunity to meet each other and to greet new members of the club. A special invitation is extended to musicians who have come to Atlanta since last season to be guests of the club.

In the receiving line, welcoming the guests, will be the officers of the club: Mrs. Howard Claude Smith Jr., president; Lee Edwards, first vice president; Mrs. Thad Morrison, second vice president; Mrs. Ruth Rankin Rutherford, third vice president; Miss Ruth Dabney Smith, fourth vice president; Mrs. Jane Mattingly, secretary; Mrs. Harold McKennie, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Cliff Hatcher, treasurer, and Mrs. Lee Edwards, assistant treasurer. Assisting the officers in entertaining will be the members of the board.

Mrs. Walter H. Bedard, chairman of hospitality, will act as official hostess, assisted by her committee, composed of Mesdames James R. Little, Alex King Jr., William P. Dunn, Herbert Hopkins, R. H. King, John Dobbs, Paul Bryan, William Griffith and Miss Louise Barill.

Presiding at one coffee table will be Mesdames Cliff Hatcher and Henry Bernard Scott and at the other Mesdames Willis Westmoreland and Wilmer L. Moore. Serving punch will be Mesdames Robert L. Foreman Jr. and Frank Alcorn. The ballroom will be elaborately decorated by Mrs. Victor Kreisgaber, chairman of the house committee.

The concert preceding the reception will feature music of all nations, with Mrs. Howard Claude Smith Jr., soprano; Mrs. Lois Leins, coloratura soprano; Mrs. Lillian Rogers Gilbreath, pianist; George Allen, tenor; Coleman Kimbro, baritone, and Mrs. Charles Chalmers and Miss Irene Leftwich, accompanists, presenting the program.

Hi Styles

Now It's Fur Pelerines!

(straight from the family album)

A coat with a cape is TWO COATS! So for all they look giddy and dove-like there's nothing as practical as this Edwardian idea. Wear the darling fur cape with suits or dresses. With an evening dress it's chic-er than chic. Or wear the coat without the cape—it's smart!

Ebony brown rough wool with a detachable Mink cape to give that necessary top-heavy look.

'38 Exactly as sketched.

The Cape Come Off!

SECOND FLOOR

Address orders to Lillian Mae Pattern Department, care The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

R. F. C. DATA DECISION

EXPECTED THURSDAY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—(AP)—South Trimble, the house clerk, today said he expected to make an announcement Thursday of his decision on whether the Reconstruction Corporation's report on its August activities should be made public.

Trimble said he was still studying the arguments advanced by Atlee Pomerene, chairman of the board, and the opinion by the corporation's counsel against making the report public.

USE OF CONFESSION IN TRIAL ATTACKED

Validity of the use of a joint confession in the separate trials of persons charged with felonies was challenged Monday by attorneys for Richard Morris, negro, one of the three slayers of Detective Frank C. (Red) Foster, in arguing Morris' appeal from a death sentence before the supreme court.

The attorneys are Oley Mitchell and Lester C. Dickson. They contend that the joint confession of Morris and two other negroes was not admissible at Morris' trial because it was not made by Morris individually. Foster was slain while frustrating an attempted holdup of a delicatessen on North Boulevard.

Address orders to Annette Fashion Department, care The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

USE OF CONFESSION IN TRIAL ATTACKED

Validity of the use of a joint confession in the separate trials of persons charged with felonies was challenged Monday by attorneys for Richard Morris, negro, one of the three slayers of Detective Frank C. (Red) Foster, in arguing Morris' appeal from a death sentence before the supreme court.

The attorneys are Oley Mitchell and Lester C. Dickson. They contend that the joint confession of Morris and two other negroes was not admissible at Morris' trial because it was not made by Morris individually. Foster was slain while frustrating an attempted holdup of a delicatessen on North Boulevard.

Address orders to Annette Fashion Department, care The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

USE OF CONFESSION IN TRIAL ATTACKED

Validity of the use of a joint confession in the separate trials of persons charged with felonies was challenged Monday by attorneys for Richard Morris, negro, one of the three slayers of Detective Frank C. (Red) Foster, in arguing Morris' appeal from a death sentence before the supreme court.

The attorneys are Oley Mitchell and Lester C. Dickson. They contend that the joint confession of Morris and two other negroes was not admissible at Morris' trial because it was not made by Morris individually. Foster was slain while frustrating an attempted holdup of a delicatessen on North Boulevard.

Address orders to Annette Fashion Department, care The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

USE OF CONFESSION IN TRIAL ATTACKED

Validity of the use of a joint confession in the separate trials of persons charged with felonies was challenged Monday by attorneys for Richard Morris, negro, one of the three slayers of Detective Frank C. (Red) Foster, in arguing Morris' appeal from a death sentence before the supreme court.

The attorneys are Oley Mitchell and Lester C. Dickson. They contend that the joint confession of Morris and two other negroes was not admissible at Morris' trial because it was not made by Morris individually. Foster was slain while frustrating an attempted holdup of a delicatessen on North Boulevard.

Address orders to Annette Fashion Department, care The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

USE OF CONFESSION IN TRIAL ATTACKED

Validity of the use of a joint confession in the separate trials of persons charged with felonies was challenged Monday by attorneys for Richard Morris, negro, one of the three slayers of Detective Frank C. (Red) Foster, in arguing Morris' appeal from a death sentence before the supreme court.

The attorneys are Oley Mitchell and Lester C. Dickson. They contend that the joint confession of Morris and two other negroes was not admissible at Morris' trial because it was not made by Morris individually. Foster was slain while frustrating an attempted holdup of a delicatessen on North Boulevard.

Address orders to Annette Fashion Department, care The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

USE OF CONFESSION IN TRIAL ATTACKED

Validity of the use of a joint confession in the separate trials of persons charged with felonies was challenged Monday by attorneys for Richard Morris, negro, one of the three slayers of Detective Frank C. (Red) Foster, in arguing Morris' appeal from a death sentence before the supreme court.

The attorneys are Oley Mitchell and Lester C. Dickson. They contend that the joint confession of Morris and two other negroes was not admissible at Morris' trial because it was not made by Morris individually. Foster was slain while frustrating an attempted holdup of a delicatessen on North Boulevard.

Address orders to Annette Fashion Department, care The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

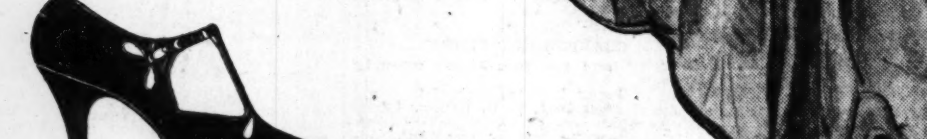

Judge Nisley shoes by quality... not by price!

Glamour!

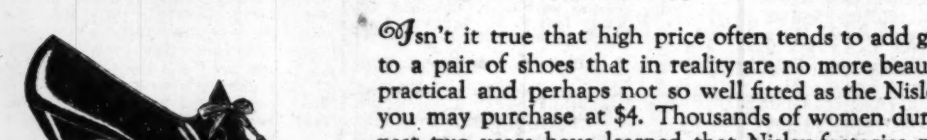

Number 2 of a series of Modern Beauties
CYNTHIA means belonging to the moon.

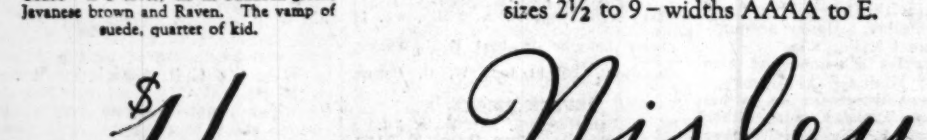

PEEY—one of the 30 new Nisley pumps of Raven black or brown suede with a daring white stitched overlay of calf.

Amariella—means sweet grace and surely this center strap model has it. Black suede with buckle strap of patent.

Grace—is a lovely tie in Paddock green. Jeunesse brown and Raven. The vamp of suede, quarter of kid.

Webster says: [Glamour—(glam-er)—a charm on the eyes causing them to see things differently than they are in reality.]

Isn't it true that high price often tends to add glamour to a pair of shoes that in reality are no more beautiful or practical and perhaps not so well fitted as the Nisley style you may purchase at $4. Thousands of women during the past two years have learned that Nisley factories produce shoes of beauty, flexibility and perfection that equal or surpass that of any pair for which they paid a high price. New styles are constantly produced on combination lasts in sizes 2 1/2 to 9—widths AAAA to E.

Nisley Beautiful Shoes

68 WHITEHALL STREET, S.W.

The quality we can give you in new Sheer Autumn Chiffons at 50c. is astonishing! 2 pairs $1.75 to a customer

Mail orders filled promptly when accompanied by purchase price and 15 cents postage

Women!

95c Value for 59c

Combination Offer!

Get 2 boxes of New PHANTOM KOTEX and 1 box KLEENEX

95c Value ALL FOR 59c

to introduce the New PHANTOM KOTEX

2 BOXES of KOTEX and 1 box of KLEENEX—3 items for less than the price of 2!

PHANTOM (form-fitting) KOTEX

There is no other pad like it!

The New Phantom Kotex—form-fitting, embossed, tapered, sanitary pad is made to fit—without any outlines—even under smoothest fitting dresses. You've never known perfect sanitary comfort like this before. There's nothing else remotely like it—U. S. Patent No. 1,857,854.

Look for this window display in your dealer's window.

This sign tells you where to go for the greatest value you've ever had on Kotex and Kleenex... indispensable accessories to every woman's comfort, fine grooming.

Boxes marked "Form-Fitting" contain Phantom Kotex

KLEENEX TISSUES (Disposable)

You know KLEENEX, the softest, yet strongest, absorbent tissues. Invaluable for handkerchiefs... to remove cold cream... as a substitute for linen, towels, napkins... for dozens of home and office uses.

Don't delay. Go to your dealer now! Buy your Phantom Kotex and Kleenex today, while supplies last at this special price!

Kotex Company, 180 N. Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.

At all drug, dry goods, and department stores arged with foul riding in the fourth event, Apprentice Jockey Sylvia Coue today was suspended by the track wards for the remainder of the meet and his case was referred to the Maryland racing commission.

Suede Leather
WindbreakersAt First a Fad—Now
Permanently Popular

So light, warm and serviceable, this practical dress accessory has become permanent in its popularity—for school, college and sports wear. They hold the heat of the body in.

Genuine Suede Leather
Windbreakers

With Knit Collars, Cuffs and Bottoms, button $4.50 front

With Knit Collars, Cuffs and Bottoms, Zipper $4.95 front

With Leather Collars, Cuffs and Bottoms, Zipper $6.95 front

Cossack Russian style, all leather, button and $7.25 Zipper fronts, up from

Sweaters

$2.25 to $5.00

All-wool slip-over style, with V, Crew or Turtle necks—all colors, all sizes.

Jacket Ensembles

Suede cloth sleeveless jacket with turtle neck sweater—the very thing for golf and other outdoor sports wear—and so economically priced! $2.25 Set.

Parks-Chambers

Incorporated

37-39 Peachtree St.

Large Crowd
Greets
Yanks

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—(AP)—The victorious Yankees returned from Chicago late today to be greeted by a crowd of several hundred cheering fans at Grand Central station.

The demonstration scarcely was of the caliber that might have been expected, considering the circumstances, but what the gathering lacked in numbers it more than made up in noise. There was no hand to greet the returning heroes; only the shouts of the worshipful and the pop of flashlight bulbs.

Something of a damper was put on the reception when several of the principal heroes, including Manager Joe McCarthy and Babe Ruth, proved missing. McCarthy, who drove the team to four straight victories over the Cubs, decided he had enough baseball when the series ended and headed straight for his home at Buffalo.

The Babe, along with George Pipgras and several other, dropped off on the outskirts of the city. Only about a dozen of the champions were in there for the grand finale.

There was no parade, other than that through the lane of fans to waiting taxicabs. Then they scattered to their hotels and homes, not to hand together again until next spring.

BRASS RAIL

Tuesday's Special

Chicken a la King

With Fresh Mushrooms

On Toast.

25¢

All Kinds of Sea Foods

Deviled Crabs Oysters

38¢ TREE AT 5 POINTS

Owned and Operated by Pig's Whistle

ROBBY SHIFTS
PETREL BACKS
FOR NEXT GAMEPutno, Harrison, Wrens and Walker Will Run Against St. Xavier.

By Jack Troy.

Because he couldn't help but notice a lack of offensive punch when it was needed against Howard, Coach Hardy Robertson yesterday announced a shift in the backfield forces of Oglethorpe for the St. Xavier game Friday night in Cincinnati.

The way this combination goes against the Cincinnati eleven will determine how long it stays put.

There will be no change in the line, which embraces potential power. Andy Morrow and Reed Craven will be at ends, with Dan Kenzie and Wayne Pickett at tackles. Captain John Patrick and Marion Whaley at guards and Rudy Shouse at center.

What was purported to be the final scrimmage before the game was yesterday at Oglethorpe field, with the regulars arrayed against the freshmen. Coach Robertson said, however, that he might repeat the dose this afternoon.

The regulars worked yesterday against St. Xavier plays. Natty Campbell, former backfield coach, having scouted the team in the Centre game last week which St. Xavier won, 7 to 0.

Particular attention was devoted to stopping the plays run by McPhail, a hard-driving fullback. McPhail led St. Xavier to victory over Centre, Morley, left tackle, is a power in the line.

For the first time this season the regulars really ran roughshod over the varsity when they took the ball. There were about five or six touchdowns scored in a relatively short time. Their showing was so good, in fact, that Coach Robertson dismissed the varsity and sent the reserves in to oppose the freshmen. The new backfield combination clicked smoothly.

Ralph Cobb, Smyrna (Ga.) speedster, was paired with Harry Wrens at halfback in the first backfield. Either he or Harrison will start Friday night. Harrison probably will be

Continued in Page 22.

THE SPORTLIGHT
By Krawford Rice

High Spots.

The World Series may have had its ragged fringes and its drab moments, but it also had more than its share of high spots for a four-day stand.

The big moment of the game—one of the greatest moments of any series of any competition—came early in the third game when Babe Ruth arrived at bat after hitting his first home run. The Babe reported in the midst of a tumult of cheers and boos.

The vast majority of 50,000 fans were either cheering him or jeering him. Both were music to the Babe! The Cub bench was riding him sky-high. The Babe was riding back. Two strikes whistled over the plate as the crowd roared. As the second strike swept across the Babe looked at the Cub bench and held up two fingers. His beaming countenance over a broad grin. He then pointed to center field. And around five seconds later his famous line drive lashed—not much higher than Carnera's head —sailed across the barrier.

The whiplike action of his wrists and arms, working together with a perfect body spin, was as fine a piece of co-ordination as I have ever seen. He may have hit a few just as hard but no one ever hit a baseball harder. He first built up his act with a mixture of comedy and kidding, farce and humor, and then he turned it into drama of the highest type.

The Babe's Psychology.

Here is another sample of the Babe's psychology. In the final game a last but not least, the Babe started for first, lightly brushing the bruised spot as if a feather or some fuzz had hit on his sleeve. He might have been hit with a ping-pong ball.

I saw Babe after the game. He had a knot on his right forearm as big as a baseball.

"Hurts the Babe said. 'I should say it did. But I wasn't going to let that bunch know it.'

The Showman.

No one but the Babe could have put on a show of this type. Here was a ball player who stood as a perfect part of the picture, which he himself painted with amazing skill. He was a jester and a comedian—artist and clown.

No one else could have mixed up so much in the way of humor, arrogance, confidence, power and skill. No one else in sport could have developed such a plot and then finished the story with such a flaming finale.

He called the turn in advance and then he put everything his 225 pounds carried into the most tremendous swing and lashed his big bat had ever known.

Lou Gehrig.

Lou Gehrig proved again that he is now the most valuable first-baseman of them all—and this doesn't bar Hal Chase or George Sisler.

His combination of power, his infield defense, his keen spirit, lift him above the line who have starred at this job.

It was Gehrig's first home run that shot poison into the souls of Cub pitchers. Up to that first big blow the Chicago team had been full of fire and fight. From that point on they seemed to sense an approach of certain doom. The hammer of Thor was hanging above their heads.

Gehrig's record through the last five years has been astonishing. When you figure the runs he has scored and the runs he has driven in, you get a clearer idea of his value.

Twenty-nine years old, weighing 215 pounds, lean long and in perfect shape, Laruping Lou is barely at his prime. No athlete takes better care of himself and with any luck Gehrig will be a great ball player for another 10 years.

The Answer.

The answer to the Cub collapse is simple enough. In one word—power. When an attack can score 37 runs in four games—when an assault can pile up 45 hits for 75 bases in this brief span—there can be only one ending.

Bush, Warneke, Root and Malone made up one of the best pitching staffs the National League has shown in some time. Yet none of the big four was even able to halt the Yankees' march for more than a round or two before the Cubs fell.

Herb Pennock and Wiley Moore figure that the Yanks of 1927 had just a shade in punching power over this year's champions, but hardly enough to write about. Which recalls the fact that Pennock and Moore came in for their share of praise and acclaim.

Pennock, working out his 21st year, stopped the Cubs twice with a great curve ball and a change of pace, which kept the enemy off balance. Cy Moore's five innings brought out the best pitching of the series. "I was bearing down," Cy admits, "with everything I had. I let 'em have it all." He held the Cubs to two hits in five and a third inning.

Joe Sewell was another veteran who stood out as one of the stars. Sewell's all-around display lasted the entire route. He was a hard man to pitch to, and, coming just ahead of Ruth and Gehrig, he was a large thorn in the Cubs' system all along the way.

Alabama put on quite a show. Outside of Sewell, Riggs Stephenson, another member of the Crimson Tide, finished just back of Gehrig as the leading hit-maker of the series. Stephenson was the leading Cub star, just as he had been all year. He and Cuyler were best Cub products. But they both had to stand under the shadow of a barrage, which dimmed their chance for glory. It isn't easy to star in a four-day rout.

RACING NOTES.

TAMPA, Fla., Oct. 3.—(AP)—M. H. Mabray, secretary of the state racing commission, said today racing dates for Hillsborough county would be set at a meeting of the body early in November. Several racing projects may be voted in other counties this month and the commission wishes to defer its scheduled meeting until all are ready, Mabray said.

$18.00 ATLANTA TO NEW ORLEANS Georgia vs. Tulane, Oct. 8th Tickets on Sale Oct. 6th-7th Round-Trip Limited Oct. 11th

THE WEST POINT ROUTE

SAVE JOHN RUSKIN CIGAR BANDS

TODAY'S GREATEST VALUE John Ruskin Cigars, either size, Perfecto Extra or Panatela and the useful articles given Free for John Ruskin bands. Ask your dealer for new Premium Catalogue.

THE CAPITAL CITY TOBACCO CO., DISTRIBUTORS, ATLANTA

John Ruskin 5 CIGARS SATISFY 10¢ SMOKERS

DICK DAVIS COURT
MEETS WMILLEN
AT AUDITORIUMTragos and Kashey in Semi-Windup of Card
Tonight.

Dick Davis court, the original villain of the mat, tonight grapples Jim McMillen, a lead man in the nation's wrestling show, in the feature of Henry Weber's card at the city auditorium. Preliminaries will get under way at 8:15.

Always colorful, ever on the aggressive, and a real Tartar to the younger school of wrestlers, Davis court will afford the mat patrons a superb abundance of thrills. It will not be a one-sided affair, however, for McMillen is one of the best.

Rounding out the program will be a one-hour limit semi-final involving George Tragos, the Greek firebrand, and Abe Kashey, 20-point Armenian, as well as a 15-minute preliminary between two local boys.

The show, which promises to be one of the banner attractions of the indoor season, starts promptly at 8:15 o'clock.

IN GREAT SHAPE.

Davis court was about town Monday looking to be in the best of shape as he renewed old acquaintances here. Despite the high caliber of the opposition he is to face, the veteran Californian was his old confident self.

"I'm always glad to wrestle in Atlanta," he said, "and I think numbers of people besides McMillen are in for a little surprise party Tuesday night. I've studied Jim's style pretty closely, and I really think I have figured out a way to beat him. That flying tackle isn't going to worry me much, and once that is muffed, McMillen is deprived of his heaviest weapon. Personally, I never felt better and readier to go in my life."

McMillen, due to arrive Tuesday morning, was advised Weber is also in first-class condition and confident of pinning the barrel-chested Davis court twice within the two-hour limit. The Illinois star has yet to lose a fall in Atlanta, though held to a draw by Jim Clinkstock on his last appearance here. Not only is he a really great wrestler, but his speed and burning aggressiveness make him an interesting figure to watch.

TROUBLE FOR TRAGOS.

Tragos, who has roughed many a foe, man to defeat over the protests of local customers in the past, is likely to run into trouble with Kashey in the semi-final tonight. Weber has a record of 10 wins and 10 losses, but his record indicates he is a tough man to handle.

Tickets will remain on sale throughout the day at the Miner & Carter Drug Company and at the Piedmont Hatters, being transferred after 6 o'clock to the auditorium. Ladies will be admitted, as has been the custom lately, for $1.

CLARK WORKING FOR FIRST GAME

The opening game of the 1932 football season for Clark University will be played under the flood lights of Ponce de Leon park Saturday night at 8 o'clock with Clifton College of Orangeburg, S. C., furnishing the opposition.

After three weeks of hard preparation Chief Aiken, veteran Clark coach, will put the finishing touches on his charges. With a very light schedule to select from, the 1932 edition of the Panthers will be at least 25 pounds a man lighter than the team of 1931.

Tactical Smith, noted line coach who is handling the Clark forwards, under the supervision of his former coach, Chief Aiken, is timing his charges to stop the rushes of Coach Brice Taylor's invaders.

McPherson, at quarterback, is calling signals in the same cool manner which characterized his sensational playing of last season. He has gained a few pounds and looked to be in the pink of condition.

Coach Aiken is working to replace two guards and one back because the faculty used the "ax" on his squad for low scholastic standing. Bell, a backfield star, Stapleton, and Watts, guards and a line backer, were dropped from the team. Before this action was taken, Clark University had been selected by donors to retain the conference championship.

A special section of the stands will be reserved for white fans, and tickets will go on sale Wednesday at downtown business houses.

Florida Loses Ace
For Sewanee Game

GAINESVILLE, Fla., Oct. 3.—(AP)—"Monk" Dorsett, University of Florida's ace quarterback, probably will be on the sidelines Saturday when the Gators open against Sewanee.

Dorsett, 192-pound senior field general, has a knee injury which Coach Charles Bachman said this morning may keep him out of play.

Probability was expressed, however, that Johnny Fountain, fleet right halfback, also hurt Saturday, will perform.

"I feel almost certain we cannot use Dorsett," Bachman said, "but just now it looks as if Fountain can play." Dorsett's absence will cripple the Gators in a marked way.

Special: This Week Only

FORD, CHEVROLET AND PLYMOUTH

4 Wheel Brake Relining

Regular $8.00

JOB for $5.95

FREE: One Adjustment on Cowdrey Brake-Testing Machine With Each Reline Job

FACTORY TRAINED WHITE MECHANICS

EATON SERVICE

SPRINGS - BRAKES - AXLES - WHEELS - SHOCK ABSORBERS

SPRING ST., CORNER 4TH

American Loop Heads
Will Spend on ClubsSeek to Strengthen in Effort to Stop Yanks; Ruth May Turn Manager.

By Alan Gould,

Associated Press Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 3.—(AP)—After three conclusive engagements demonstrated that the National league's baseball forces have no visible means of stopping the Yankees, the main task of doing something about this menace for 1933 now appears to devolve upon the American league rivals of the world champions.

Led by the Chicago White Sox, who apparently have opened up the war chest and thrown the key away, the magnates will spend at least a half million dollars to make the next American league tighter and tougher for Joe McCarthy's rough riding outfit.

The Athletics, even though parting with Al Simmons and other stars, have strong replacements ready. Cleveland, Washington and even the riddled Red Sox will be considerably strengthened.

Two successive seasons, during which the majority of the clubs in both major leagues have lost money, have forced the magnates to decide on drastic measures, if necessary, to prevent the disaster of another runaway for Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and company.

RUTH, THE MANAGER.

There has been talk that Ruth, his playing days unquestionably numbered, but his manager's duties still with him, might go either to the Red Sox or the White Sox.

The Babe would be a striking addition to the cast for Chicago's World Fair in 1933, but Colonel Jacob Ruppert, the Yankee owner, will have to undergo a radical change of mind before he parts with the Bambino.

Ruth's record-smashing performance in the series, featured by his home run blast Saturday, gives him a talking point when he discusses renewal of his one-year, $75,000 contract with Colonel Ruppert next spring.

Reminded of this the Yankee owner

Continued in Page 22.

A FALL PRESENTATION AT

MUSE

TAB COLLARS

—the Newest

Idea in Shirts

Manhattan

$1.65 - $1.95 - $2.50

Manhattan Shirts in the English manner, with patterned fabrics. Fine tailoring. These shirts are being worn by best-dressed business men today! See them now.

GEORGE MUSE CLOTHING CO.

"Style and Value Center of the South"

Peachtree :: Walton :: Broad

REWARD

● The Gillette BLUE BLADE has won the just reward of super-quality.

Hundreds of thousands of men would gladly tell you that no other blade compares with this one. Try the Gillette Blue Blade and learn why.

Florida Loses Ace

For Sewanee Game

GAINESVILLE, Fla., Oct. 3.—(AP)—

"Monk" Dorsett, University of Florida's ace quarterback, probably will be on the sidelines Saturday when the Gators open against Sewanee.

Dorsett, 192-pound senior field general, has a knee injury which Coach Charles

Bachman said this morning may keep him out of play.

Probability was expressed, however, that

Johnny Fountain, fleet right halfback, also hurt Saturday, will perform.

"I feel almost certain we cannot use

Dorsett," Bachman said, "but just now it looks as if Fountain can play." Dorsett's absence will cripple the Gators in a marked way.

Special: This Week Only

FORD, CHEVROLET AND PLYMOUTH

4 Wheel Brake Relining

Regular $8.00

JOB for $5.95

FREE: One Adjustment on Cowdrey Brake-

Testing Machine With Each Reline Job

FACTORY TRAINED WHITE MECHANICS

EATON SERVICE

SPRINGS - BRAKES - AXLES - WHEELS - SHOCK ABSORBERS

SPRING ST., CORNER 4TH

MEN! You'll Go for This
All-Star LINE-UP!
New Low Price Sensations On All-Wool
2-Pants SuitsSingle-Breasted!
Double-Breasted!Regular Sizes
34 to 44!Group 1—
$16.75Stout
Sizes
38 to 44!Group 2—
$19.75Short
Sizes
36 to 42!Large
Sizes
36 to 42!Group 3—
$24.75Could Any Man Ask More of a Suit Than He Gets in High's Fine Suits!

Now—Lowest Prices

in Our Memory!

Newest Fall Woolens!

Great Variety!

New Fall Styles and Shades!

Rigidly Specified

Hand Tailoring!

Finest Celanese

Linings!

There's plenty of buying-excitement in the Men's Store these days!—because what a man wants NOW is a "whale of a value!" All YOU need is to get into one of these new autumn browns, manor blues, oxford and lead greys to learn the advantage of wearing a suit from High's! Get one look at them Tuesday! They're knockouts!

J.M. High Co.

"50 Years of Underselling Atlanta"

MEN'S STORE,
STREET FLOOR

THE GUMPS—THE LETTER THAT HE LONGED FOR CAME AT LAST

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE—GOOD IN THE WORST OF US

MOON MULLINS—A GENUINE ANTIQUE

SMITTY—TWO GUYS WITH A SINGLE THOUGHT

GASOLINE ALLEY—AND THAT'S THAT

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER—HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF

RIDERS OF THE PURPLE SAGE

Something Wrong

By Zane Grey

IF I WERE YOU

By P. G. Wodehouse

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE.

Anthony, fifth earl of Drolowitch, had just become engaged to Violet Waddington, heiress of Waddington's 97 Sops. The discovery of Tony's secret had first been made by Lord Drolowitch's brother, the Hon. Freddie Chalk-Marshall, who had induced the much when he saw Anthony kissing Violet in the rose garden of Langley End, the Drolowitch country seat in Worcestershire. Wishing to do a good turn, Freddie had sent a wire to Tubby Bridgforth, who had had his annual row with his father and was trying to turn a honest penny as a gossip writer for the London Daily Express. The household at Langley End, which included Sir Herbert and Lady Lydia Bassington, Anthony's aunt, got the news when the Express telephoned to verify Tubby's report of the engagement. Lady Lydia had swiftly informed her father, G. G. Waddington, who, of the 97 Sops, he beamed but deplored Violet's lack of sentimentality. Violet, tall, slender and beautiful, was hard-boiled as a fashion plate and blunderingly as a woman. Anthony was supplying the title and she the money. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

INSTALLMENT V.

"Me an' him?"

"Yes. A most striking resemblance."

Syd chuckled amusedly.

"Not guilty, m'lord. None of my ancestors ever knew any of your ancestors, except Ma, an' I'll take my oath she's respectable."

Tony laughed.

"Oh, I'm not casting any aspersions, Syd. Well, I'll leave you. If you want a cigarette, you'll find them over there."

"Thanks, m'lord."

Tony disappeared through the French window, but Syd Price did not go immediately to the table where the cigarette box stood. He remained beneath the portrait, looking up at it. He assumed the pose of the portrait, his chin up and his right hand clutching an invisible sword hilt.

"Rum!" said Syd.

As he spoke, the door opened. It was Slingaby and entered. The butler's impressive features were a worried look.

"Er?" he said.

Syd came out of his reverie.

"'Tillo, Uncle Ted," he greeted Slingaby.

"Where's your mother?" asked the butler.

"Oh, should I know? Isn't she in the pantry?"

"No, she's not. She's wandering round the house, and she's got no business to."

"She won't do any 'arm. She likes to look the old place over. Didn't she live 'ere for two years when his lordship was a baby?"

"That's neither 'ere nor there. Her place is in the servants' quarters, and she's no more business roamin' the 'ouse than you 'ave in this room."

Syd Price was not fond of his uncle.

"Is that so?" he said. "Let me tell you I 'ave his lordship's express permission to be in this room. An' what's more, now I'm 'ere, I'll 'ave a cigaroot."

"You dare!"

"Specially invited to be 'is lordship," said Syd triumphantly. "Try that on your pinafore."

The butler stood baffled.

"Impudent young 'ound!" he said. Syd reached for his invisible sword hilt.

"Less of it, variet, or I'll cleave thee to the chime! Yes, by my halldom!"

"Have you gone mad?"

"Only a little 'armless fun. Uncle Ted is lordship's butler, tellin' me I look like that jesser up there."

"Oh, he has, has he?"

"Yes, he has, has he? And so I do. There's a most striking resemblance."

He eyed the portrait wistfully.

"Coo!" he said. "I wish I 'ad bin sprung from my warrior styne like that. I'd have made a better earl than some of them, I can tell you."

"What's that, young Syd?" said Slingaby sharply. "It was impossible for a man of his ample build actually to give a start, but a sort of ripple of indignation had passed through his body. 'Don't you come your socialistic airs in my 'ouse!'"

"Your 'ouse?" Syd guffawed rudely. "At off to 'is Grace Lord Ted of Slingaby, Mee, the Duke."

The butler regarded his nephew beligerently. He wished, for the hundredth time, that he had had the bringing up of him. The problem of what boys were coming to nowadays had often agitated Slingaby, and in Sydney Lancelot Price it seemed to him that all the unpleasant qualities of modern youth were assembled in a mass. He breathed heavily through his nose.

"I've half a mind to put you over my knee and spank you, young Slingaby. Syd was not a member of the Fulham Debating Society for nothing. 'That's what's been the trouble with you all 'ouse,' he reported easily, 'only 'avin' a'f a mind.'"

In the painful family wrangle which ensued, the butler did his best. But he was up against a nimble dialectician and was having the worst of the exchanges when he was saved from total demolition by the arrival of a newcomer.

This was a woman of mature years and a rather dishevelled aspect. Mrs. Price was wearing her best Sunday black satin and had applied to her hair some rough and ready remedy from Syd's stock, but she still looked subtly disreputable. Her face was red, and her eyes, which had a glazed appearance, seemed to be gazing in focussing their objective.

However, after blinking once or twice, she contrived to sort out the contending parties.

"Nah then, nah then, nah then!" she said. "What's all the row about?"

Slingaby turned, not sorry to find a new antagonist. A butler of spirit does not like to be worsted in argument by a snip of a boy. Young Syd had a way of twisting your remarks and making them recoil on you like boomerangs. The result, the butler presumed, of spending half his time arguing with his Holistic friends. He regarded his sister with an accusing eye.

"Ho!" he said. "So there you are, you aggravating old woman!"

Ma Price supported herself against a handy chair and went into the fray with the readiness of a veteran.

"Who are you callin' a wo—"

"'Tillo, Ma!" said Syd. "Still a bit tiddler, aren't you?"

Ma Price bridled.

"Nothing of the kind," she said with dignity. "I 'ad to 'ave a drop or two on the way down, whose fault was that? More to be pitied than censured, I am—with this 'eat of mine."

"Your 'eat's in the right place."

"I know it is, but it goes all jumpy. Why were you two chewing the rag about?"

"She went out in the park to look at rabbits," said Syd. "Never seen one before. Not running about, that is, with all its insides in it. She'll come back at tea-time. A quiet, nice, known as the 'omin' instinct."

"She's a nice girl, Polly. American—yes," said Ma Price, as one who is not afraid to look on the dark as well as the bright side. "But I always say," she went on, "that it takes all sorts to make a world, and I will say for Polly that I've never found her shooting and murdering like these Americans do all the time. A most quiet, nice, respectable girl I've always found her, and never shot anyone, as far as I know."

"Pulling pistols out of their 'ip pockets and shooting at people," said Mrs. Price querulously. "I don't 'old with it, and if I 'ad my way, it'd be put down by law. But nobody listens to me. Not that Polly's like that, American though she frankly admits herself to be a quiet, nice, respectable girl she is, and clever at 'air and manicurin', too. You might do worse than marry Polly, Syd. She'd make you a good wife. No nonsense about Polly. Never shot anyone."

"Not a marryin' man, Ma," said Syd austere. "Too wrapped up in the business. No time for girls. Me scissors is my sweetheart."

"All I want," said Mrs. Price, abandoning the theme, "is a little love."

"Me, too. And a different toast. 'Op it, Ma. You'll feel a buttered woman after cup of tea."

"'Tillo, Ma!" said Syd. "Still a bit tiddler, aren't you?"

Ma Price bridled.

"Nothing of the kind," she said with dignity. "I 'ad to 'ave a drop or two on the way down, whose fault was that? More to be pitied than censured, I am—with this 'eat of mine."

"Your 'eat's in the right place."

"I know it is, but it goes all jumpy. Why were you two chewing the rag about?"

"She went out in the park to look at rabbits," said Syd. "Never seen one before. Not running about, that is, with all its insides in it. She'll come back at tea-time. A quiet, nice, known as the 'omin' instinct."

"She's a nice girl, Polly. American—yes," said Ma Price, as one who is not afraid to look on the dark as well as the bright side. "But I always say," she went on, "that it takes all sorts to make a world, and I will say for Polly that I've never found her shooting and murdering like these Americans do all the time. A most quiet, nice, respectable girl I've always found her, and never shot anyone, as far as I know."

"Pulling pistols out of their 'ip pockets and shooting at people," said Mrs. Price querulously. "I don't 'old with it, and if I 'ad my way, it'd be put down by law. But nobody listens to me. Not that Polly's like that, American though she frankly admits herself to be a quiet, nice, respectable girl she is, and clever at 'air and manicurin', too. You might do worse than marry Polly, Syd. She'd make you a good wife. No nonsense about Polly. Never shot anyone."

"Not a marryin' man, Ma," said Syd austere. "Too wrapped up in the business. No time for girls. Me scissors is my sweetheart."

"All I want," said Mrs. Price, abandoning the theme, "is a little love."

"Me, too. And a different toast. 'Op it, Ma. You'll feel a buttered woman after cup of tea."

"'Tillo, Ma!" said Syd. "Still a bit tiddler, aren't you?"

Ma Price bridled.

"Nothing of the kind," she said with dignity. "I 'ad to 'ave a drop or two on the way down, whose fault was that? More to be pitied than censured, I am—with this 'eat of mine."

"Your 'eat's in the right place."

"I know it is, but it goes all jumpy. Why were you two chewing the rag about?"

"She went out in the park to look at rabbits," said Syd. "Never seen one before. Not running about, that is, with all its insides in it. She'll come back at tea-time. A quiet, nice, known as the 'omin' instinct."

"She's a nice girl, Polly. American—yes," said Ma Price, as one who is not afraid to look on the dark as well as the bright side. "But I always say," she went on, "that it takes all sorts to make a world, and I will say for Polly that I've never found her shooting and murdering like these Americans do all the time. A most quiet, nice, respectable girl I've always found her, and never shot anyone, as far as I know."

"Pulling pistols out of their 'ip pockets and shooting at people," said Mrs. Price querulously. "I don't 'old with it, and if I 'ad my way, it'd be put down by law. But nobody listens to me. Not that Polly's like that, American though she frankly admits herself to be a quiet, nice, respectable girl she is, and clever at 'air and manicurin', too. You might do worse than marry Polly, Syd. She'd make you a good wife. No nonsense about Polly. Never shot anyone."

"Not a marryin' man, Ma," said Syd austere. "Too wrapped up in the business. No time for girls. Me scissors is my sweetheart."

"All I want," said Mrs. Price, abandoning the theme, "is a little love."

"Me, too. And a different toast. 'Op it, Ma. You'll feel a buttered woman after cup of tea."

"'Tillo, Ma!" said Syd. "Still a bit tiddler, aren't you?"

Ma Price bridled.

"Nothing of the kind," she said with dignity. "I 'ad to 'ave a drop or two on the way down, whose fault was that? More to be pitied than censured, I am—with this 'eat of mine."

"Your 'eat's in the right place."

"I know it is, but it goes all jumpy. Why were you two chewing the rag about?"

"She went out in the park to look at rabbits," said Syd. "Never seen one before. Not running about, that is, with all its insides in it. She'll come back at tea-time. A quiet, nice, known as the 'omin' instinct."

"She's a nice girl, Polly. American—yes," said Ma Price, as one who is not afraid to look on the dark as well as the bright side. "But I always say," she went on, "that it takes all sorts to make a world, and I will say for Polly that I've never found her shooting and murdering like these Americans do all the time. A most quiet, nice, respectable girl I've always found her, and never shot anyone, as far as I know."

"Pulling pistols out of their 'ip pockets and shooting at people," said Mrs. Price querulously. "I don't 'old with it, and if I 'ad my way, it'd be put down by law. But nobody listens to me. Not that Polly's like that, American though she frankly admits herself to be a quiet, nice, respectable girl she is, and clever at 'air and manicurin', too. You might do worse than marry Polly, Syd. She'd make you a good wife. No nonsense about Polly. Never shot anyone."

"Not a marryin' man, Ma," said Syd austere. "Too wrapped up in the business. No time for girls. Me scissors is my sweetheart."

"All I want," said Mrs. Price, abandoning the theme, "is a little love."

"Me, too. And a different toast. 'Op it, Ma. You'll feel a buttered woman after cup of tea."

"'Tillo, Ma!" said Syd. "Still a bit tiddler, aren't you?"

Ma Price bridled.

"Nothing of the kind," she said with dignity. "I 'ad to 'ave a drop or two on the way down, whose fault was that? More to be pitied than censured, I am—with this 'eat of mine."

"Your 'eat's in the right place."

"I know it is, but it goes all jumpy. Why were you two chewing the rag about?"

"She went out in the park to look at rabbits," said Syd. "Never seen one before. Not running about, that is, with all its insides in it. She'll come back at tea-time. A quiet, nice, known as the 'omin' instinct."

"She's a nice girl, Polly. American—yes," said Ma Price, as one who is not afraid to look on the dark as well as the bright side. "But I always say," she went on, "that it takes all sorts to make a world, and I will say for Polly that I've never found her shooting and murdering like these Americans do all the time. A most quiet, nice, respectable girl I've always found her, and never shot anyone, as far as I know."

"Pulling pistols out of their 'ip pockets and shooting at people," said Mrs. Price querulously. "I don't 'old with it, and if I 'ad my way, it'd be put down by law. But nobody listens to me. Not that Polly's like that, American though she frankly admits herself to be a quiet, nice, respectable girl she is, and clever at 'air and manicurin', too. You might do worse than marry Polly, Syd. She'd make you a good wife. No nonsense about Polly. Never shot anyone."

"Not a marryin' man, Ma," said Syd austere. "Too wrapped up in the business. No time for girls. Me scissors is my sweetheart."

"All I want," said Mrs. Price, abandoning the theme, "is a little love."

"Me, too. And a different toast. 'Op it, Ma. You'll feel a buttered woman after cup of tea."

"'Tillo, Ma!" said Syd. "Still a bit tiddler, aren't you?"

Ma Price bridled.

"Nothing of the kind," she said with dignity. "I 'ad to 'ave a drop or two on the way down, whose fault was that? More to be pitied than censured, I am—with this 'eat of mine."

"Your 'eat's in the right place."

"I know it is, but it goes all jumpy. Why were you two chewing the rag about?"

"She went out in the park to look at rabbits," said Syd. "Never seen one before. Not running about, that is, with all its insides in it. She'll come back at tea-time. A quiet, nice, known as the 'omin' instinct."

"She's a nice girl, Polly. American—yes," said Ma Price, as one who is not afraid to look on the dark as well as the bright side. "But I always say," she went on, "that it takes all sorts to make a world, and I will say for Polly that I've never found her shooting and murdering like these Americans do all the time. A most quiet, nice, respectable girl I've always found her, and never shot anyone, as far as I know."

"Pulling pistols out of their 'ip pockets and shooting at people," said Mrs. Price querulously. "I don't 'old with it, and if I 'ad my way, it'd be put down by law. But nobody listens to me. Not that Polly's like that, American though she frankly admits herself to be a quiet, nice, respectable girl she is, and clever at 'air and manicurin', too. You might do worse than marry Polly, Syd. She'd make you a good wife. No nonsense about Polly. Never shot anyone."

"Not a marryin' man, Ma," said Syd austere. "Too wrapped up in the business. No time for girls. Me scissors is my sweetheart."

"All I want," said Mrs. Price, abandoning the theme, "is a little love."

"Me, too. And a different toast. 'Op it, Ma. You'll feel a buttered woman after cup of tea."

"'Tillo, Ma!" said Syd. "Still a bit tiddler, aren't you?"

Ma Price bridled.

"Nothing of the kind," she said with dignity. "I 'ad to 'ave a drop or two on the way down, whose fault was that? More to be pitied than censured, I am—with this 'eat of mine."

"Your 'eat's in the right place."

"I know it is, but it goes all jumpy. Why were you two chewing the rag about?"

"She went out in the park to look at rabbits," said Syd. "Never seen one before. Not running about, that is, with all its insides in it. She'll come back at tea-time. A quiet, nice, known as the 'omin' instinct."

"She's a nice girl, Polly. American—yes," said Ma Price, as one who is not afraid to look on the dark as well as the bright side. "But I always say," she went on, "that it takes all sorts to make a world, and I will say for Polly that I've never found her shooting and murdering like these Americans do all the time. A most quiet, nice, respectable girl I've always found her, and never shot anyone, as far as I know."

"Pulling pistols out of their 'ip pockets and shooting at people," said Mrs. Price querulously. "I don't 'old with it, and if I 'ad my way, it'd be put down by law. But nobody listens to me. Not that Polly's like that, American though she frankly admits herself to be a quiet, nice, respectable girl she is, and clever at 'air and manicurin', too. You might do worse than marry Polly, Syd. She'd make you a good wife. No nonsense about Polly. Never shot anyone."

"Not a marryin' man, Ma," said Syd austere. "Too wrapped up in the business. No time for girls. Me scissors is my sweetheart."

"All I want," said Mrs. Price, abandoning the theme, "is a little love."

"Me, too. And a different toast. 'Op it, Ma. You'll feel a buttered woman after cup of tea."

"'Tillo, Ma!" said Syd. "Still a bit tiddler, aren't you?"

Ma Price bridled.

"Nothing of the kind," she said with dignity. "I 'ad to 'ave a drop or two on the way down, whose fault was that? More to be pitied than censured, I am—with this 'eat of mine."

"Your 'eat's in the right place."

"I know it is, but it goes all jumpy. Why were you two chewing the rag about?"

"She went out in the park to look at rabbits," said Syd. "Never seen one before. Not running about, that is, with all its insides in it. She'll come back at tea-time. A quiet, nice, known as the 'omin' instinct."

"She's a nice girl, Polly. American—yes," said Ma Price, as one who is not afraid to look on the dark as well as the bright side. "But I always say," she went on, "that it takes all sorts to make a world, and I will say for Polly that I've never found her shooting and murdering like these Americans do all the time. A most quiet, nice, respectable girl I've always found her, and never shot anyone, as far as I know."

"Pulling pistols out of their 'ip pockets and shooting at people," said Mrs. Price querulously. "I don't 'old with it, and if I 'ad my way, it'd be put down by law. But nobody listens to me. Not that Polly's like that, American though she frankly admits herself to be a quiet, nice, respectable girl she is, and clever at 'air and manicurin', too. You might do worse than marry Polly, Syd. She'd make you a good wife. No nonsense about Polly. Never shot anyone."

"Not a marryin' man, Ma," said Syd austere. "Too wrapped up in the business. No time for girls. Me scissors is my sweetheart."

"All I want," said Mrs. Price, abandoning the theme, "is a little love."

"Me, too. And a different toast. 'Op it, Ma. You'll feel a buttered woman after cup of tea."

"'Tillo, Ma!" said Syd. "Still a bit tiddler, aren't you?"

Ma Price bridled.

"Nothing of the kind," she said with dignity. "I 'ad to 'ave a drop or two on the way down, whose fault was that? More to be pitied than censured, I am—with this 'eat of mine."

"Your 'eat's in the right place."

"I know it is, but it goes all jumpy. Why were you two chewing the rag about?"

"She went out in the park to look at rabbits," said Syd. "Never seen one before. Not running about, that is, with all its insides in it. She'll come back at tea-time. A quiet, nice, known as the 'omin' instinct."

"She's a nice girl, Polly. American—yes," said Ma Price, as one who is not afraid to look on the dark as well as the bright side. "But I always say," she went on, "that it takes all sorts to make a world, and I will say for Polly that I've never found her shooting and murdering like these Americans do all the time. A most quiet, nice, respectable girl I've always found her, and never shot anyone, as far as I know."

"Pulling pistols out of their 'ip pockets and shooting at people," said Mrs. Price querulously. "I don't 'old with it, and if I 'ad my way, it'd be put down by law. But nobody listens to me. Not that Polly's like that, American though she frankly admits herself to be a quiet, nice, respectable girl she is, and clever at 'air and manicurin', too. You might do worse than marry Polly, Syd. She'd make you a good wife. No nonsense about Polly. Never shot anyone."

"Not a marryin' man, Ma," said Syd austere. "Too wrapped up in the business. No time for girls. Me scissors is my sweetheart."

"All I want," said Mrs. Price, abandoning the theme, "is a little love."

"Me, too. And a different toast. 'Op it, Ma. You'll feel a buttered woman after cup of tea."

"'Tillo, Ma!" said Syd. "Still a bit tiddler, aren't you?"

Ma Price bridled.

"Nothing of the kind," she said with dignity. "I 'ad to 'ave a drop or two on the way down, whose fault was that? More to be pitied than censured, I am—with this 'eat of mine."

"Your 'eat's in the right place."

"I know it is, but it goes all jumpy. Why were you two chewing the rag about?"

"She went out in the park to look at rabbits," said Syd. "Never seen one before. Not running about, that is, with all its insides in it. She'll come back at tea-time. A quiet, nice, known as the 'omin' instinct."

"She's a nice girl, Polly. American—yes," said Ma Price, as one who is not afraid to look on the dark as well as the bright side. "But I always say," she went on, "that it takes all sorts to make a world, and I will say for Polly that I've never found her shooting and murdering like these Americans do all the time. A most quiet, nice, respectable girl I've always found her, and never shot anyone, as far as I know."

"Pulling pistols out of their 'ip pockets and shooting at people," said Mrs. Price querulously. "I don't 'old with it, and if I 'ad my way, it'd be put down by law. But nobody listens to me. Not that Polly's like that, American though she frankly admits herself to be a quiet, nice, respectable girl she is, and clever at 'air and manicurin', too. You might do worse than marry Polly, Syd. She'd make you a good wife. No nonsense about Polly. Never shot anyone."

"Not a marryin' man, Ma," said Syd austere. "Too wrapped up in the business. No time for girls. Me scissors is my sweetheart."

"All I want," said Mrs. Price, abandoning the theme, "is a little love."

"Me, too. And a different toast. 'Op it, Ma. You'll feel a buttered woman after cup of tea."

"'Tillo, Ma!" said Syd. "Still a bit tiddler, aren't you?"

Ma Price bridled.

"Nothing of the kind," she said with dignity. "I 'ad to 'ave a drop or two on the way down, whose fault was that? More to be pitied than censured, I am—with this 'eat of mine."

"Your 'eat's in the right place."

"I know it is, but it goes all jumpy. Why were you two chewing the rag about?"

"She went out in the park to look at rabbits," said Syd. "Never seen one before. Not running about, that is, with all its insides in it. She'll come back at tea-time. A quiet, nice, known as the 'omin' instinct."

"She's a nice girl, Polly. American—yes," said Ma Price, as one who is not afraid to look on the dark as well as the bright side. "But I always say," she went on, "that it takes all sorts to make a world, and I will say for Polly that I've never found her shooting and murdering like these Americans do all the time. A most quiet, nice, respectable girl I've always found her, and never shot anyone, as far as I know."

"Pulling pistols out of their 'ip pockets and shooting at people," said Mrs. Price querulously. "I don't 'old with it, and if I 'ad my way, it'd be put down by law. But nobody listens to me. Not that Polly's like that, American though she frankly admits herself to be a quiet, nice, respectable girl she is, and clever at 'air and manicurin', too. You might do worse than marry Polly, Syd. She'd make you a good wife. No nonsense about Polly. Never shot anyone."

"Not a marryin' man, Ma," said Syd austere. "Too wrapped up in the business. No time for girls. Me scissors is my sweetheart."

"All I want," said Mrs. Price, abandoning the theme, "is a little love."

"Me, too. And a different toast. 'Op it, Ma. You'll feel a buttered woman after cup of tea."

"'Tillo, Ma!" said Syd. "Still a bit tiddler, aren't you?"

Ma Price bridled.

"Nothing of the kind," she said with dignity. "I 'ad to 'ave a drop or two on the way down, whose fault was that? More to be pitied than censured, I am—with this 'eat of mine."

"Your 'eat's in the right place."

"I know it is, but it goes all jumpy. Why were you two chewing the rag about?"

"She went out in the park to look at rabbits," said Syd. "Never seen one before. Not running about, that is, with all its insides in it. She'll come back at tea-time. A quiet, nice, known as the 'omin' instinct."

"She's a nice girl, Polly. American—yes," said Ma Price, as one who is not afraid to look on the dark as well as the bright side. "But I always say," she went on, "that it takes all sorts to make a world, and I will say for Polly that I've never found her shooting and murdering like these Americans do all the time. A most quiet, nice, respectable girl I've always found her, and never shot anyone, as far as I know."

"Pulling pistols out of their 'ip pockets and shooting at people," said Mrs. Price querulously. "I don't 'old with it, and if I 'ad my way, it'd be put down by law. But nobody listens to me. Not that Polly's like that, American though she frankly admits herself to be a quiet, nice, respectable girl she is, and clever at 'air and manicurin', too. You might do worse than marry Polly, Syd. She'd make you a good wife. No nonsense about Polly. Never shot anyone."

"Not a marryin' man, Ma," said Syd austere. "Too wrapped up in the business. No time for girls. Me scissors is my sweetheart."

"All I want," said Mrs. Price, abandoning the theme, "is a little love."

"Me, too. And a different toast. 'Op it, Ma. You'll feel a buttered woman after cup of tea."

"'Tillo, Ma!" said Syd. "Still a bit tiddler, aren't you?"

Ma Price bridled.

"Nothing of the kind," she said with dignity. "I 'ad to 'ave a drop or two on the way down, whose fault was that? More to be pitied than censured, I am—with this 'eat of mine."

"Your 'eat's in the right place."

"I know it is, but it goes all jumpy. Why were you two chewing the rag about?"

"She went out in the park to look at rabbits," said Syd. "Never seen one before. Not running about, that is, with all its insides in it. She'll come back at tea-time. A quiet, nice, known as the 'omin' instinct."

"She's a nice girl, Polly. American—yes," said Ma Price, as one who is not afraid to look on the dark as well as the bright side. "But I always say," she went on, "that it takes all sorts to make a world, and I will say for Polly that I've never found her shooting and murdering like these Americans do all the time. A most quiet, nice, respectable girl I've always found her, and never shot anyone, as far as I know."

"Pulling pistols out of their 'ip pockets and shooting at people," said Mrs. Price querulously. "I don't 'old with it, and if I 'ad my way, it'd be put down by law. But nobody listens to me. Not that Polly's like that, American though she frankly admits herself to be a quiet, nice, respectable girl she is, and clever at 'air and manicurin', too. You might do worse than marry Polly, Syd. She'd make you a good wife. No nonsense about Polly. Never shot anyone."

"Not a marryin' man, Ma," said Syd austere. "Too wrapped up in the business. No time for girls. Me scissors is my sweetheart."

"All I want," said Mrs. Price, abandoning the theme, "is a little love."

"Me, too. And a different toast. 'Op it, Ma. You'll feel a buttered woman after cup of tea."

"'Tillo, Ma!" said Syd. "Still a bit tiddler, aren't you?"

Ma Price bridled.

"Nothing of the kind," she said with dignity. "I 'ad to 'ave a drop or two on the way down, whose fault was that? More to be pitied than censured, I am—with this 'eat of mine."

"Your 'eat's in the right place."

"I know it is, but it goes all jumpy. Why were you two chewing the rag about?"

"She went out in the park to look at rabbits," said Syd. "Never seen one before. Not running about, that is, with all its insides in it. She'll come back at tea-time. A quiet, nice, known as the 'omin' instinct."

"She's a nice girl, Polly. American—yes," said Ma Price, as one who is not afraid to look on the dark as well as the bright side. "But I always say," she went on, "that it takes all sorts to make a world, and I will say for Polly that I've never found her shooting and murdering like these Americans do all the time. A most quiet, nice, respectable girl I've always found her, and never shot anyone, as far as I know."

"Pulling pistols out of their 'ip pockets and shooting at people," said Mrs. Price querulously. "I don't 'old with it, and if I 'ad my way, it'd be put down by law. But nobody listens to me. Not that Polly's like that, American though she frankly admits herself to be a quiet, nice, respectable girl she is, and clever at 'air and manicurin', too. You might do worse than marry Polly, Syd. She'd make you a good wife. No nonsense about Polly. Never shot anyone."

"Not a marryin' man, Ma," said Syd austere. "Too wrapped up in the business. No time for girls. Me scissors is my sweetheart."

"All I want," said Mrs. Price, abandoning the theme, "is a little love."

"Me, too. And a different toast. 'Op it, Ma. You'll feel a buttered woman after cup of tea."

"'Tillo, Ma!" said Syd. "Still a bit tiddler, aren't you?"

Ma Price bridled.

"Nothing of the kind," she said with dignity. "I 'ad to 'ave a drop or two on the way down, whose fault was that? More to be pitied than censured, I am—with this 'eat of mine."

"Your 'eat's in the right place."

"I know it is, but it goes all jumpy. Why were you two chewing the rag about?"

"She went out in the park to look at rabbits," said Syd. "Never seen one before. Not running about, that is, with all its insides in it. She'll come back at tea-time. A quiet, nice, known as the 'omin' instinct."

"She's a nice girl, Polly. American—yes," said Ma Price, as one who is not afraid to look on the dark as well as the bright side. "But I always say," she went on, "that it takes all sorts to make a world, and I will say for Polly that I've never found her shooting and murdering like these Americans do all the time. A most quiet, nice, respectable girl I've always found her, and never shot anyone, as far as I know."

"Pulling pistols out of their 'ip pockets and shooting at people," said Mrs. Price querulously. "I don't 'old with it, and if I 'ad my way, it'd be put down by law. But nobody listens to me. Not that Polly's like that, American though she frankly admits herself to be a quiet, nice, respectable girl she is, and clever at 'air and manicurin', too. You might do worse than marry Polly, Syd. She'd make you a good wife. No nonsense about Polly. Never shot anyone."

"Not a marryin' man, Ma," said Syd austere. "Too wrapped up in the business. No time for girls. Me scissors is my sweetheart."

"All I want," said Mrs. Price, abandoning the theme, "is a little love."

"Me, too. And a different toast. 'Op it, Ma. You'll feel a buttered woman after cup of tea."

"'Tillo, Ma!" said Syd. "Still a bit tiddler, aren't you?"

Ma Price bridled.

"Nothing of the kind," she said with dignity. "I 'ad to 'ave a drop or two on the way down, whose fault was that? More to be pitied than censured, I am—with this 'eat of mine."

"Your 'eat's in the right place."

"I know it is, but it goes all jumpy. Why were you two chewing the rag about?"

"She went out in the park to look at rabbits," said Syd. "Never seen one before. Not running about, that is, with all its insides in it. She'll come back at tea-time. A quiet, nice, known as the 'omin' instinct."

"She's a nice girl, Polly. American—yes," said Ma Price, as one who is not afraid to look on the dark as well as the bright side. "But I always say," she went on, "that it takes all sorts to make a world, and I will say for Polly that I've never found her shooting and murdering like these Americans do all the time. A most quiet, nice, respectable girl I've always found her, and never shot anyone, as far as I know."

"Pulling pistols out of their 'ip pockets and shooting at people," said Mrs. Price querulously. "I don't 'old with it, and if I 'ad my way, it'd be put down by law. But nobody listens to me. Not that Polly's like that, American though she frankly admits herself to be a quiet, nice, respectable girl she is, and clever at 'air and manicurin', too. You might do worse than marry Polly, Syd. She'd make you a good wife. No nonsense about Polly. Never shot anyone."

"Not a marryin' man, Ma," said Syd austere. "Too wrapped up in the business. No time for girls. Me scissors is my sweetheart."

"All I want," said Mrs. Price, abandoning the theme, "is a little love."

"Me, too. And a different toast. 'Op it, Ma. You'll feel a buttered woman after cup of tea."

"'Tillo, Ma!" said Syd. "Still a bit tiddler, aren't you?"

Ma Price bridled.

"Nothing of the kind," she said with dignity. "I 'ad to 'ave a drop or two on the way down, whose fault was that? More to be pitied than censured, I am—with this 'eat of mine."

"Your 'eat's in the right place."

"I know it is, but it goes all jumpy. Why were you two chewing the rag about?"

"She went out in the park to look at rabbits," said Syd. "Never seen one before. Not

THE CONSTITUTION

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

Information

CLOSING HOURS

Want ads are accepted up to 5 p. m. for publication the next day. The closing hour for the Sunday edition is 5:30 p. m. Saturday.

CLASSIFIED RATES

Daily and Sunday rates per line for consecutive insertions:
One time 20 cents
Three times 17 cents
Seven times 15 cents
Minimum, 2 lines (12 words).

In estimating the space of an ad figure its average words to a line. Ads ordered for three or seven days and stopped before expiration will only be charged for the number of times the ad appeared and adjustments made at the rate earned.

Errors in advertisements should be reported immediately. The Constitution will not be responsible for errors or omissions in ads.

All want ads are restricted to their proper classification and The Constitution reserves the right to refuse or reject any advertisement.

To Phone An Ad
Call Walnut 6565
Ask for an Ad-Taker

RAILROAD SCHEDULES

Schedules Published as Information.

(Central Standard Time)

TERMINAL STATION. —Leaves

7:10 p.m. Corvair-Waltonville 7:10 a.m.

7:15 p.m. Waycross-Thomsonville 7:15 a.m.

7:20 p.m. A. & W. P. R. R. —Leaves

11:55 p.m. New Orleans-Montgomery 7:10 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Montgomery-Local 1:00 p.m.

7:20 p.m. New Orleans-Montgomery 4:30 p.m.

11:45 a.m. New Orleans-Montgomery 7:10 a.m.

7:20 p.m. O. G. T. Y. —Leaves

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

7:20 p.m. Mac-Sav-Albany 7:20 a.m.

TARZAN THE UNTAMED No. 92

For awhile Olga's captors seemed to have forgotten her existence. No one came near the hut, not even to bring her food. She could hear them at the other end of the village, laughing and yelling, and knew that they were celebrating with native beer and food.

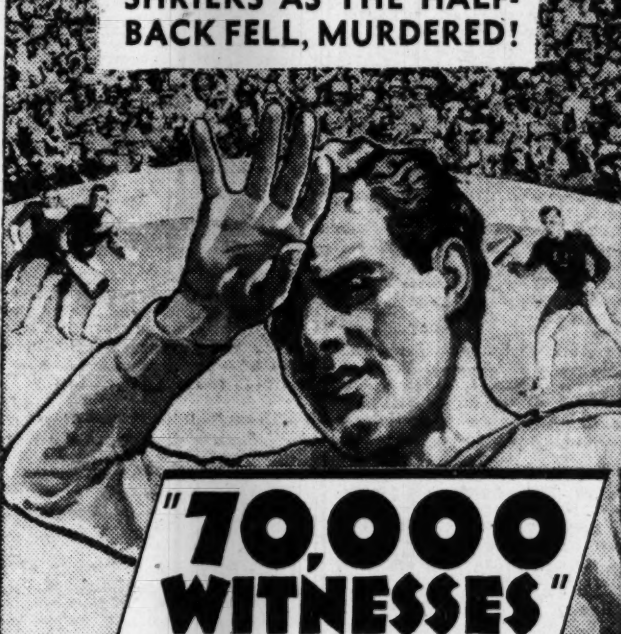

To be prisoner in a native village in the heart of an unexplored region of Central Africa—the only white woman among a band of drunken barbarians? The very thought appalled her? "Courage!" she told herself.

"You have escaped from blacker outlooks than this," she mused. Darkness had fallen and still no one came. She wondered if she dared venture forth in the search of Nartu, Usanga's woman, who was least cruel toward her. Cautiously she left the hut.

She found her way to where the revelers made merry. She saw them performing a grotesque dance, eating greedily and drinking themselves stupid. Only Usanga was half-sober, waiting the moment when he could go alone to the captive's hut.

GUEST TICKETS FOR WANT AD USERS

Two Tickets Free With Each Want Ad Paid in Advance Today for 3 Times or More

70,000 CHEERS BECAME SHRIEKS AS THE HALF-BACK FELL, MURDERED!

WITH PHILLIPS HOLMES & DOROTHY JORDAN CHARLIE RUGGLES & JOHNNY HACK BROWN
"The screen's most unusual mystery!"
Few will solve it...everyone will thrill to it...and no one will ever forget it!

NOW PLAYING
Always a Good Show
Paramount
1000 GOOD SEATS AT 35¢
This Picture Will Not Be Shown in Any Other Theater in Atlanta

BUSINESS SERVICE

Steam Radiator Covers
STEAM radiator covers bargains. G. A. Manning, 7440, 145 Linden Ave. N. E.

Wrecking
WANTED—100 houses to wreck. Used lumber, brick for sale. Moss, H. 0051.

EMPLOYMENT

Help Wanted—Male 33
MANUFACTURER of nationally known product that has been sold in this territory for 10 years has opening in Atlanta for real producer. This man must be in a position to make bona fide capital to purchase necessary for daily cash sales made from truck. This will take from two hundred to five hundred dollars, depending on territory. He must be able to write weekly on charge account sales and daily on cash sales from truck. We are interested only in a man willing to work every day all day. A man of this type can succeed with this company. If you are a house head do not answer this ad. An interview will be arranged Tuesday or Wednesday. Give full details in your application. Address replies to C-175, Constitution.

THE TOTT COMPANY, largest manufacturer of checks and check-writing materials, has a territory open in this locality. Successful applicant will receive thorough training. Capable man will find unusual earning opportunity in new products and services. The Tott Sales Company, 412 Peachtree Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia.

TAILORING and clothing salesman. If you are experienced man and have good following and desire permanent connection with established tailoring concern, phone Room Nine Four Five, Henry Grady hotel, for appointment. C. H. Ortelien.

HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES—Aged 18-22. Must be free to travel with manager; 12 beginning and excellent opportunity for advancement. Call upon Mr. Shugart, second floor, 324 Baker Street, mornings from 7:30 to 8:30.

ON book proposition. Can make good money under our training. Apply mornings, 612 Glen Building.

BIG pay giving away shirts, ties, hosiery, underwear. Smashing offer gets extra orders daily. Sample free, Carlton Mills, 8100 Fifth Ave., N. Y.

3 YOUNG men to help build up routes in Atlanta and suburbs; experience unnecessary. Can earn $20.00 per week to start. Apply 201 Bona Allen Bldg.

MAN WITH CAR TO INSPECT ROOFS CLEANERS FOR CITY DEALER. STEADY EMPLOYMENT. 418 GLEN BUILDING.

TWO men for responsible, permanent position. Discuss pay at interview. See Mr. Carter Tuesday, 1905 2nd Marietta St. Bldg.

EXPERIENCED lubrication man, between ages of 25 and 35; state experience, age and references. Address D-115, Constitution.

Help Wanted—Male 33

ARE YOU INTERESTED
IN applying your time and energy to a job with possibility of fair earnings to begin, and lucrative compensation after a few months, where you are given free training with no investment to make? If so, see Mr. Brown at 219 101 Marietta St. Bldg. 9 to 1.

Help Wanted—Male 33

STEAM HEATING SERVICE.
P. L. GUEST. DE. 1985

Wallpapering and Painting
OTTO FABER, interior decorator, painting, paper hanging. Rooms $2.50 up. MA. 5625.

GALLI, HE. 3215 for first-class papering, painting. Lowest prices. C. W. Scarborough.

Help Wanted—Male 33

STEAM HEATING SERVICE.
P. L. GUEST. DE. 1985

Wallpapering and Painting
OTTO FABER, interior decorator, painting, paper hanging. Rooms $2.50 up. MA. 5625.

GALLI, HE. 3215 for first-class papering, painting. Lowest prices. C. W. Scarborough.

Help Wanted—Male 33

STEAM HEATING SERVICE.
P. L. GUEST. DE. 1985

Wallpapering and Painting
OTTO FABER, interior decorator, painting, paper hanging. Rooms $2.50 up. MA. 5625.

GALLI, HE. 3215 for first-class papering, painting. Lowest prices. C. W. Scarborough.

Help Wanted—Male 33

STEAM HEATING SERVICE.
P. L. GUEST. DE. 1985

EMPLOYMENT

Help Wanted—Male 33

CAN PLACE (2) MEN
OF NEAT appearance, with fair education, who are willing to work, learn and earn good pay. High learning. Apply 2 p. m. sharp today, no other time, 412 Red Rock Bldg.

SALESMEN
CAN use 15 who can walk, talk and use common sense. Should earn around $25 per week. Apply 9 a. m. Tuesday only, 615 S. W. Pryor street.

MEN to solicit coffee orders on established routes. Apply in person only to Standard Coffee Co., 247 Moreland, S. E.

FIRST-CLASS barber; liquor needs not apply. HE. 1985, between 1:30 and 11:30.

WANTED—Solicitors for dry cleaning with truck. 1544 Boulevard, N. E. HE. 3379.

WANTED—Salesman with good personality. Hollywood Studio, 1703 Peachtree.

FIRST-CLASS SALESMEN—Phone WA. 5643 Tues. 9 to 11 o'clock. A. M.

BLACK-PACE comedian, other performers, for tent show. 222 Pryor St. N. E.

AT ONCE—2 men, agents on trains. Union News Service, Union Depot.

Help Wanted—Male or Female 33A

CHRISTMAS CARD SALESPERSON

BOX of 30 large, beautifully colored Christmas cards, 50¢ per box. Box of 50 with four different Christmas cards and two 21-card sets. Best value in the city. Box of 20 cards in lined folders with extra outside mailing envelopes cost you 50¢. Box of additional 100 cards, 12 of them hand-painted, on beautiful gold, silver and etching stock. A big $2 value, cost you 50¢. Personally inspected by the advertiser. Robb Bonnell, 100 Peachtree, N. E. Write today, Mr. Franklin Institute, Dept. 91-0, Rochester, N. Y.

AA-1 OPPORTUNITY
GENEROUS REGULAR COMMISSIONS
$5 TO $40 CASH BONUS
PLUS 10% EXTRA COMMISSIONS

SALESMEN. Earn $4 to $8 daily showing the Process line of 55 extra large Christmas cards and two 21-card sets. Bating 100% profit. STOCK CARRIED IN THE CITY. Experience unnecessary. We do live and collect. Generous commissions plus 10% cash bonus. SEE OUR FREE SAMPLES FIRST.

THE PROCESS CORPORATION
323 MORTGAGE GUARANTEE BLDG.

EXPERIENCED book salesman. Samples have just arrived of the new National Encyclopedia. Callers, 619 Rhodes Bldg.

Help Wanted—Instructions 34

MEN-WOMEN, 18-30; $105 to $250 monthly. Steady government life job. Many post-depression vacancies. Prepare immediately. List positions and particulars FREE. Write today, Mrs. Franklin Institute, Dept. 91-0, Rochester, N. Y.

Situations Wanted—Female 36

YOUNG LADY, handle large volume of work, detail bookkeeper, type, ready, general office exp. A-1 references; will accept out-of-town. Moderate salary. WA. 5116-Bookkeeper.

P. B. X. operator, office assistant, well-trained in modern business methods; banking experience. References, HE. 1474.

COLORADO WOMAN WANTS WORK. LAUNDRY, DRESS, DAY WORK. COOK. MA. 1081.

NURSE, hospital training, any kind case, hospital, infant, day or office. JA. 7638-R.

EXP. stenographer, sten. with book. Rapid, energetic, single. Refs. WA. 2898.

EXPERIENCED all-round servant wants work, whole or half day. MA. 9627.

YOUNG lady, bookkeeper, typist and general office work; small sal. MA. 7827.

EXPERIENCED nurse, care for invalid, baby, or doctor's office. JA. 8965.

LADY with small baby will do housework for room and board. WA. 574.

EXP. maid with good references wants work; can cook. JA. 7850-J.

EXP. COOK, maid, wants job. Will live on place. WA. 0729-Reference.

EXPERIENCED colored girl, maid, nurse, or cook. MAIN 8709.

Situations Wanted—Male 37

Mosley Would Convert

Mosley Would Convert British to Fascism

LONDON, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Sir Oswald Mosley, who has been called the "Hitler of Great Britain," announced Sunday that he will attempt to inaugurate a new program to convert the empire to fascism.

His announcement was made at the same time his book, "The Greater Britain," was published, in which he claims he can solve Britain's difficulties.

He proposes a scientific rearrangement of the economic system, and a campaign to bring back a sense of responsibility to the state among the British people.

"We cannot muddle through this," Sir Oswald said. He said he was confident that the pressure of events will induce the British people to accept his program because the choice has to be made between constructive fascism and the chaos that is a prelude to communism. A group of black-shirted youths has been circulating handbills advertising Sir Oswald's book.

MOONEY'S ATTORNEYS ASK CONFESSION PROBE

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—(UP)—Attorneys for Tom Mooney, serving a life sentence for the San Francisco Preparedness day bombing in 1916, today demanded complete investigation of the story told by Paul Callicotte, Portland, Ore., mountain guide, that

"The details of the confession and the circumstances under which it was given are such that we believe Calcutt's story may be of the most vital importance," said Cyrus B. King, associated with Frank P. Walsh and Aaron Sapiro, of New York, in Mooney's legal defense.

Funeral Notices.

DOUGHERTY — Mr. Thomas J. Dougherty, of 602 Capitol avenue, S. E., passed away Monday night. He is survived by his wife; three daughters, Mrs. S. C. Kendrick, Mrs. W. P. Fuller and Mrs. George E. Fox; three sons, Sam, Tom and Will Dougherty. Funeral arrange-

ENNIES—The friends of Mrs. Mary A. Hennies, Mrs. Lula Frehlich, Mr. Arthur J. Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Adams, Miss Minnie Dunlap, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Turk, of Atlanta, and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lanier, of East Point, Ga., are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs.

Mary A. Hennies this (Tuesday) afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Pryorwood Street Presbyterian church. Rev. Lawrence A. Davis will officiate. Remains will lie in state at the church from 2 o'clock until funeral at 1 hour. Interment in Hollywood cemetery. The following gentlemen will serve as pallbearers and please assemble at the church at 2:45 o'clock: Messrs. J. F. Pickard, Wade H. Wright W. G. Marks.

YOUTH—The friends and relatives of Mrs. Leona South, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Brownlee, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard South, Newark, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Slaughter, Mrs. J. L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Parker, all of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Maxey, Mrs. Will L. ...

Mr. and Mrs. Will Johnson, Ashland, Va., Tenn.; Mr. and Mrs. Will Petry, Cincinnati, Ohio.; Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Adamson, Georgetown, Ky.; Mrs. John Ridgely, Richmond, Va., are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. Leona South, this (Tuesday) morning, October 4, 1932, at 11 o'clock, at Spring Hill. Dr. S. H. C. Burgin will officiate. Interment, West View cemetery. Those following gentlemen will serve as palbearers and please meet at Spring Hill at 10:45 o'clock: Mr. W. W. Wynn, Mr. Charles P. Hodge, Mr. L. J. Smith, Mr. N. P. Pendley, Mr. S. H. Story and Mr. J. M. Slaughter. H. M. Patterson & Son.

LENN—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Glenn, Miss Georgiana Glenn, Miss Catherine Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. John E.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Glenn, Spartanburg, S. C., and Mrs. Walter C. Miller, are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. J. H. Glenn, this (Tuesday) afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at Spring Hill. Dr. D. P. McGeachy, officiate. The following gentlemen will please meet at Spring Hill at 1:45 o'clock: Mr. and Mrs. Glenn, West Point, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Glenn, Spartanburg, S. C.; and Mrs. Walter C. Miller, Huntsville, Ala.

to serve as pallbearers: Mr. W. H. Joiner, Mr. T. B. Branch, Mr. J. E. Rembert, Mr. W. C. Watters, Mr. W. S. Parker and Mr. W. C. Mizell; to serve as honorary pallbearers: Mr. J. E. Tilford, Mr. F. H. Speiden, Mr. J. J. Cottrell, Mr. G. S. Rainis, Mr. E. K. Bryan, Mr. S. B. Mitchell, Mr. W. H. Paxton and Mr. L. C. Chalenor. H. M. Patterson & Son.

LOTS in Beautiful WEST VIEW
$150.00 and Up
Reasonable Terms
Perpetual Care Guaranteed
West View Cemetery Association
45 Walton Street Walnut 0100

Awtry & Lowndes
BEAUTIFUL FUNERAL CHAPEL
 AT YOUR DISPOSAL SEATING 400
 WA. 7066.

PEACHTREE CHAPEL
Brandon-Bond-Condon
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
 INSURANCE HEmlock 6091

STORAGE—MOVING
HOUSEHOLD GOODS
ZABAN
WALNUT 2701

Wachendorff Bros.
FLOWERS
JA. 1141—1142—1143

(COLORED).
 DIXON—Friends and relatives of Mrs. Georgia Holley, Mr. and Mrs. George Holley, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Holley and friends of Mrs. Mary Dixon are invited to attend her funeral this (Tuesday), October 4, at 11 a. m. from Travelers' Rest church, Hapeville, Ga. Rev. E. D. Lampkins, of Rock Springs, officiating. Ivey Bros., morticians.

TERRILL—The friends and relatives of Mr. Lewis Terrill are invited to attend his funeral this (Tuesday) afternoon, October 4, 1932, at 2 o'clock, from China Grove Baptist church. Pallbearers will please meet at the residence, 218 Maple Alley, at 1:15 p. m. Rev. J. T. Tanner will officiate. Interment in South View cemetery. Sellers Bros.

(COLORED)
In Memoriam.
In memory of our daughter and sister,
Arlantine Ellis Cobbins, who passed away
a year ago today.
Gone, but not forgotten.
Each day you live with us.
WILLIE ELLIS, Mother,
LEON COBBINS, Son.
